Architecture for Rapid Change and Scarce Resources Sumita Singha,2013-07-03 Architects development practitioners and designers are working in a global environment and issues such as environmental and cultural sustainability matter more than ever Past interactions and interventions between developed and developing countries have often been unequal and inappropriate We now need to embrace fresh design practices based on respect for diversity and equality participation and empowerment This book explores what it means for development activists to practise architecture on a global scale and provides a blueprint for developing architectural practices based on reciprocal working methods The content is based on real situations through extended field research and contacts with architecture schools and architects as well as participating NGOs It demonstrates that the ability to produce appropriate and sustainable design is increasingly relevant whether in the field of disaster relief longer term development or wider urban contexts both in rich countries and poor countries

Arts & Culture Philip Harrison, 2005 South Africa is a remarkable land of extraordinary beauty a rich and colorful tapestry of diverse cultures and endless vistas that simply beg to be explored

Written Under the Skin Carli Coetzee, 2019 In this book the author argues that a younger generation of South Africans is developing important and innovative ways of understanding South African pasts and that challenge the narratives that have over the last decades been informed by notions of forgiveness and reconciliation The author uses the image of history rich blood to explore these approaches to intergenerational memory Blood under the skin is a carrier of embodied and gendered histories and using this image the chapters revisit older archives as well as analyse contemporary South African cultural and literary forms The emphasis on blood challenges the privileged status skin has had as explanatory category in thinking about identity and instead emphasises intergenerational transfer and continuity The argument is that a younger generation is disputing and debating the terms through which to understand contemporary South Africa as well as for interpreting the legacies of the past that remain under the visible layer of skin The chapters each concern blood Mandela s prison cell as laboratory for producing bloodless freedom the kinship relations created and resisted in accounts of Eugene de Kock in prison Ruth First s concern with information leaks in her accounts of her time in prison the first human to human heart transplant and its relation to racialised attempts to salvage white identity the Fallist moment Abantu book festival and activist scholarship and creative art works that use blood as trope for thinking about change and continuity Carli Coetzee is Editor of the Journal of African Cultural Studies Her publications include Accented Futures Language Activism and the Ending of Apartheid Wits University Press 2013 and the edited collection Afropolitanism Reboot Routledge 2017 She co edited The Handbook of African Literature Routledge 2019 with Moradewun Adejunmobi and Negotiating the Past The Making of Memory in South Africa Oxford University Press 1998 with Sarah Nuttall Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Wits University Press

C. van Buiten, 2019-07-22 This book offers unique insights into modern African architecture influenced by modern European architecture and at the same time a natural successor to existing site specific and traditional architecture It brings together the worlds of traditional site specific architecture with the Modernist Project in Africa which to date have only been considered in isolation The book covers the four architectural disciplines urban planning building technology building physics and conservation It includes an introduction with a historical outline and an analysis and comparison of a number of projects in various countries in Africa On the basis of examples drawn from practice the author documents and describes the hybrid architectural forms that have emerged from the confrontation and fusion with pre modern Western architecture and urban planning and in so doing he also narrates the history of African architecture

Transforming Cape Town Catherine Besteman, 2008-09-02 An engaging insightful and at times beautifully written account of post apartheid transformation in the city of Cape Town Besteman shows the continuing legacy of apartheid racial segregation and poverty in South Africa as well as glimpses of new forms of cultural creativity and identity formation that are characterized by empathy compassion and hope Transforming Cape Town deserves to be read by anthropologists and anyone interested in how people confront the challenges of racial exclusion and historical inequality and how a few bold agents of transformation seek to create new social spaces to cross old barriers Richard A Wilson author of The Politics of Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Cape Town and anthropology come alive in Besteman's work Insightful dynamic and well written this book opens a space of trust to understanding the pains and creative innovations of transition of people politics and daily survival in a new light Carolyn Nordstrom author of Global Outlaws and Shadows of War Besteman navigates and illuminates post apartheid Cape Town with uncommon skill She brings to bear an anthropologist's training a reporter's eye and ear for the choice remark the telling detail and a candid sympathy for the disenfranchised whose lot in South Africa has not necessarily improved under democracy It's a distressing picture she draws the persisting mutual ignorance even reciprocal demonization across old ethnic and racial lines alongside the ongoing economic injustice The revolution in South Africa has been a piecemeal affair and Besteman's descriptions of the difficulties that even the best intentioned individuals encounter as they struggle toward creating a general social transformation ring painfully true William Finnegan author of Crossing the Line Dateline Soweto A Complicated War and Cold New World Transforming Cape Town is a fascinating account of how people in this divided city engage with democracy transformation and the legacies and ongoing realities of radical inequalities Through conversations with ordinary people Besteman explores the ways in which apartheid's legacies continue to shape interactions both intimate and public In doing so she restores a sense of faith in anthropology as a tool for understanding and critiquing social worlds Fiona Ross author of Bearing Witness Women and Truth and Reconciliation How to Kill Your Best Friend Lexie Elliott, 2022-06-21 If you suspected your best friend the person you were closest to in the whole world was a murderer what would you do Would you confront her Would you help keep her secret Or would you begin to feel afraid Most importantly why don't you feel safe now that she's dead From the author of The French Girl comes a novel full of secrets suspense and deadly twists Georgie Lissa and Bronwyn have been inseparable since dominating their college swim team swimming has always been an escape from their own problems but now their shared passion has turned deadly How can it be true that Lissa the strongest swimmer they know drowned Granted there is something strange about Kanu Cove where Lissa was last seen swimming off the coast of the fabulous island resort she owned with her husband Lissa's closest friends gather at the resort to honor her life but Georgie and Bronwyn can't seem to stop looking over their shoulders Danger lurks beneath the surface of the crystal clear water and even their luxurious private villas can't help them feel safe As the weather turns ominous trapping the funeral guests together on the island nobody knows who they can trust Lissa's death was only the beginning New York Magazine, 1997-11-24 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Fodor's Essential Caribbean Fodor's Travel Guides, 2022-09-06 Whether you want to stay at an all inclusive resort find the best beach or snorkel around some of the world's best coral reefs the local Fodor's travel experts in the Caribbean are here to help Fodor's Essential Caribbean guidebook is packed with maps carefully curated recommendations and everything else you need to simplify your trip planning process and make the most of your time This new edition has been fully redesigned with an easy to read layout fresh information and beautiful color photos Fodor's Essential Caribbean travel guide includes AN ILLUSTRATED ULTIMATE EXPERIENCES GUIDE to the top things to see and do MULTIPLE ITINERARIES to effectively organize your days and maximize your time MORE THAN 65 DETAILED MAPS to help you navigate confidently COLOR PHOTOS throughout to spark your wanderlust HONEST RECOMMENDATIONS on the best sights restaurants hotels nightlife shopping activities and more PHOTO FILLED BEST OF FEATURES on Best Luxury All Inclusive Resorts Best Outdoor Activities Best Beaches in the Caribbean Best Places to Experience Carnival Best Dive and Snorkel Destinations and more TRIP PLANNING TOOLS AND PRACTICAL TIPS including when to go getting around beating the crowds and saving time and money HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL INSIGHTS providing rich context on the local people cuisine geography and more SPECIAL FEATURES on Flavors of the Caribbean What to Know Before You Go Caribbean Weddings and Renting a Villa
