West,2020-02-06 A retired US Army lieutenant colonel and former congressman shows how black America can improve itself through conservative values Something has happened to the black community Over the past decades black America stopped believing that we shall overcome Instead they began accepting handouts from the government turning away from the values of family selfless military service and business ownership that have been pillars of black America from the beginning Progressive socialism has bound them in what amounts to economic enslavement In his third book Lt Col Allen B West Ret takes readers back through the political history of the black community highlighting the history of public service self reliance ingenuity strong families and religious involvement that pulled black Americans through the horrors of slavery Reconstruction and decades of Jim Crow laws These are the values that enabled them to improve their lives to overcome We Can Overcome An American Black Conservative Manifesto urges black America to return to the conservative principles that once had entire neighborhoods building wealth and thriving on Black Wall Street in Tulsa Oklahoma It s time black Americans remember the strength they possess In this age of escalating black on black violence and increasing government dependency the sons and daughters of Frederick Douglass Booker T Washington and Martin Luther King Jr must stand up We are not victims We are victors We can overcome     Kingdom Racial Change Michael A. Evans,David L. McFadden,Michael O. Emerson,2025-06-10 A compelling call to action that weaves together powerful personal stories and keen sociological analysis In this remarkable book authors Michael Evans David McFadden and Michael Emerson combine personal narratives and sociological research to teach Christians how to work together for racial justice The authors begin by sharing their stories Michael Evans and David McFadden friends since grade school are Black and grew up in the rough neighborhoods of Chicago's south side Michael is a pastor and has ministered in the very neighborhoods where he was raised David is a medical doctor The third author Michael Emerson who is white grew up in white communities that were close geographically to his coauthors neighborhoods but a world away socially The authors then interpret their experiences through the lens of sociology drawing on research to explain how injustice can exist on multiple levels The micro level consists of individuals relationships and families the meso level comprises organizations such as churches and collective activities such as social movements and the macro level encompasses entire institutions such as the criminal justice system or the educational system as well as laws and policies The authors offer practical strategies for pursuing racial justice on all three levels strategies designed to overcome inequality and draw Christians from diverse backgrounds and circumstances together in the family of God A compelling call to action Kingdom Racial Change will engage the hearts and minds of Christians seeking racial righteousness and reconciliation

We Don't Need Permission Eric Collins, 2022-09-01 Highly Commended for the Diversity Inclusion and Equality Award at the Business Book Awards A powerful 10 step guide to transformative entrepreneurship for under represented people from Eric Collins host of the award winning Channel 4 reality business show The Money Maker Eric Collins is one of the most powerful business people in Britain The Times

Step 1 Embrace the unexpected Step 2 Engage in consistent and continuous acts of disruption Step 3 Let go of small think bigger think global and prepare for pitfalls Step 4 Take risks using data to mitigate the downside Step 5 Put your money where your mouth is make your resources matter Step 6 Leverage what you know Step 7 Become a convener by making your mission bigger than yourself Step 8 Invest in women to create Alpha Step 9 Sell your vision make time appropriate asks and don't forget to recruit allies Step 10 Always bet on Black

At a time when half of Black households in the UK live in persistent poverty over twice as many as their white counterparts We Don't Need Permission argues that investing in Black and under represented entrepreneurs in order to create successful businesses is the surest fastest socio economic game changer there is Long lasting economic empowerment from education to health outcomes is key to solving the multiple problems that result from systemic racism and sexism And it is the best way to close the inequality gaps that have hampered and continue to hinder Black people and all women too To address this problem head on Eric Collins co founded venture capital firm Impact X Capital to invest in under represented entrepreneurs in the UK and Europe In We Don't Need Permission Collins identifies ten key principles of successful entrepreneurship and reveals how it's possible to change a system that has helped some while holding others back The book not only aims to inspire and motivate under represented people to take their future and economic destiny into their own hands but will demand of current business leaders and organizations that they do business better It's time to stop waiting for someone else to give permission and start boldly making the world we want to see _____

Overcoming Our Racism Derald Wing Sue, 2003-11-10 This extraordinary book by Derald Wing Sue a highly regarded academic and author helps readers understand and combat racism in themselves It defines racism not only as extreme acts of hatred but as any attitude action or institutional structure or social policy that subordinates a person or group because of their color This landmark work offers an antidote to this pervasive social problem Shows how each of us has a role in the oppression of others and what we can do about it Offers a way to overcome racism on a very intimate level Outlines specific guidelines and suggested activities

The Truth About Racism Dr. Philip G. Asante, 2014-02-27 Dr Asante uncovers the truth about racism in this revealing and compelling book He explains where racist ideology has come from and the reasons why some people are racist by exploring the contributions from both Christianity and the theory of Evolution Learn how the Bible was deliberately misinterpreted and abused in order to justify slavery segregation colonialism and apartheid Better understand what legacy these institutions have left on people Discover how Darwin's theory of evolution led to the construction of the concept of different races and the resultant development of racial superiority and inferiority based solely on skin coloration This is a well written and well researched book that truly dissects the distressing and often uncomfortable subject of racism It tugs at the heart strings of humanity and cries out for unity Some will find the book controversial and uncomfortable while others will find it liberating and supportive It will challenge your very conscience and offer a revealing look into the development of racism

We Can't Teach What We Don't Know, Third Edition Gary R. Howard, 2016-06-17 Making a case for the fierce urgency of now this new edition deepens the discussion of race and social justice in education with new and updated material Aligned with our nation's ever more diverse student population it speaks to what good teachers know what they do and how they embrace culturally responsive teaching

Neuroscience of Prejudice and Intergroup Relations Belle Derks, Daan Scheepers, Naomi Ellemers, 2013-06-19 Psychological research on the origins and consequences of prejudice discrimination and stereotyping has moved into previously uncharted directions through the introduction of neuroscientific measures Psychologists can now address issues that are difficult to examine with traditional methodologies and monitor motivational and emotional as they develop during ongoing intergroup interactions thus enabling the empirical investigation of the fundamental biological bases of prejudice However several very promising strands of research have largely developed independently of each other By bringing together the work of leading prejudice researchers from across the world who have begun to study this field with different neuroscientific tools this volume provides the first integrated view on the specific drawbacks and benefits of each type of measure illuminates how standard paradigms in research on prejudice and intergroup relations can be adapted for the use of neuroscientific methods and illustrates how different methodologies can complement each other and be combined to advance current insights into the nature of prejudice This cutting edge volume will be of interest to advanced undergraduates graduates and researchers students who study prejudice intergroup relations and social neuroscience
