Racism In A Racial Democracy The Maintenance Of White Supremacy In Brazil:

Racism in a Racial Democracy France Winddance Twine, 1998 In Racism in a Racial Democracy France Winddance Twine asks why Brazilians particularly Afro Brazilians continue to have faith in Brazil's racial democracy in the face of pervasive racism in all spheres of Brazilian life Through a detailed ethnography Twine provides a cultural analysis of the everyday discursive and material practices that sustain and naturalize white supremacy This is the first ethnographic study of racism in southeastern Brazil to place the practices of upwardly mobile Afro Brazilians at the center of analysis Based on extensive field research and more than fifty life histories with Afro and Euro Brazilians this book analyzes how Brazilians conceptualize and respond to racial disparities Twine illuminates the obstacles Brazilian activists face when attempting to generate grassroots support for an antiracist movement among the majority of working class Brazilians Anyone interested in racism and antiracism in Latin America will find this book compelling

Waste of a White Skin Tiffany

Willoughby-Herard, 2015-01-06 A pathbreaking history of the development of scientific racism white nationalism and segregationist philanthropy in the U S and South Africa in the early twentieth century Waste of a White Skin focuses on the American Carnegie Corporation's study of race in South Africa the Poor White Study and its influence on the creation of apartheid This book demonstrates the ways in which U S elites supported apartheid and Afrikaner Nationalism in the critical period prior to 1948 through philanthropic interventions and shaping scholarly knowledge production Rather than comparing racial democracies and their engagement with scientific racism Willoughby Herard outlines the ways in which a racial regime of global whiteness constitutes domestic racial policies and in part animates black consciousness in seemingly disparate and discontinuous racial democracies This book uses key paradigms in black political thought black feminism black internationalism and the black radical tradition to provide a rich account of poverty and work Much of the scholarship on whiteness in South Africa overlooks the complex politics of white poverty and what they mean for the making of black political action and black people's presence in the economic system Ideal for students scholars and interested readers in areas related to U S History African History World History Diaspora Studies Race and Ethnicity Sociology Anthropology and Political Science

The Color of Modernity Barbara Weinstein, 2015-04-05 In The Color of Modernity Barbara Weinstein focuses on race gender and regionalism in the formation of national identities in Brazil this focus allows her to explore how uneven patterns of economic development are consolidated and understood Organized around two principal episodes the 1932 Constitutionalist Revolution and 1954's IV Centenario the quadricentennial of São Paulo's founding this book shows how both elites and popular sectors in São Paulo embraced a regional identity that emphasized their European origins and aptitude for modernity and progress attributes that became and remain associated with whiteness This racialized regionalism naturalized and reproduced regional inequalities as São Paulo became synonymous with prosperity while Brazil's Northeast a region plagued by drought and poverty came to represent backwardness and São Paulo's racial Other This view of regional difference Weinstein argues led to development policies that exacerbated these inequalities and impeded democratization Boundaries of Love Chinyere K. Osuji, 2019-05-21 How interracial couples in Brazil and the US navigate racial boundaries How do people understand and navigate being married to a person of a different race Based on individual interviews with forty seven black white couples in two large multicultural cities Los Angeles and Rio de Janeiro Boundaries of Love explores how partners in these relationships ultimately reproduce negotiate and challenge the us versus them mentality of ethno racial boundaries By centering marriage Chinyere Osuji reveals the family as a primary site for understanding the social construction of race She challenges the naive but widespread belief that interracial couples and their children provide an antidote to racism in the twenty first century instead highlighting the complexities and contradictions of these relationships Featuring black husbands with white wives as well as black wives with white husbands Boundaries of Love sheds light on the role of gender in navigating life married to a person of a different color Osuji compares black white couples in Brazil and the United States the two most populous post slavery societies in the Western hemisphere These settings she argues reveal the impact of contemporary race mixture on racial hierarchies and racial ideologies both old and new

