Meglin,2016-05-06 Dance is the art least susceptible to preservation since its embodied kinaesthetic nature has proven difficult to capture in notation and even in still or moving images However frameworks have been established and guidance made available for keeping dances performances and choreographers legacies alive so that the dancers of today and tomorrow can experience and learn from the dances and dancers of the past In this volume a range of voices address the issue of dance preservation through memory artistic choice interpretation imagery and notation as well as looking at relevant archives legal structures documentation and artefacts The intertwining of dance preservation and creativity is a core theme discussed throughout this text pointing to the essential continuity of dance history and dance innovation The demands of preservation stretch across time geographies institutions and interpersonal connections and this book focuses on the fascinating web that supports the fragile yet urgent effort to sustain our dancing heritage The articles in this book were originally published in the journal Dance Chronicle Studies in Dance and the Related Arts Transglobal Sounds João Sardinha,Ricardo Campos,2016-10-20 Through a transnational comparative and multi level approach to the relationship between youth migration and music the aesthetic intersections between the local and the global and between agency and identity are presented through case studies in this book Transglobal Sounds contemplates migrant youth and the impact of music in diaspora settings and on the lives of individuals and collectives engaging with broader questions of how new modes of identification are born out of the social cultural historical and political interfaces between youth migration and music Thus through acts of mobility and environments lived in and in between this volume seeks to articulate between musical transnationalism and sense of place in exploring the complex relationship between music and young migrants and migrant descendant s everyday lives Documents and the History of the Early Islamic World ,2014-11-28 Documents and the History of the Early Islamic World presents new Greek Arabic and Coptic material from the seventh to the fifteenth centuries C E from Egypt and Palestine and explores its rich potential for historical analysis Proceedings of the British Academy, Volume 120, Biographical Memoirs of Fellows, II British Academy,2003-12-18 Volume 120 of the Proceedings of the British Academy contains 25 obituaries of recently deceased Fellows of the British Academy Knowledge Development in Transnational Projects Verena Hachmann,2016-05-20 Transnational learning has become a buzz phrase in European policy making and in multi national business Learning from the experiences of others is an idea that captivates practitioners and academics alike due to its simplicity and availability in a world that is increasingly characterised by cross border and global connections European regions in particular offer a diverse range of solutions to often shared challenges This provides a knowledge base for other regions to draw on through regional success stories publications of best practice and EU cooperation programmes This books explores transnational learning and knowledge transfer in co operation programmes and projects It argues that a deeper understanding of learning needs to be central to the implementation of programmes and projects in order to successfully meet their desired outcomes and goals By characterising some of the most important preconditions of transnational learning and introducing a process perspective to learning and transfer this book identifies barriers to learning and knowledge transfer and contributes to a stronger conceptualisation of the topic In doing so it opens up the black box of transnational learning and knowledge development providing a better understanding of its inner mechanisms It also provides practical recommendations for policy makers and practitioners involved both at the programme and project level of transnational EU initiatives This book will be of interest to students researchers and policy makers alike working in geography political studies legal studies and European studies
