on the Brisbane Telegraph in its shipping commercial and racing departments In 1887 after disagreements with the Telegraph management Gould went to Sydney and worked on the Referee as Verax its horse racing editor Later Gould worked for the Sunday Times and Evening News Then followed 18 months at Bathurst as the editor of the Bathurst Times during which time he wrote his first novel With the Tide which appeared as a serial in the Referee He returned to Sydney and the Referee and wrote another six other novels for the same paper In 1891 his first novel With the Tide was published in book form in England under the title of The Double Event and was an immediate success it sold over 100 000 copies in its first ten years and was still in print in 1919 It was dramatized in Australia and had a long run in 1893 In 1895 Gould returned to England he had been 11 years in Australia and he felt that his experiences had made a man of him Gould was a modest man who did not take himself or his work too seriously His advice to emerging writers was to write about men and things you have met and seen take your characters from the busy world and your scenes from Nature But within its limits his work was very good He told a simple story exceedingly well in an unaffected way Many of his books were concerned with horse racing and no great originality of plot was to be expected but they were written with such flair and genuine interest that their countless readers took up each book as it was published confident in their belief that here was another rattling good story
