Changing configurations of whiteness      Racial Formation in the Twenty-First Century Daniel HoSang, Oneka LaBennett, Laura Pulido, 2012-09 This collection of essays marking the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of Michael Omi and Howard Winant's Racial Formation in the United States demonstrates the importance and influence of the concept of racial formation The range of disciplines discourses ideas and ideologies makes for fascinating reading demonstrating the utility and applicability of racial formation theory to diverse contexts while at the same time presenting persuasively original extensions and elaborations of it This is an important book one that sums up analyzes and builds on some of the most important work in racial studies during the past three decades George Lipsitz author of How Racism Takes Place Racial Formation in the Twenty First Century is truly a state of the field anthology fully worthy of the classic volume it honors timely committed sophisticated accessible engaging The collection will be a boon to anyone wishing to understand the workings of race in the contemporary United States Matthew Frye Jacobson Professor of American Studies Yale University This stimulating and lively collection demonstrates the wide ranging influence and generative power of Omi and Winant's racial formation framework The contributors are leading scholars in fields ranging from the humanities and social sciences to legal and policy studies They extend the framework into new terrain including non U S settings gender and sexual relations and the contemporary warfare state While acknowledging the pathbreaking nature of Omi and Winant's intervention the contributors do not hesitate to critique what they see as limitations and omissions This is a must read for anyone striving to make sense of tensions and contradictions in racial politics in the U S and transnationally Evelyn Nakano Glenn editor of Shades of Difference Why Skin Color Matters      Celebrating 40 Years of Ethnic and Racial Studies Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2019-12-18 This volume celebrates the 40th Anniversary of Ethnic and Racial Studies It reproduces eleven classic papers published in the journal accompanied by discussions of each paper by invited specialists and responses from the original authors The various discussions in this volume provide an insight into the evolution of contemporary debates and controversies in the field of ethnic and racial studies By bringing together these papers in one volume for the first time this book explores a number of on going debates about race and ethnicity      Globalization and America Angela J. Hattery, David G. Embrick, Earl Smith, 2008-05-21 As globalization expands more than goods and information are traded between the countries of the world Hattery Embrick and Smith present a collection of essays that explore the ways in which issues of human rights and social inequality are shared globally The editors focus on the United States role in contributing to human rights violations both inside and outside its borders Essays on contemporary issues such as immigration colonialism and reparations are used to illustrate how the U S and the rest of the world are inextricably linked in their relationships to human rights violations and social inequality Contributors include Judith Blau Eduardo Bonilla Silva and Joe R Feagin      The Politics of Race and Ethnicity in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder, 2010-04-14 The purpose of this book is to examine and analyze Americanization De Americanization and racialized ethnic groups in America and consider the questions who is an American And what constitutes American identity and culture

Racial Discrimination Masoud Kamali, 2010-08-18 There is an institutionalized dilemma in Europe that counteracts social cohesion and stability It is a result of the collision and incompatibility between declarations of universal values such as human rights and democracy and institutionalized actions which exclude and discriminate against Europeans of immigrant background and against ethnic minorities This book analyzes the institutional patterns and politics of racial discrimination in modern day Europe Based on a research project that has been carried out under the leadership of the author in eight European countries Racial Discrimination seeks the answers to some of the key questions posed by the latest developments in European political and public spheres concerning immigration and the increase in xenophobic sentiments and parties The book will appeal to all social and political scientists interested in the latest political developments in Europe and in the problems of democratic citizenship and the efforts to move toward an integrated European community

Ethnicities and Values in a Changing World Gargi Bhattacharyya, 2016-05-23 Recent debates about national identity belonging and community cohesion can appear to suggest that ethnicity is a static entity and that ethnic difference is a source of conflict in itself Ethnicities and Values in a Changing World presents an alternative account of ethnicity This volume brings together an international team of leading scholars in the field of ethnic studies in order to examine innovative articulations of ethnicity and challenge the contention that ethnicity is static or that it necessarily represents traditional values and cultures It will appeal not only to sociologists but to anyone working in the fields of cultural studies race and ethnicity globalization migration and anthropology

