Racial Castration:

Racial Castration David L. Eng, 2001-03-20 A psychoanalytic study that argues for the centrality of sexuality in the construction of Asian American identity and of racial identity in general      Racial Transformations Nicholas De Genova, 2006-04-24 A collection of essays that examine the intertwined racialization of Latinos and Asians in the United States      Racial Castration , 2009 DIVA psychoanalytic study that argues for the centrality of sexuality in the construction of Asian American identity and of racial identity in general div      Racial Erotics C. Winter Han, 2021-07-16 Finalist for the 2022 Lambda Literary Award for LGBTQ Studies Finalist for the 2022 Randy Shilts Award sponsored by The Publishing Triangle Honorable Mention for the 2024 John Leo and Dana Heller Award for Best Single Work Anthology Multi Authored or Edited Book in LGBTQ Studies sponsored by the Popular Culture Association Exposes a racial hierarchy of desire that centers whiteness in queer social worlds Sexual desire often understood as personal erotic preference is frequently seen as neutral natural or inevitable Countering these commonplace assumptions Racial Erotics shows how sexual partnering within communities of gay men is deeply embedded within larger social structures that define whiteness as desirable and normative while othering men of color In queer erotic economies this othering may take the form of sexual rejection or fetishization of men of color but C Winter Han argues that the real danger of sexual racism is that it creates a hierarchy of racial worth that extends outside of erotic encounters into the everyday lives of gay men of color In this way sexual racism perpetuates a larger project of racial erasing that equates gayness with whiteness to secure acceptance for gay white men at the expense of queers of color With vivid examples from interviews media representations and online dating sites Han highlights the creative means through which gay men of color cordoned off in spaces both gay and straight produce alternative frameworks to combat dominant narratives Racial Erotics offers a new paradigm for understanding the connection of race and queer desire demonstrating how race profoundly shapes sexual desires among men while racialized notions of desire construct beliefs about belonging      Mixed Race Literature Jonathan Brennan, 2002 This collection presents the first scholarly attempt to map the rapidly emerging field of mixed race literature defined as texts written by authors who represent multiple cultural and literary traditions It also situates these literatures in relation to contemporary fields of literary inquiry      Masculinity Studies & Feminist Theory Judith Kegan Gardiner, 2002 Looking at literature film and classroom practices the authors examine the ways male privilege and power are constituted and represented and the effect of such constructions on men and women The volume addresses questions as Why is there so much talk of a crisis in masculinity How have ideas of manhood been transformed by feminism      Repetition and Race Amy C. Tang, 2016-05-02 Repetition and Race explores the literary forms and critical frameworks occasioned by the widespread institutionalization of liberal multiculturalism by turning to the exemplary case of Asian American literature Whether beheld as model minorities or objects of racist love Asian Americans have long inhabited the uneasy terrain of institutional embrace that characterizes the official antiracism of our contemporary moment Repetition and Race argues that Asian American literature registers and responds to this historical context through formal structures of repetition Forwarding a new dialectical conception of repetition that draws together progress and return motion and stasis agency and subjection creativity and compulsion this book reinterprets the political grammar of four forms of repetition central to minority discourse trauma pastiche intertextuality and self reflexivity Working against narratives of multicultural triumph the book shows how texts by Theresa Cha Susan Choi Karen Tei Yamashita Chang rae Lee and Maxine Hong Kingston use structures of repetition to foreground moments of social and aesthetic impasse suspension or hesitation rather than instances of reversal or resolution Reading Asian American texts for the way they allegorize and negotiate rather than resolve key tensions animating Asian American culture Repetition and Race maps both the penetrating reach of liberal multiculturalism s disciplinary formations and an expanded field of cultural politics for minority literature Dangerous

Desire Pamela Barnett,2004-11-15 Dangerous Desire is an important work that calls attention to how post 1960s literary representations of rape have shaped the ways in which both sexual and social freedoms are imagined in American culture Exploring key post sixties texts including Cleaver s Soul on Ice Brownmiller s Against Our Will French s The Women s Room Naylor s The Women of Brewster Place Walker s Meridian and Dickey s Deliverance Barnett finds that the widespread literary explorations of rape were almost always conjoined with one or more of the radical social movements of the sixties civil rights black nationalism women s liberation and black feminism Sexual violence emerges in these texts when the transformative possibilities articulated by sixties era liberation movements trigger and intensify imbalances of power and cultural difference for example Eldridge Cleaver s claim that he lashed out against the white power structure by raping white women This book should be of considerable interest to students and scholars of 20th century American literature as well as American Studies and African American Studies scholars interested broadly in issues of sexuality race and violenc Queer Exoticism Judith S. Kaufman,Tamara Powell,2020-06-01 Queer Exoticism Examining the Queer Exotic Within joins the growing bibliography of queer postcolonial and queer race studies The authors assembled here examine the queer tendency to visit decidedly different and unusual subjects of desire in an effort partially at least to find oneself The identity quest that is inherent in the search for the exotic often results in something quite the opposite of foreign since it forms and articulates that which is ourselves Thus experiencing the exotic becomes a path to self knowledge not unlike the work of therapy wherein the examination of elements that appear at first peculiar or unfamiliar end up opening channels to self discovery In this way the gaze outward turns inward to exhibit an inner exoticism that at times is at once always and already inner and outer These essays also focus on various questions of imperialism race exoticism along with other aspects of the exotic Going beyond Said s sense of orientalism this volume examines the otherness of oneself and the notion of desire for the Other as something different from purely an act of domination and colonization thereby refusing perceptions of ascendancy Inasmuch as they represent various geographic and cultural groups the studies lend themselves to a variety of different methodologies

The book stresses the dissemination and re-inscription of femaleness and femininity in Chinese Canadian history, employs critical models that defy the sexual textual imaginary of the Canadian literary scene. Four fields of study are conjoined: feminist theories of the body, gender and sexuality studies, women's writing, and Asian North American studies. Analysing four writers: SKY Lee, Larissa Lai, Lydia Kwa, and Evelyn Lau, the book anchors its thematic and theoretical concern with female sexuality in the context of Chinese Canadian writing. Feminist narratives and gender politics in contemporary Asian North American literature are highlighted via the trope of transgression.