Ethnic Capital in a Japanese Brazilian Commune Nobuko Adachi,2017-02-16 This is a book about the power ethnic capital and how it drives both the economics of and the quest for identity in a Japanese Brazilian commune Adachi tells readers what this small diaspora community can teach us about how life in the trenches looks to those on the outskirts of the exploding transnational world economy This book explores the various strategies locals use to compete with others with whom they are linked locally nationally and globally Through the story of Kubo daily life Adachi offers insights into important aspects of social and linguistic theory as well as explicating how cross border relations become more and more intertwined In a sense Kubo s story with its struggles to maintain its identity even its survival in an increasingly globalized world encapsulates many of the problems now faced by smaller communities around the world be they diasporic or regionally entrenched or ethnically racially or religiously composed Adachi explores the motivations for racial and ethnic boundary making based primarily on values and principles rather than purely physiological features by focusing on Kubo and its marketing of supposedly traditional Japanese cultural values in spite of the commune being located in the interior of Brazil To do this she incorporates notions from linguistic anthropology and sociolinguistics including problems of language maintenance the relationships between language and symbolic power and the intricacies of language and gender Doing so helps theorize the tensions between hybridity and purity entailed in the complexities of identity dynamics

White Negritude A. Isfahani-Hammond,2007-12-25 This book looks at the relationship of literary criticism to the social construction of race in Brazil Isfahani Hammond considers Gilberto Freyre s model of master slave synthesis and examines what multiculturalism means after the turn of the century

Black Feminist Constellations Christen A. Smith,Lorraine Leu,2023-12-05 In essays poems and dialogues the writers in Black Feminist Constellations reimagine liberation from the perspectives of radical South American and Caribbean Black women thinkers The volume s methodologically innovative approach reflects how Black women come together to theorize the world and challenges the notion that the university is the only site where knowledge can emerge A major work of intellectual history Black Feminist Constellations makes legible the epistemologies that sustain radical scholarship art and political organizing by Black women everywhere

philosophy some of the crucial issues of the black experience Ralph Ellison's metaphor of black invisibility has special relevance to philosophy whose demographic and conceptual whiteness has long been a source of wonder and complaint to racial minorities Mills points out the absence of any philosophical narrative theorizing and detailing race's centrality to the recent history of the West such as feminists have articulated for gender domination European expansionism in its various forms Mills contends generates a social ontology of race that warrants philosophical attention Through expropriation settlement slavery and colonialism race comes into existence as simultaneously real and unreal ontological without being biological metaphysical without being physical existential without being essential shaping one's being without being in one's shape His essays explore the contrasting sums of a white and black modernity examine standpoint epistemology and the metaphysics of racial identity look at black Jewish relations and racial conspiracy theories map the workings of a white supremacist polity and the contours of a racist moral consciousness and analyze the presuppositions of Frederick Douglass's famous July 4 prognosis for black political inclusion Collectively they demonstrate what exciting new philosophical terrain can be opened up once the color line in western philosophy is made visible and addressed

Politics and Racism Beyond Nations J. P. Linström, 2022-01-18 This book brings together theoretical knowledge from diverse fields as anthropology biology neurology peace studies political science psychology and sociology to address key challenges that transcend borders It demonstrates how differences are created on many levels to reveal how the othering project is evident through national policies of immigration through aspiring nationalisms through genocidal inhumanity and the subsequent effects of such othering evident in racial trauma It further argues that we cannot limit our understanding of racism to forms of white nationalism or whiteness movements in the developed world and regions but look to the global formulation of such discrimination in colonial histories The book introduces each chapter by providing rich ethnographic narratives from informants based upon the author's research on nationalism racism genocide terrorism trauma scientific tolerance and love and peace as well as some auto ethnographic narratives from the author's research on these themes

Negotiating Identities Anders Runesson, Cecilia Wassén, Karin Hedner Zetterholm, Magnus Zetterholm, 2022-10-03 Covering the period from 200 BCE to 600 CE this book describes important aspects of identity formation processes within early Judaism and Christianity and shows how negotiations involving issues of ethnicity stereotyping purity commensality and institution building contributed to the forming of group identities Over time some of these Jewish group identities evolved into non Jewish Christian identities others into a rabbinic Jewish identity while yet others remained somewhere in between The contributors to this volume trace these developments in archaeological remains as well as in texts from the Qumran movement the New Testament and the reception of Paul's writings rabbinic literature and apocryphal and pseudepigraphical writings such as the Book of Dreams and the