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature

Judith Butler, Race and Education Charlotte Chadderton, 2018-05-22 This book provides an analysis of race and education through the lens of the work of Judith Butler Although Butler tends to be best known in the field of education for her work on gender and sexuality her work more broadly encompasses the functioning of power and hegemonic norms and the formation of subjects and thus can also be applied to analyse issues of race Applying a Butlerian framework to race allows us to question its ontological status while considering it a hegemonic norm and a performative notion which has a significant impact on real lives The author considers the implications of Butler's thinking for debates addressing diverse contemporary educational issues in which race continues to be re-produced such as the formation of learner identities the production of the good citizen raising student aspirations counter terrorism and surveillance in education and qualitative research in education This book will be of interest to students and scholars of education and race the sociology of education and equality of opportunity and Planning in Britain Richard Gale, Huw Thomas, 2020-09-21 Race Faith and Planning in Britain adopts a Critical Race Theory perspective to analyse and discuss challenges of planning in contemporary multi ethnic Britain Exploring how planning is affected by and affects the racialisation of social relations this book charts the history of the UK planning system s approach in terms of the spatial consequences of immigration and discourses of diversity cohesion citizenship and belonging Authors Richard Gale and Huw Thomas pay special attention to the experiences of minority groups in Britain including Gypsies and Travellers and British Muslims They underline that the struggle over planning in racialised societies must be construed as part of a wider political struggle over equality This book is an essential read for students and practitioners of planning in multi cultural contexts Race and Multiraciality in Brazil and the United States G. Reginald Daniel, 2010-11-01 The Black Metropolis in the Twenty-first Century Robert Doyle Bullard, 2007 Written mostly by African American scholars the chapters in this book describe the challenges facing cities suburbs and metropolitan regions as they seek to address continuing and emerging patterns of racial polarization in the twenty first century The book clearly shows that the United States entered the new millennium as one of the wealthiest and most powerful nations on Earth Yet amid this prosperity our nation is faced with some of the same challenges that confronted it at the beginning of the twentieth century including rising inequality in income wealth and opportunity economic restructuring immigration pressures and ethnic tension and a widening gap between haves and have nots BOOK JACKET Marginality in the Urban Center Peary Brug, Zachary S. Ritter, Kenneth R. Roth, 2018-12-22 This book examines the increasing marginalization of and response by people living in urban areas throughout the Western Hemisphere and both the local and global implications of continued colonial racial hierarchies and the often dire consequences they have for people perceived as different However in the aftermath of recent U S elections whiteness also seems to embody strictures on religion ethnicity country of origin and almost any other personal characteristic deemed suspect at the moment For that reason gender race and even class collectively may not be sufficient units of analysis to study the marginalizing mechanisms of the urban center The authors interrogate the social and institutional structures that facilitate the disenfranchisement or downward trajectory of groups and their potential or subsequent lack of access to mainstream rewards The book also seeks to highlight examples where marginalized groups have found ways to assert their equality No recent texts have attempted to connect the mechanisms of marginality across geographical and political boundaries within the Western Hemisphere The Threat of Race David Theo Goldberg, 2011-09-09 Written by a renowned scholar of critical race theory The Threat of Race explores how the concept of race has been historically produced and how it continues to be articulated if often denied in today s world A major new study of race and racism by a renowned scholar of critical race theory Explores how the concept of race has been historically produced and how it continues to be articulated if often denied in today s world Argues that it is the neoliberal society that fuels new forms of racism Surveys race dynamics throughout various regions of the world from Western and

Northern Europe South Africa and Latin America and from Israel and Palestine to the United States      Race Rights Reparations Fernne Brennan,2017-07-14 This book considers institutional racism as a problem that exists within modern societies Its roots lie with the transatlantic slave trade and slavery and the solution involves ridding society of the problem It is argued here that first there needs to be an acceptance of its existence then developing the tools needed to deal with it and finally to implement those tools so that institutional racism can be permanently removed from society The book has four themes the first considers the nature of institutional racism the second theme looks at instances of institutional racism through matters such as deaths in custody and skin lightening the third considers the concept of reparations and the final area looks at the development of social movements as a way of pushing institutional racism up the political agenda The development of a social movement is part of a social discourse which would for example push mentoring as a form of reparations There is a need for more research on the manifestations of institutional racism and this book is part of that discourse It is argued that the legacy of the slave trade and slavery is continuing and contemporary through the presence of institutional racism in society This problem has not been addressed through legislation and policies devised to combat racial discrimination Institutional racism needs to be understood as being located in the processes and procedures of societal institutions      Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore,2004-03 The book comprises essays each highlighting a particular word or term germane to the study of race and ethnic studies      Critical Race Theory and Education M. Cole,2009-05-19 Critical Race Theory CRT in the realm of Education has a long history in the US and is now a burgeoning field of enquiry in the UK Critical Race Theory and Education is the first book length response to CRT from a Marxist perspective It looks at CRT s origins in Critical Legal Studies critiques the work of major US and UK Critical Race Theorists and also looks at some of CRT s strengths CRT and Marxism are contextualized with respect to both neo liberal global capitalism and imperialism and to antiracist socialist developments in South America The book concludes with some suggestions for classroom practice      An Eye on Race John Beusterien,2006 Racism in the modern nation state is based on a Continental and an American model In the Continental model the racist differentiates the raced individual by religion Because this raced individual is indistinguishable from the racist a narrative is written to see that individual In turn in the American model the racist differentiates the raced individual based on skin color Because the sign of difference is obvious no story is written to justify racist thinking By 1550 both models form part of imperial thinking in the Iberian world system An Eye on Race Perspectives from Theater in Imperial Spain describes these models at work in imperial Spanish theater The study reveals how the display of blood in drama serves the Continental model and how the display of skin color serves the American model It also elucidates how Miguel de Cervantes celebrates a subaltern aesthetic as he discards both racial paradigms John Beusterien is Associate Professor of Spanish at Texas Tech University      The World-System as Unit of Analysis Roberto Patricio Korzeniewicz,2017-09-22 World system analyses have recast the study of between and within nation country inequality as constituent aspects of a single field of inquiry the study of inequality and social stratification as processes that always have been global in their very essence World system analyses maintain that global social stratification pivots around institutional arrangements that render distributional outcomes as simultaneously national gendered racialized and global processes This book takes stock of some of the enduring theoretical and empirical contributions of a world system perspective and identifies promising directions for future inquiry and discussion Some chapters reassess the scope and methodologies of world system analysis around several key problems e g the spatial and temporal boundaries of global commodity chains the construction and challenge of various dimensions of social inequality systemic and antisystemic social movements Others take stock of areas in which world systems are promoting methodological innovation and or generating useful global data and identify questions that demand additional methodological and empirical attention for future research In different ways this book help us to critically reconsider some of the enduring legacies within a world system perspective such as Karl Polanyi s concept of the double movement or the distinction drawn by Giovanni Arrighi or Immanuel Wallerstein between systemic and antisystemic movements As argued by many of the authors in this book a world historical approach calls for greater sensitivity to the manifold ways in which conceptual boundaries change over time and space Taking seriously the issue of unit of analysis this book explores critically productive ways for better understanding global patterns of continuity and change
