Malesevic assesses the explanatory strength of a range of sociological theories in understanding ethnicity and ethnic conflict While acknowledging that there is no master key or blue print to deal with each and every case of interethnic group relations The Sociology of Ethnicity develops the best strategy to bridge epistemological and policy requirements for interethnic group relations The Sociology of Ethnicity will be required reading for advanced undergraduates and postgraduates studying ethnicity and race in sociology and across the social sciences Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Race, Ethnicity and Social Theory John Solomos, 2022-07-01 Race Ethnicity and Social Theory provides a critical analysis of the main areas of scholarly research and debate about racial and ethnic relations over the past few decades The book covers substantive areas of scholarly debate in this fast changing field including race and social relations identities and the construction of the racial other feminism and race the relationship between race and nationalism antisemitism the evolution of new forms of racism race and political representation and more generally the changing debates about race and ethnicity in our global environment The book argues that there is a need for more dialogue across national and conceptual boundaries about how to develop the theoretical tools needed to understand both the historical roots of contemporary forms of racialised social and political relations and the contemporary forms through which race is made and re made A key argument that runs through the book is the need to develop conceptual frameworks that can help us to make sense of the changing forms of racial and ethnic relations in contemporary societies This means developing more dialogue across national research cultures as well as empirical research that seeks to engage with the key issues raised by contemporary theoretical debates The book will be of interest to both students wanting to develop a deeper understanding of this area of scholarship and to researchers of race ethnicity and migration working in various national and disciplinary environments
