themselves to the written word Women of Vision Eileen Gavin,Aphrodite Clamar,Mary Anne Siderits,2007-03-20 From the reviews Women of Vision blends biographical narrative with psychological perspectives on human development resulting in a moving and passionate book that is suitable for both academic and nonacademic readers It is a useful tool for teaching purposes or for simple enjoyable and informative reading Psychology of Women Quarterly a fascinating look of preservation and perceptiveness that is differentiated from its predecessors in its range of disciplines and emphasis This new life course approach to understanding female leaders gives valuable insight into the lives of these imminent women furnishing insights into how the social economic political milieu and the attitudes and values of the time played a significant role in the lives of these women but also in all our lives Women of Vision will serve as a springboard for exploration of how the psychologies of individual human lives affect their life course and as a galvanizing step for many more future women of vision and leadership The accounts in the book should be of substantial significance for readers interested in gender issues However the book will appeal to an even wider audience Persons hoping to move in new directions in their own lives e g women looking wistfully at new academic and occupational paths after years in stereotypic niches can surely also find inspiration in the various accounts SirReadaLot org We all know of women of great vision women whose efforts and accomplishments have had a major impact on the arts politics women s rights sports or science But often we may not understand how they became such powerful agents of change and what sorts of questions we should ask of their pasts to understand how the trajectories of their lives were formed In this extraordinary textbook leading experts cast new light on the role of circumstance accomplishments and personality in the development of various twentieth century women of vision This is a brand new life course approach to understanding female leaders and gives valuable insight into the lives of such eminent women as Rachel Carson Evelyn Gentry Hooker Georgia O Keefe Eleanor Roosevelt Babe Didrikson Zaharias Ella Fitzgerald Alice Paul Lucille Ball and many others Study questions and exercises at the end of each chapter further enhance the text Women of Vision will serve as the springboard for exploration of how the psychologies of individual human lives affect their life course and a galvanizing step for many more future women of vision and leadership Nature's Allies Larry Nielsen,2017-02-02 It s easy to feel powerless in the face of big environmental challenges but we need inspiration now more than ever In Nature s Allies Larry Nielsen presents the inspiring stories of eight conservation pioneers who show that through passion and perseverance we can each make a difference even in the face of political opposition Nielsen s vivid biographies of John Muir Ding Darling Aldo Leopold Rachel Carson Chico Mendes Billy Frank Jr Wangari Maathai and Gro Harlem Brundtland are meant to rally a new generation of conservationists to follow in their footsteps and inspire students conservationists and nature lovers to speak up for nature and prove that individuals can affect positive change in the world DDT and the American Century David Kinkela,2011 DDT and the American Century Our Lives To Live: Putting A Woman's Face To Change In Singapore Kanwaljit Soin,Margaret Thomas,2015-05-05 Our Lives to Live Putting a Woman s Face to Change in Singapore explores and documents how women's roles, choices and voices in Singapore have changed in the last 50 years how women from all sectors of society have helped to shape the Singapore we know today The 31 chapters some with a more academic slant others with a distinctly personal tone reflect the rich diversity and depth of women's contributions to Singapore's evolution in the last half century and also point to the problematical areas that still need attention The perspectives in this book are provided by three generations of women and they put a human face the woman's face to the tremendous changes in Singapore society over the past 50 years The authors include some of Singapore's most accomplished women in many different fields Speaker of Parliament Halimah Yacob political scientist and diplomat Chan Heng Chee global women's activist Noeleen Heyzer sociologist and politician Aline Wong food ambassador Violet Oon sports legend Pat Chan law lecturer and playwright Eleanor Wong and novelist Meira Chand

Beyond Nature's Housekeepers Nancy C. Unger, 2012-10-05 From pre-Columbian times to the environmental justice movements of the present women and men frequently responded to the environment and environmental issues in profoundly different ways Although both environmental history and women's history are flourishing fields explorations of the synergy produced by the interplay between environment and sex, sexuality and gender are just beginning Offering more than biographies of great women in environmental history Beyond Nature's Housekeepers examines the intersections that shaped women's unique environmental concerns and activism and that framed the way the larger culture responded Women featured include Native Americans colonists enslaved field workers pioneers homemakers municipal housekeepers immigrants hunters nature writers soil conservationists scientists migrant laborers nuclear protestors and environmental justice activists As women they fared thought and acted in ways complicated by social, political and economic norms as well as issues of sexuality and childbearing Nancy C. Unger reveals how women have played a unique role for better and sometimes for worse in the shaping of the American environment

Encyclopedia of Geography Barney Warf, 2010-09-21 Simply stated, geography studies the locations of things and the explanations that underlie spatial distributions Profound forces at work throughout the world have made geographical knowledge increasingly important for understanding numerous human dilemmas and our capacities to address them With more than 1,200 entries the Encyclopedia of Geography reflects how the growth of geography has propelled a demand for intermediaries between the abstract language of academia and the ordinary language of everyday life The six volumes of this encyclopedia encapsulate a diverse array of topics to offer a comprehensive and useful summary of the state of the discipline in the early 21st century

Key Features Gives a concise historical sketch of geography's long, rich and fascinating history including human geography, physical geography and GIS Provides succinct summaries of trends such as globalization environmental destruction new geospatial technologies and cyberspace Decomposes geography into the six broad subject areas physical geography human geography nature and society methods models and GIS history of geography and geographer biographies geographic organizations and important social movements Provides hundreds of color illustrations and images that lend depth and realism to the text Includes a special map section Key Themes Physical Geography Human Geography Nature and Society Methods Models and GIS People Organizations and Movements History of Geography This encyclopedia strategically reflects the enormous diversity of the discipline the multiple meanings of space itself and the diverse views of geographers It brings together the diversity of geographical knowledge making it an invaluable resource for any academic library Christianity and Intellectual Inquiry Douglas Jacobsen,Douglas Gordon

Jacobsen,Rhonda Hustedt Jacobsen,2025 Christianity and Intellectual Inquiry examines the many ways that Christians past and present have tried to make sense of themselves and the world around them weaving together an intellectual and epistemological history of Christianity in America The book introduces the concept of pilgrimage as a metaphor that describes intellectual inquiry as an open ended search for truth that is in steady dialogue with others Notable American Women Barbara Sicherman,Carol Hurd Green,1980 Modeled on the Dictionary of American Biography this set stands alone but is a good complement to that set which contained only 700 women of 15 000 entries The preparation of the first set of Notable American Women was supported by Radcliffe College It includes women from 1607 to those who died before the end of 1950 only 5 women included were born after 1900 Arranged throughout the volumes alphabetically entries are from 400 to 7 000 words and have bibliographies There is a good introductory essay and a classified list of entries in volume three
