Monolith #1 Jimmy Palmiotti, Justin Gray, We are introduced to Alice Cohen a down and out ex junkie who inherits a house in Brooklyn from her deceased grandmother Alice discovers her diary and begins to read the tale of a lost love and revenge that begins in the factories of New York during the depression and shows the creation of a monster bent on revenge for the slaying of a good honest man Story by Jimmy Palmiotti and Justin Gray Art by Phil Winslade Ripple Effects Pam Tebow, 2022-07 Discover the God inspired difference only you can make in the world using the key you never knew you had Tim Tebow credits his mom with being the key to his success but Pam never expected that she would be known on a national stage For most of her life she was serving quietly and faithfully as a wife and a mom choosing life for her child in the face of medical risks answering the Lord's call to mission work in the Philippines and homeschooling before anyone knew what the word meant But all along the way her experiences and her consistent everyday choices to follow the Lord and to serve wherever He placed her were creating unexpected ripples of influence throughout her family her community and her world And they would end up extending far beyond anything she ever imagined Pam believes that every one of us can be influential and that deep within a woman's heart is the desire to use her influence for good In Ripple Effects Pam uncovers and explores the miraculous motivating power of influence we can have on this generation and the next no matter where we are planted in life Whether we are in the midst of endless diaper changes climbing up the corporate ladder or simply doing our best to live love and serve well each day Pam will encourage us to maximize our God given opportunities for influence and watch how far the ripples will spread Instructional Materials Selection Guide California. Resources in Education ,1993 What Comes after Entanglement? Eva Haifa Giraud, 2019-10-18 By foregrounding the ways that human existence is bound together with the lives of other entities contemporary cultural theorists have sought to move beyond an anthropocentric worldview Yet as Eva Haifa Giraud contends in What Comes after Entanglement for all their conceptual power in implicating humans in ecologically damaging practices these theories can undermine scope for political action Drawing inspiration from activist projects between the 1980s and the present that range from anticapitalist media experiments and vegan food activism to social media campaigns against animal research Giraud explores possibilities for action while fleshing out the tensions between theory and practice Rather than an activist ethics based solely on relationality and entanglement Giraud calls for what she describes as an ethics of exclusion which would attend to the entities practices and ways of being that are foreclosed when other entangled realities are realized Such an ethics of exclusion emphasizes foreclosures in the context of human entanglement in order to foster the conditions for people to create meaningful political change
