Shakespeare: The Living Record Irvin Leigh Matus, 2016-03-07 Shakespeare, the Living Record Irvin Leigh Matus, 1991 The Living Record Hank Whittemore, 2022-03-22 A compact version of The Monument a reference edition published in 2005 for the general reader Edward de Vere 17th Earl of Oxford used the pen name William Shakespeare to dedicate his works to Henry Wriothesley 3rd Earl of Southampton his unacknowledged royal son by Queen Elizabeth I of England In the Sonnets published in 1609 the earl tells the story of how he agreed to sacrifice his identity even after his death to save Southampton's life and gain his release from perpetual confinement in the Tower of London In other words the answer to the so called Shakespeare Authorship Question is answered in the Sonnets for those of us in posterity by the author himself Shakespeare's House Richard Schoch, 2023-11-16 A page turning story Times Literary Supplement Eye opening Michael Billington A detailed and highly compelling story that involves so much more than bricks and mortar The Stratford Herald In the wide realm of Shakespeare worship the house in Stratford upon Avon where William Shakespeare was born in 1564 known colloquially as the Birthplace remains the chief shrine It's not as romantic as Anne Hathaway's thatched cottage it's not where he wrote any of his plays and there's nothing inside the house that once belonged to Shakespeare himself So why for centuries have people kept turning up on the doorstep Richard Schoch answers that question by examining the history of the Birthplace and by exploring how its changing fortunes over four centuries perfectly mirror the changing attitudes toward Shakespeare himself Based on original research in the archives of the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust in Stratford upon Avon and the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington DC and featuring two black and white illustrated plate sections which draw on the wide array of material available at the Folger Shakespeare Library and the Victoria and Albert Museum this book traces the history of Shakespeare's birthplace over four centuries Beginning in the 1560s when Shakespeare was born there it ends in the 1890s when the house was rescued from private purchase and turned into the Shakespeare monument that it remains today Shakespeare / Play Emma Whipday, 2024-07-11 What is a play How do Shakespeare's plays engage with and represent early modern modes of play from jests and games to music spectacle movement animal baiting and dance How have we played with Shakespeare in the centuries since And how does the structure of the plays experienced in the early modern playhouse shape our understanding of Shakespeare plays today Shakespeare Play brings together established and emerging scholars to respond to these questions using approaches spanning theatre and dance history cultural history critical race studies performance studies disability studies archaeology affect studies music history material history and literary and dramaturgical analysis Ranging across Shakespeare's dramatic oeuvre as well as early modern lost plays dance notation conduct books jest books and contemporary theatre and film it includes consideration of Measure for Measure A Midsummer Night's Dream Macbeth Titus Andronicus Merchant of Venice Twelfth Night Romeo and Juliet Othello King Lear and The Merry Wives of Windsor among others The subject of this volume

Sabrina Feldman, 2011-10 Sabrina Feldman manages the Planetary Science Instrument Development Office at the NASA Jet Propulsion Laboratory Born and raised in Riverside California she attended college and graduate school at the University of California at Berkeley where she enjoyed the wonderful performances of the Berkeley Shakespeare Company studied Shakespeare's works for a semester with Professor Stephen Booth and received a Ph D in experimental physics in 1996 She has worked on many different instrument development projects for NASA and is the former deputy director of JPL's Center for Life Detection Her scientific training combined with a lifelong love of literature and all things Shakespearean gives her a unique perspective on the Shakespeare authorship mystery Dr Feldman lives in Pasadena California with her husband and two children This is her first book If William Shakespeare wrote the Bard's works Who wrote the Shakespeare Apocrypha During his lifetime and for many years afterwards William Shakespeare was credited with writing not only the Bard's canonical works but also a series of apocryphal Shakespeare plays Stylistic threads linking these lesser works suggest they shared a common author or co author who wrote in a coarse breezy style and created very funny clown scenes He was also prone to pilfering lines from other dramatists consistent with Robert Greene's 1592 attack on William Shakespeare as an upstart crow The anomalous existence of two bodies of work exhibiting distinct poetic voices printed under one man's name suggests a fascinating possibility Could William Shakespeare have written the apocryphal plays while serving as a front man for the poet in purple robes a hidden court poet who was much admired by a literary coterie in the 1590s And could the poet in purple robes have been the great poet and statesman Thomas Sackville 1536-1608 a previously overlooked authorship candidate who is an excellent fit to the Shakespearean glass slipper Both of these scenarios are well supported by literary and historical records many of which have not been previously considered in the context of the Shakespeare authorship debate

The Life of Henry, Third Earl of Southampton Charlotte Carmichael Stopes, 1922 The Art of Shakespeare's Sonnets Helen Vendler, 1999-11 Analyzes all of Shakespeare's sonnets in terms of their poetic structure semantics and use of sounds and images Shakespeare's Play of King John William Shakespeare, 1858
