Racism And Social Change In The Republic Of Ireland:

Racism and social change in the Republic of Ireland Bryan Fanning, 2018-09-30 Now in its second edition Racism and Social Change in the Republic of Ireland provides an original and challenging account of racism in twenty first century Irish society and locates this in its historical political sociological and policy contexts It includes specific case studies of the experiences of racism in twenty first century Ireland alongside a number of historical case studies that examine how modern Ireland came to marginalize ethnic minorities Various chapters examine responses by the Irish state to Jewish refugees before during and after the Holocaust asylum seekers and Travellers Other chapters examine policy responses to and academic debates on racism in Ireland A key focus of the various case studies is upon the mechanics of exclusion experienced by black and ethnic minorities within institutional processes and of the linked challenge of taking racism seriously in twenty first century Ireland

Immigration and Social Change in the Republic of Ireland Bryan Fanning, 2007-06-15 Immigration and Social Change in the Republic of Ireland addresses the impact of recent rapid social economic political and cultural change on Irish society It includes chapters on citizenship and constitutional change returned emigrants the economic contribution of immigrants the exploitation of migrant workers asylum seekers and forced migrants immigrant communities politics integration models and choices and social policy It will be of immense interest to students and general readers interested in racism and social change resulting from immigration from the disciplines of sociology social policy human geography politics law and psychology It is a companion volume to Racism and Social Change in the Republic of Ireland also published by Manchester University Press

Politics in the Republic of Ireland John Coakley, Michael Gallagher, 2004-08-02 Building on the success of the first two editions Politics in the Republic of Ireland continues to provide an authoritative introduction to all aspects of politics in the Irish Republic

Tolerance and diversity in Ireland, north and south Iseult Honohan, Nathalie Rougier, 2015-11-01 Examines the treatment of cultural and religious diversity indigenous and immigrant on both sides of the Irish border to analyse the current state of tolerance and the kinds of policies that need to be developed to respect diversity

Ireland and migration in the twenty-first century Mary Gilmartin, 2015-07-29 Considers migration to from and within Ireland in the twenty first century covering the Celtic Tiger era of mass immigration to Ireland as well as the dramatic growth in levels of emigration that has occurred since the Irish economic collapse

Race in Modern Irish Literature and Culture John Brannigan, 2020-01-19 This book sets out to expose through a combination of literary cultural and historical analysis the fictive nature of Irish monoculturalism and to probe figurations of racial identity racial difference and foreignness in Irish culture

New Geographies of Race and Racism Dr Caroline Bressey, Dr Claire Dwyer, 2012-11-28 In recent years geographers interested in ethnicity race and racism have extended their focus from examining geographies of segregation and racism to exploring cultural politics social practice and everyday geographies of identity and experience This edited collection illustrates this new work and includes research on youth and new ethnicities

the contested politics of race and racism intersections of ethnicity religion and race and the theorisation and interrogation of whiteness Case studies from the UK and Ireland focus on the intersections of race and nation and the specificities of place in discourses of racilisation and identity A key feature of the book is its engagement with a range of methodological approaches to examining the significance of race including ethnography visual methodologies and historical analysis

Singing the Rite to Belong Helen Phelan, 2017-04-03 This book explores the way in which singing can foster experiences of belonging through ritual performance Based on more than two decades of ethnographic pedagogical and musical research it is set against the backdrop of the new Ireland of the late 20th and early 21st centuries Charting Ireland's growing multiculturalism changing patterns of migration the diminished influence of Catholicism and synergies between indigenous and global forms of cultural expression it explores rights and rites of belonging in contemporary Ireland Helen Phelan examines a range of religious educational civic and community based rituals including religious rituals of new migrant communities in borrowed rituals spaces baptismal rituals in the context of the Irish citizenship referendum rituals that mythologize the core values of an educational institution a ritual laboratory for students of singing and community based festivals and performances Her investigation peels back the physiological emotional and cultural layers of singing to illuminate how it functions as a potential agent of belonging Each chapter engages theoretically with one of five core characteristics of singing resonance somatics performance temporality and tacitness in the context of particular performed rituals Phelan offers a persuasive proposal for ritually framed singing as a valuable and potent tool in the creation of inclusive creative and integrated communities of belonging

