Williams,2019-12-02 For Better For Worse discusses the shame narratives tied to divorce rooted in Christian theologies of marriage and U S political landscapes of marriage rights and regulation Using interdisciplinary methods Natalie E Williams investigates the current conflict between social practices that normalize divorce and religious and political rhetorical narratives that continue to shame those who divorce Williams s work seeks to understand current attitudes and policies related to divorce and to shape Christian ethical responses that resist the use of shame relying instead on commitments to truth telling and a cultivation of shamelessness to support flourishing across a spectrum of family forms

Military Chaplains' Review, 1977 Brief Dramas for Worship Brenda M. Newman, Karen F. Miller, 2005-09-01 Brief Dramas for Worship provides dramas that are suitable for both contemporary and traditional worship services They are appropriate for use instead of a sermon or as the sermon Included are questions and comments to use in a discussion following the service so that key insights from the biblical drama can be emphasized The scripts do NOT require memorization Each drama includes extensive helps which identify possible sets simple costumes and a detailed worship outline including hymn and praise song suggestions original prayers etc These production notes provide effective professional presentation instructions Permission is granted to reproduce scripts for use in congregational settings Most of these biblically based dramas offer a woman's point of view about a scripture story or a scripture message Some of the main characters are biblical people and others are contemporary people Dramas include The Bethlehem Child Margaret a Grieving Mother Yearns for Her Wayward Son Hosea 11 1 Bath Sheba and David Lydia Pilate's Wife Martha Prescription for Peace Caroline A Waitress Receives the Living Water Eli's Wife A Husband's Tale Brings Hope for Peace and Mattie May A Mountain Woman's Tale of Gracious Plenty Women-Church Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2001-03-01 Families Jane Howard, 2022-02-16 In Families Jane Howard informally visits many dozens of families and tries to discover what makes the best ones work so well Families are not dying she finds although they are evolving in various ways From the tightest knit nuclear family or extended clan to the most fragile new commune the family in one guise or another remains everybody's most basic hold on reality We may run away from our families as many do but no sooner do we escape than we find another one often very much like it Sympathetically with immense thrust she crosses the continent to discover families myths jokes and rituals She leafs through their scrapbooks sits on their porches and takes part when she can in their feasts and celebrations She talks to a father of eighteen several double first cousins stepchildren multiple godmothers an honorary relative of an Indian tribe and a nine year old boy who has no family but his mother She sits with a matriarch on the front stoop of a ghetto house goes camping with a family in Mexico has Thanksgiving with another in Iowa and orders pizza with a Greek clan in Massachusetts Howard reports on visits to conventional Southern and Jewish households and to innovative ones whose members lacking a common history plan on building common futures as if water were after all as thick as blood She examines the notion that there are ways and ways of achieving kinship of which birth and marriage are only the most obvious Millions of clans and families all over the United States continue to celebrate quarrel disband reunite and endure Jane Howard makes us realize how our lives are interwoven both with the families we are born into and with those we invent as we go through life Families is compassionate provocative and profound The paperback edition of this important work will be essential reading for all those with an interest in the study of familial bonds particularly sociologists anthropologists and psychologists Doxology 35.3 Mark W.
