

GREAT TRADITION & LITTLE TRADITION

The complex fabric of human societies and cultures can be better understood through the dual concepts of "Great Tradition" and "Little Tradition", first introduced by Robert Redfield in his studies of Indian society in the mid-20th century.

The Great Tradition Richard M. Gamble, 2023-03-28 Frustrated with the continuing educational crisis of our time concerned parents teachers and students sense that true reform requires more than innovative classroom technology standardized tests or skills training An older tradition the Great Tradition of education in the West is waiting to be heard Since antiquity the Great Tradition has defined education first and foremost as the hard work of rightly ordering the human soul helping it to love what it ought to love and helping it to know itself and its maker In the classical and Christian tradition the formation of the soul in wisdom virtue and eloquence took precedence over all else including instrumental training aimed at the inculcation of useful knowledge Edited by historian Richard Gamble this anthology reconstructs a centuries long conversation about the goals conditions and ultimate value of true education Spanning more than two millennia from the ancient Greeks to contemporary writers it includes substantial excerpts from more than sixty seminal writings on education Represented here are the wisdom and insight of such figures as Xenophon Plato Aristotle Seneca Cicero Basil Augustine Hugh of St Victor Bonaventure Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther John Calvin Erasmus Edmund Burke John Henry Newman Thomas Arnold Albert Jay Nock Dorothy Sayers C S Lewis and Eric Voegelin In an unbroken chain of giving and receiving The Great Tradition embraced the accumulated wisdom of the past and understood education as the initiation of students into a body of truth This unique collection is designed to help parents students and teachers reconnect with this noble legacy to articulate a coherent defense of the liberal arts tradition and to do battle with the modern utilitarians and vocationalists who dominate educational theory

Women and Ceramics Moira Vincentelli,2000 This pioneering collection of essays deals with the topic of how Irish literature responds to the presence of non Irish immigrants in Celtic Tiger and post Celtic Tiger Ireland The book assembles an international group of 18 leading and prestigious academics in the field of Irish studies from both sides of the Atlantic including Declan Kiberd Anne Fogarty and Maureen T Reddy amongst others Key areas of discussion are what does it mean to be multicultural and what are the implications of this condition for contemporary Irish writers How has literature in Ireland responded to inward migration Have Irish writers reflected in their work either explicitly or implicitly the existence of migrant communities in Ireland If so are elements of Irish traditional culture and community maintained or transformed What is the social and political efficacy of these intercultural artistic visions Writers discussed include Hugo Hamilton Roddy Doyle Colum McCann il s N Dhuibhne Dermot Bolger Chris Binchy Michael O Loughlin Emer Martin and Kate O Riordan

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway,2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study

American Folklife Don Yoder,2014-11-06 Knowledge of folk custom and folk belief can help to explain ways of thought and behavior in modern America American Folklife a unique collection of essays dedicated to the presentation of American tradition broadens our understanding of the regional differences and ethnic folkways that color American life Folklife research examines the entire context of everyday life in past and present It includes every aspect of traditional life from regional architecture through the full range of material culture into spiritual culture folk religion witchcraft and other forms of folk belief This collection is especially useful in its application to American society where countless influences from European American Indian and African cultural backgrounds merge American Folklife relates folklife research to history anthropology cultural geography architectural history ethnographic film folk technology folk belief and ethnic tensions in American society It documents the folk cultural background that is the root of our society Towards a Theology of Church Growth David Goodhew,2016-03-03 Concern about church growth and decline is widespread and contentious yet theological reflection on church growth is scarce Reflecting on the Bible dogmatic theology and church history this book situates the numerical growth of the church within wider Christian theology Leading international scholars including Alister McGrath Benedicta Ward and C Kavin Rowe contribute a spectrum of voices from evangelical charismatic liberal and anglo catholic perspectives All contributors unite around the importance of seeking church growth provided this is situated within a nuanced theological framework This book offers a critique of decline theology which has been influential amongst theologians and churches and which assumes church growth is impossible and or unnecessary The contributors provide rich resources from scripture doctrine and tradition to underpin action to promote church growth and to stimulate further theological reflection on the subject The Archbishop of Canterbury provides the Foreword The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1898 Resources in Education ,1996-06 Creolizing Hannah Arendt Marilyn Nissim-Sabat,Neil Roberts,2024-05-13 Creolizing Hannah Arendt is the first book to explore the implications of creolizing Hannah Arendt 1906 75 and thinking for action liberation freedom power democracy identity racism prejudice totalitarianism immigration judgment revolution decolonial politics the human and the modern traditions of Caribbean political thought Africana philosophy and existential phenomenology Contributors include Cristina Beltr n Roger Berkowitz Ang lica Maria Bernal Robert Eaglestone Stephen Nathan Haymes Paget Henry Thomas Meagher Dana Francisco Miranda Marilyn Nissim Sabat Niklas Plaetzer Neil Roberts Political Competition, Innovation and Growth Peter Bernholz,Manfred E. Streit,Roland Vaubel,2012-12-06 This volume confronts an important historical hypothesis with empirical evidence from selected periods of history The hypothesis in question states that competition among political and legal organisations in developing rules has been a crucial condition for liberty innovation and growth in the history of mankind It is due to Immanuel Kant Edward Gibbon and Max Weber and has been revived and further developed by Nobel Laureate Douglass C North who contributes the first chapter The volume brings together political economists historians and legal scholars to discuss the role of political competition in the rise and decline of nations both in theory and in a large number of case studies