Politics in Ireland Maura Adshead, Jonathan Tonge, 2009-04-21 Politics in Ireland is the first major text to provide an accessible and systematic analysis of the politics of Ireland North as well as South With the development of a new Northern Irish political system and increasing links across the island the authors argue that the time is ripe to study together the two polities which share so much of a common history but which have had very different evolutions through the 20th century Drawing upon an exceptionally wide range of sources and their own original research the authors deploy a thematic approach to the study of political institutions political behaviour and public policy in both the Republic and Northern Ireland in order to produce a detailed but highly readable assessment of governance and politics in both political systems This approach enables them both to outline the differences and similarities between the polities and to explain how they relate to the wider world in particular to the UK and to Europe

Sikhs in Europe Kristina Myrvold, 2016-04-01 Sikhs in Europe are neglected in the study of religions and migrant groups previous studies have focused on the history culture and religious practices of Sikhs in North America and the UK but few have focused on Sikhs in continental Europe This book fills this gap presenting new data and analyses of Sikhs in eleven European countries examining the broader European presence of Sikhs in new and old host countries Focusing on patterns of migration transmission of traditions identity construction and cultural representations from the perspective of local Sikh communities this book explores important patterns of settlement

institution building and cultural transmission among European Sikhs

Globalization and Transnational Migrations

Oluyato Adesina, 2009-03-26 The past three decades have proved extremely challenging for Africa and its peoples both at home and in the Diaspora Coincidentally these were also the decades that globalization reached maturity and that the world became more interconnected and interdependent The paradox of globalization for Africa has included increase in marginalization poverty inequality migration and instability This book highlights global asymmetries by interfacing the notion of one world or flat world with the challenges thrown up by transnational migration brain drain citizenship identity multiculturalism religion and ethnicity It presents researches and discourses on globalization across disciplines and across regions and fosters ongoing inquiry into important assumptions beliefs and perspectives about the implications of globalization for Africa and Africans It covers major areas of concern movement of refugees xenophobia transition from economic migration to citizenship challenges of integration and conflict of identity The authors investigate the experiences of Africans in various economic sectors and geographical locations and the trends in hegemony inequality cultural changes and the dynamics of social movements and struggles Through illuminating narratives and copious explanations this book assists readers to make sense of globalization and the position of Africa and Africans in it National Identity Richard R.

Verdugo, Andrew Milne, 2016-06-01 National identity has been the subject of much controversy and debate Some have even suggested dropping the concept entirely One group Essentialists argue that national identity is fixed cultural based on birth and ancestry Another viewpoint is posited by Postmodernists who argue that national identity is malleable invented or imagined As alternatives some have suggested that national identity is a hybrid of both Essentialist and Postmodernist views And still others bypass this argument and suggest that national identity should be based on civic factors such as shared values and norms about citizenship While controversy and debate are healthy exercises in any science at some point order must be established if science is to proceed The present volume is based on the idea that national identity is an ideal type concept it does not completely capture reality but is used for analytic purposes In addition rather than focusing on these theoretical debates we pursue research with the idea that results from research will contribute to the field of national identity Three areas of national identity are discussed theoretical national and individual Two chapters focus on the major theories about national identity provide critiques and make suggestions about the topic In section two six chapters provide case studies of national identity on Scotland Ireland Russia Bosnia Herzegovina Germany and France In section three two case studies focus on immigrants and the challenges they face in forming their identities especially identifying with their host countries Belgium and the United Kingdom Several important conclusions may be gleaned from the contributions of the present volume To begin with while national identity is a slippery concept if the field wishes to move beyond debate about fundamentals it would be well advised to view the concept as an ideal type as suggested by the great German scholar Max Weber Secondly the case studies included in the present volume indicate that national identity is not only based on ethnicity and culture but on such external factors as governance regimes and their changes economic crises wars and other forms of aggressive activity and social demographic changes in a population These factors affect a population at the national level For immigrants at the individual level developing national identity is greatly affected by four interrelated factors 1 the degree to which they are accepted by members of the host society 2 immigrants language skills and physical appearances 3 how well they are able to balance their host national identity their ethnic identity and acceptance of their native country 4 and their generational status Generally at the national and individual levels context and circumstances matter in developing national identity

Ireland 1798-1998 Alvin Jackson, 2025-05-27 The new edition of Alvin Jackson's highly influential survey of 200 years of Irish history Ireland 1798 1998 War Peace and Beyond is the most up to date original and authoritative survey of modern Irish history available in a single volume Leading historian and author Alvin Jackson draws on new research and the latest scholarship to provide a sustained and coherent historical narrative of the varieties and interconnections of the Irish political experience Each chapter examines a major political issue with a particular focus on the tension between Irish nationalism and unionism and beginning with the creation of militant republicanism and militant loyalism in the 1790s Throughout the book Jackson offers striking and perceptive insights into the key issues and personalities of the period Now in its third edition this acclaimed volume provides expanded coverage of the most recent political developments in Ireland both North and South An entirely new epilogue examines the impacts of the Good Friday Agreement the global banking crisis Brexit and COVID 19 on Irish politics and institutions supported by an updated chronology and bibliography Presenting a fresh interpretation of modern Irish political history Ireland 1798 1998 War Peace and Beyond Offers thought provoking analyses of Irish political parties leaders institutions and movements Interweaves social economic and cultural material relevant to the main political themes Covers segments of Irish society not commonly represented in political history texts Stimulates readers to consider familiar historical issues or personalities from new perspectives Ireland 1798 1998 War Peace and Beyond Third Edition is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and graduate students working on Irish and British political history as well as general readers in search of an incisive stylish and accessible account of the last two centuries of Ireland's past

Recognition, Equality and Democracy Jurgen De Wispelaere, Cillian McBride, Shane O'Neill, 2013-10-18 This volume brings together a range of theoretical responses to issues in Irish politics Its organising ideas recognition equality and democracy set the terms of political debate within both jurisdictions For some there are significant tensions between the grammar of recognition concerned with esteem respect and the symbolic aspects of social life and the logic of equality which is primarily concerned with the distribution of material resources and formal opportunities while for others tensions are produced rather by certain interpretations of these ideas while alternative readings may by contrast serve as the basis for a systematic account of social and political inequality The essays in this collection will explore these interconnections with reference to the politics of Northern Ireland and the Republic The Republic has gone through a period in which its constitution was the focus for a liberal politics aimed at securing personal autonomy while Northern Ireland's political landscape has been shaped by the problem of securing political autonomy and democratic legitimacy While the papers address key questions facing each particular polity the issues themselves have resonances for politics on each side of the border

Educational Policies and Practices of English-Speaking Refugee Resettlement Countries, 2019-05-27 Since 2014 the international community has felt overwhelmed by refugees and asylum seekers searching for opportunities in which to rebuild their lives Indeed large numbers can result in turmoil and concern in resettlement countries and with national citizens A climate of fear can result especially if perpetuated by politicians and media that suggest negative effects resulting from immigration Caught in the crossfire of social and political disagreements about migration are children most of whom are not included in decisions to leave their homelands This edited book examines their academic challenges from the perspective of the six English speaking refugee resettlement countries Our hope is not only to compare challenges but also to describe successes by which teachers and policymakers can consider new approaches to help refugee and asylum seeking children Educational Policies and Practices of English Speaking Refugee Resettlement Countries offers perspectives from established and new scholars examining educational situations for refugees and asylum seekers The top three resettlement countries are the United States Canada and Australia For its size New Zealand is also proportionately a country of high resettlement New to resettlement are the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland Thus this collection includes wisdom from countries that began resettlement during World War Two as well as newcomers to the process In 2018 UNHCR numbers of displaced people reached a record high of 68.5 million Policymakers teachers social service providers and the general public need to understand ways to help resettled refugees become productive members in their new countries of residence Contributors are Samantha Arnold Asih Asikin Garmager Melanie Baak Sally Baker Zhiyan Basharati Briana Byers Merike Darmody Lucia Dore Ain A Grooms Maria Hayward Asher Hirsch Amanda Hiorth Caroline Lenette Leslie Ann Locke Duhita Mahatmya Jody L McBrien Rory Mc Daid Helen Murphy Tara Ross Jan Stewart and Elizabeth P Tonogbanua
