American Naturalistic and Realistic Novelists Edd C. Applegate, 2001-11-30 Realistic writers seek to render accurate representations of the world and their novels contain authentic details and descriptions of their characters and settings Like Realistic authors Naturalistic ones similarly try to portray the world accurately but they tend to depict the darker side of life Realism was born in Europe in the nineteenth century and soon became popular in the United States while Naturalism became prominent at the beginning of the twentieth century Both traditions have continued in one form or another to the present day and Realistic and Naturalistic novelists include some of America's most significant authors such as Sherwood Anderson Saul Bellow Ambrose Bierce Willa Cather Theodore Dreiser Ralph Ellison and Jack London This reference includes biographical and critical entries for more than 120 American Naturalistic and Realistic novelists An introductory essay discusses the history of the Realistic and Naturalistic traditions points to the difficulty of defining them and surveys the many authors who have been associated with the two movements The entries that follow are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use Each includes basic biographical information and a narrative overview of the writer's educational background professional career and published works The writer's works are briefly discussed in relation to the Realistic and Naturalistic traditions Entries include primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading

Real Life Writings in American Literary Journalism: a Narratological Study Gurpreet Kaur, 2015-07-24 This referential collection of essays is an important guide to the emergence and development of literary journalism through the centuries The book begins with the defining of genres literature and journalism which blur the lines between them It also gives an insight into the theories of narratology Some practitioners included in this book are great American writers like John Hersey Truman Capote Norman Mailer and Don DeLillo These literary journalists bring to life both major as well as trivial issues of the society New journalists coalesce all the fictional techniques with the journalistic methods to present a unique and sophisticated style which requires extensive research and even more careful reporting than done in the typical news articles The book closes with the concluding thoughts followed by list of works cited

In Hawthorne's Shadow Samuel Chase Coale, 2021-10-21 The world is so sad and solemn wrote Nathaniel Hawthorne that things meant in jest are liable by an overwhelming influence to become dreadful earnest gaily dressed fantasies turning to ghostly and black clad images of themselves From the radical dualism of Hawthorne's vision Samuel Coale argues springs a continuing tradition in the American novel In Hawthorne's Shadow is the first critical study to describe precisely the formal shape of Hawthorne's psychological romance and to explore his themes and images in relation to such contemporary writers as John Cheever Norman Mailer Joan Didion John Gardner Joyce Carol

Oates William Styron and John Updike When viewed from this perspective certain writers particularly Cheever Mailer Oates and Gardner appear in a new and very different light leading to a considerable reevaluation of their achievement and their place in American fiction Mr Coale s long interviews and conversations with John Cheever John Gardner William Styron and others have provided insights and perspectives that make this book particularly valuable to students of contemporary American literature Coale links contemporary writers to an on going American romantic tradition represented by such earlier authors as Melville Harold Frederic Faulkner Flannery O Connor and Carson McCullers He explores the distinctly Manichean matter of much American romance linking it to America s Puritan past and to the almost schizophrenic dynamics of American culture in general Finally he reexamines the post modernist writers in light of Hawthorne s shadow and shows that however similar they may be in some ways they differ remarkably from the previous American romantic tradition The Politics of Voice Malini Johar Schueller,1992-01-01 This book is an analysis of the social criticism and the political implications of rhetorical strategies in personal political nonfictional narratives by liberal American writers from the 18th century till the 1970s Using the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin Schueller examines works by Benjamin Franklin Henry David Thoreau Henry James Henry Adams Jane Addams James Agee Norman Mailer and Maxine Hong Kingston The Hippie Narrative Scott MacFarlane,2015-01-24 The Hippie movement of the 1960s helped change modern societal attitudes toward ethnic and cultural diversity environmental accountability spiritual expressiveness and the justification of war With roots in the Beat literary movement of the late 1950s the hippie perspective also advocated a bohemian lifestyle which expressed distaste for hypocrisy and materialism yet did so without the dark somewhat forced undertones of their predecessors This cultural revaluation which developed as a direct response to the dark days of World War II created a counterculture which came to be at the epicenter of an American societal debate and ultimately saw the beginnings of postmodernism Focusing on 1962 through 1976 this book takes a constructivist look at the hippie era s key works of prose which in turn may be viewed as the literary canon of the counterculture It examines the ways in which these works with their tendency toward whimsy and spontaneity are genuinely reflective of the period Arranged chronologically the discussed works function as a lens for viewing the period as a whole providing a more rounded sense of the hippie Zeitgeist that shaped and inspired the period Among the 15 works represented are One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest The Crying of Lot 49 Trout Fishing in America Siddhartha Stranger in a Strange Land Slaughterhouse Five and The Fan Man Magill's Bibliography of Literary Criticism: Longus to Sexton Stephen L. Hanson,Patricia King Hanson,1979
