Race And Borough Politics Research In Ethnic Relations Series:

Race and Borough Politics Frank Reeves,1989 Race and Public Policy Shamit Saggar,1991 This book aims to provide an overview of the key terms of reference and underlying ground rules of the liberal policy framework These are analyzed in relation to the cases of local politics in two London boroughs from 1960s to 1980s The study documents the evolving nature of politics and policy making on race related issues drawing from the empirical material Theoretical chapters show how the policy debate can move from the paternalistic stage through to reform and the explicit adoption of radical policy goals Democracy and the Nation State Tomas Hammar,2017-03-02 First Published in 2016 In this book starts with the discussion located at the crossroads between two basic political principles The first one is the democratic idea of representative government based on elections by general suffrage The second is the nation state principle which says that the world is divided into sovereign states and that only those who are citizens can claim a right to take part in political life in other words that foreign citizens are not allowed to participate in political elections Democracy is honoured almost everywhere at least as a principle but the modern system of states presupposes that as a general rule only those who are citizens are entitled to vote to stand for election to join parties and to participate in political debate and give voice to their political demands and interests Both these basic political principles are young and their pre sent confrontation is therefore also new to us A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences British Library of Political and Economic Science,1979 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 Race, Politics and Social Change Les Back,2002-01-31 Drawing on a wealth of original sources including interviews with politicians and activists this book explores the changing contours of the politics of race in the present social and political environment The volume seeks to go beyond abstract generalisations in order to develop an account which takes seriously the everyday processes that have shaped social understandings of race and politics in British society At the same time it links up to the broader debates about the impact of multiculturalism on contemporary politics the role of minorities in political life and the limits of democratic government Its account of the role of black politicians within the context of party politics will be of particular appeal to those interested in the interplay between mobilisation and the development of racial justice and equality Race Politics and Social Change will appeal to students of British Politics and Society and to all those with interests in the politics of race Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique ,1992 Routledge Library Editions: British Sociological Association Various,2021-07-14 The volumes in this set originally published between 1969 and 2001 is comprised of original books published in conjunction with the British Sociological Association The set draws together original research by leading academics based on study groups and conference papers in the areas of youth race the sociology of work gender social research urban studies class deviance and social control law development and health Each volume provides a rigorous examination of related key issues This set will be of particular interest to students and academics in the field of sociology health and social care gender studies and criminology respectively What's Left of Blackness T. Fisher,2012-10-15 This book analyzes the political transformations in black women s socially engaged community based political work in England in the late twentieth century It situates these shifts alongside Britain s political economy and against the discourse and deployment of blackness as a political imaginary in which to engage in struggles for social justice Pacific Migrant Labour, Class, and Racism in New Zealand Terrence Loomis,1990 Presents factors generating labour mobility in the South Pacific and the position of Pacific migrant labour in the political economy of New Zealand Security, Development and Nation-Building in Timor-Leste Vandra Harris,Andrew Goldsmith,2012-03-29 Despite Timor Leste s high expectations when it became independent from Indonesia in 2002 the country is ranked among the least developed countries in the world It has found itself at the centre of international attention in the last decade with one of the biggest interventions in UN history as well as receiving amongst the highest per capita rates of bilateral assistance in the Asia Pacific region This book draws together the perspectives of practitioners policy makers and academics on the international efforts to rebuild one of the world s newest nations The contributors consider issues of peace building security and justice sector reform as well as human security in Timor Leste locating these in the broader context of building nation stability and development The book includes two demographic studies that can be used to critically examine the nation s possible future Engaging in deliberate consideration of both practical and theoretical complexities of international interventions this book will be of interest to academics and students in the fields of Development Security and Southeast Asian Studies Black Politics in Britain Harry Goulbourne,1990 Resources in Education ,1998 Routledge Library Editions: Racism and Fascism Various,2021-06-23 This set gathers together a collection of out of print titles all classics in their field Reissued for the first time in some years they offer an insightful reference resource to a variety of topics From Professor Colin Holmes s groundbreaking studies of racism in British society to Professor Kitchen s analysis of the rise of fascism in pre war Austria these books shed much light on society s recent dark past Middle-Class Blacks in Britain Sharon J. Daye,2016-07-27 This book examines the relationship between race and class and considers how these two concepts articulate to determine class relationships in British society Daye argues that race in the form of structural racism plays a significant role at two levels Firstly it serves to determine the class position of black labour and secondly determines the type of race class and political consciousness generated by black labour in Britain Using empirical data this volume provides an important contribution to the race class debate Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas,2011-03 The emergence of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in post war society Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the context behind this phenomenon focusing on post war immigration and integration the complex relations that exist between Britain and Islam and the true extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims Transforming Cities Nick Jewson,Susanne Macgregor,2018-05-11 Transforming Cities examines the profound changes that have characterised cities of the advanced capitalist societies in the final decades of the twentieth century It analyses ways in which relationships of contest conflict and co operation are realised in and through the social and spatial forms of contemporary urban life This book focuses on the impact of economic restructuring and changing forms of urban deprivation and social exclusion It contends that these processes are creating new patterns of social division and new forms of regulation and control Migration, Socialism, and the International Division of Labour Carl-Ulrik Schierup,1990

Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 34:2 Gösta Arvastson,Tim Butler,2004 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divide research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent With this manifesto Ethnologia Europaea was started in 1969 Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as in the West It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies
