Atlantic Families Sarah M. S. Pearsall, 2008-11-27 The growth of the Atlantic world led to the separation of many families Sarah Pearsall explores their lives and letters revealing the sometimes shocking stories of those divided by sea and argues that it was these transatlantic bonds much more than the American Revolution that reshaped contemporary ideals about marriage and the family Current History and Modern Culture, 1902 Books in Series, 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Beauty and Business Philip Scranton, 2014-03-05 Beauty seems simple we know it when we see it But of course our ideas about what is attractive are influenced by a broad range of social and economic factors and in Beauty and Business leading historians set out to provide this important cultural context How have retailers shaped popular consciousness about beauty And how in turn have cultural assumptions influenced the commodification of beauty The contributors here look to particular examples in order to address these questions turning their attention to topics ranging from the social role of the African American hair salon and the sexual dynamics of bathing suits and shirtcollars to the deeper meanings of corsets and what the Avon lady tells us about changing American values As a whole these essays force us to reckon with the ways that beauty has been made bought and sold in modern America Feelings and Work in Modern History Agnes Arnold-Forster, Alison Moulds, 2022-01-27 Work in all its guises is a fundamental part of the human experience and yet it is a setting where emotions rarely take centre stage This edited collection interrogates the troubled relationship between emotion and work to shed light on the feelings and meanings of both paid and unpaid labour from the late 19th to the 21st century Central to this book is a reappraisal of emotional labour now associated with the household and life admin work largely undertaken by women and which reflects and perpetuates gender inequalities Critiquing this term and the history of how work has made us feel Feelings and Work in Modern History explores the changing values we have ascribed to our labour examines the methods deployed by workplaces to manage or administrate our emotions and traces feelings through 19th 20th and 21st century Europe Asia and South America Exploring the damages wrought to physical and emotional health by certain workplaces and practices critiquing the pathologisation of some emotional responses to work and acknowledging the joy and meaning people derive from their labour this book appraises the notion of work life balance explores the changing notions of professionalism and critically engages with the history of capitalism and neo liberalism In doing so it interrogates the lasting impact of some of these histories on the current and future emotional landscape of labour

The Radio Right Paul Matzko, 2020 In this book Paul Matzko tells the story of the emergence of ultra conservative radio in the 1960s and reveals the Kennedy administration s involvement in a censorship campaign against conservative broadcasters The Radio Right provides the essential pre history for the last four decades of conservative activism as well as the historical context for current issues of political bias and censorship in the media The Ashgate Research

Companion to Women and Gender in Early Modern Europe Jane Couchman, 2016-03-23 Over the past three decades scholars have transformed the study of women and gender in early modern Europe This Ashgate Research Companion presents an authoritative review of the current research on women and gender in early modern Europe from a multi disciplinary perspective The authors examine women s lives ideologies of gender and the differences between ideology and reality through the recent research across many disciplines including history literary studies art history musicology history of science and medicine and religious studies The book is intended as a resource for scholars and students of Europe in the early modern period for those who are just beginning to explore these issues and this time period as well as for scholars learning about aspects of the field in which they are not yet an expert The companion offers not only a comprehensive examination of the current research on women in early modern Europe but will act as a spark for new research in the field

The Business of Emotions in Modern History Mandy L. Cooper, Andrew Popp, 2023-01-12 The Business of Emotions in Modern History shows how businesses from individual entrepreneurs to family firms and massive corporations have relied on leveraged generated and been shaped by emotions for centuries With a broad temporal and global coverage ranging from the early modern era to the present day in Africa Asia Europe and North America the essays in this volume highlight the rich potential for studying emotions and business in tandem In exploring how emotions and emotional situations affect business and in turn how businesses affect the emotional lives of individuals and communities this book allows us to recognise the emotional structures behind business decisions and relationships and how to question them From emotional labour in family firms to affective corporate paternalism and the role of specific emotions such as trust fear anxiety love and nostalgia in creating economic connections this book opens a rich new avenue of research for both the history of emotions and business history

Creating the Modern Man Tom Pendergast, 2000 Pendergast traces the shift in US periodicals from Victorian masculinity which valued character integrity hard work and duty to modern masculinity which valued personality self realization and image Arguing that the rise of mass consumer culture was a key factor in the change he describes how such magazines as American Magazine Esquire and True presented masculinity in ways that reflected the magazines relationship to advertisers contributors and readers Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Color Complex (Revised) Kathy Russell, Midge Wilson, Ph.D., Ronald Hall, 2013-01-08 A provocative exploration of how Western standards of beauty are influencing cultures across the globe and impacting personal professional romantic and familial relationships Processes like skin lightening in India hair smoothing in Black America eyelid reconstruction in China and plastic surgery worldwide continue to rise in popularity for men and women facing discrimination from both within and outside of their own increasingly fluid ethnic groups Now including a wealth of new information since the first edition of The Color Complex over two decades ago the authors through a historical and sociological lens have measured the impact of recent pop culture events effecting race relations to determine whether colorism has gotten better or worse over time

Right Star Rising: A New Politics, 1974-1980 Laura Kalman, 2010-06-28 An authoritative history of the right turn in American national politics during the Ford Carter years On the face of it the Ford Carter years seem completely forgettable They were years of weak presidential leadership and national drift Yet as Laura Kalman shows in this absorbing narrative history the contours of our contemporary politics took shape during these years This was the incubation period for a powerful movement on the right that was to triumph with Ronald Reagan's election in 1980. These years also marked the coming of age of the social movements of the 1960s as their causes moved from the streets to the courts for mediation. Supreme Court decisions on affirmative action and the scope of privacy rights had immense social and political impact. The nation experienced an energy crisis, a sharp economic downturn, and a collision with fundamentalism in Iran that set the terms for coming crises. Kalman's navigation of this eventful political and social terrain is expert and riveting. 3/4-inch Videocassettes, 1980

The Top Books of the Year Rise Of The Modern Woman Forums American History Series The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Rise Of The Modern Woman Forums American History Series : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
