Paterson,2018-03-07 Rio Grande s Last Race and Other Verses      Rio Grande's Last Race A B Paterson,2020-07-04 Now this was what Macpherson told While waiting in the stand A reckless rider over bold The only man with hands to hold The rushing Rio Grande He said This day I bid good bye To bit and bridle rein To ditches deep and fences high For I have dreamed a dream and I Shall never ride again I dreamt last night I rode this race That I to day must ride And cant ring down to take my place I saw full many an old friend s face Come stealing to my side Dead men on horses long since dead They clustered on the track The champions of the days long fled They moved around with noiseless tread Bay chestnut brown and black And one man on a big grey steed Rode up and waved his hand Said he We help a friend in need And we have come to give a lead To you and Rio Grande For you must give the field the slip So never draw the rein But keep him moving with the whip And if he falter set your lip And rouse him up again But when you reach the big stone wall Put down your bridle hand And let him sail he cannot fall But don t you interfere at all You trust old Rio Grande We started and in front we showed The big horse running free Right fearlessly and game he strode And by my side those dead men rode Whom no one else could see As silently as flies a bird They rode on either hand At every fence I plainly heard The phantom leader give the word Make room for Rio Grande I spurred him on to get the lead I chanced full many a fall But swifter still each phantom steed Kept with me and at racing speed We reached the big stone wall And there the phantoms on each side Drew in and blocked his leap Make room make room I loudly cried But right in front they seemed to ride I cursed them in my sleep Rio Grande's Last