Pseudo Clementine Homilies The long timespan covered in the volume together with the combined expertise of scholars from various fields make this book a unique contribution to research on group identity Jewish and Christian identity formation the Partings of the ways between Judaism and Christianity and interactions between Jews and Christians Rethinking Anti-Racisms Floya Anthias, Cathy Lloyd, 2005-07-08 This collection seeks to rethink anti racism both in light of social changes and also of new theoretical debates about citizenship multiculturalism hybridity diaspora and social movements As well as chapters on theoretical interventions Rethinking Anti Racisms has substantive chapters covering issues such as anti deportation campaigns anti fascism education the Southall Black Sisters the contradictory use of ethnicity as a way of tackling racism Between Brown and Black Antonio José Bacelar da Silva, 2022-06-17 List of illustrations Black into brown brown into black Afro Brazilians grapple with racial categorization The language of Afro Brazilian antiracist socialization Performing ancestors claiming blackness Becoming an antiracist or as black as we can be Who can be black for affirmative action programs in Brazil The complex calculus of race and electoral politics in Salvador Conclusion Afro Brazilians black and brown antiracism Acknowledgements Racing Research, Researching Race France Winddance Twine, Jonathan Warren, 2000 This book is an examination of what it means to be conscious of race when one is doing research There are those who argue that just to acknowledge race is to perpetuate the biological myth of race But this book warns that is to confuse the biological with the social further arguing that the race of the researcher can be a significant factor in what information is revealed by interviewees and that this needs to be considered when planning a study or reviewing its results This book is the authors attempt to initiate a serious discussion of the potential ethical emotional analytical and methodological dilemmas generated by racial subjectivities racial ideologies and racial disparities in research c Book News Inc Manifesto for New Social Movements César Augusto Rossatto, 2019-10-01 The world is currently witnessing the emergence of a new context for education labor and transformative social movements Global flows of people capital and energy increasingly define the world we live in The multinational corporation with its pursuit of ever cheaper sources of labor and materials and its disregard for human life is the dominant form of economic organization where capital can cross borders but people can't Affirmative action democracy and human rights are moving in from the margins to challenge capitalist priorities of efficiency i e exploitation In some places the representatives of popular movements are actually taking the reins of state power Across the globe new progressive movements are emerging to bridge national identities and boundaries in solidarity with transnational class gender and ethnic struggles At this juncture educators have a key role to play The ideology of market competition has become more entrenched in schools even as opportunities for skilled employment diminish We must rethink the relationship between schooling and labor developing transnational pedagogies that draw upon the myriad social struggles shaping students lives and communities Critical educators need to connect with other social movements to put a radically democratic agenda based on the principles of equity access and emancipation at the center of educational

praxis Many countries in Latin America like in other continents are developing new alternatives for the reconstruction of social projects these emerging sources of hope are the central focus of this book Major historical change always starts with people s social movement Democracy can be one of the best political and social systems in the world but for it to work entails the sustainable participation of citizens Above all it requires that people be informed and critically educated since the quality of democracy depends on quality of education There are 2 kinds of power money and people If people exercise their agency they can be more powerful than money There are some organizing principles of social movements as don t do for others what they should do for themselves Saul Alinsky wrote Rules for Radicals A pragmatic primer for realistic radicals Mary Rogers Cold Anger A story of faith and power politics Michael Gecan Going Public An organizer s guide to citizen action and Ernesto Cortez s Industrial Area Foundation are all great sources for organized activism that do work I put some of these principles to the test and they produced positive results I was a founder and president of a union at my university and I lived my whole life as an activist and learned that we can do more together than alone Now we also have a new digital war with the Cambridge Analytica and Breitbart s fake news manipulation however we also have social justice hacktivism to counter act it as well as other democratic social media venues that critical thinkers and activist use The chapters in this book demonstrate the importance of widening and diversifying social movements at the same time emphasizes the need to build cohesive alliances among all the different fronts What some people think is impossible can become a transformed reality for those who dare attempt changing the world as global citizens
