"I'm Not a Racist, But..." Lawrence Blum, 2015-08-01 Not all racial incidents are racist incidents Lawrence Blum says We need a more varied and nuanced moral vocabulary for talking about the arena of race We should not be faced with a choice of racism or nothing Use of the word racism is pervasive An article about the NAACP's criticism of television networks for casting too few minority actors in lead roles asks Is television a racist institution A white girl in Virginia says it is racist for her African American teacher to wear African attire Blum argues that a growing tendency to castigate as racism everything that goes wrong in the racial domain reduces the term's power to evoke moral outrage In I'm Not a Racist But Blum develops a historically grounded account of racism as the deeply morally charged notion it has become He addresses the question whether people of color can be racist defines types of racism and identifies debased and inappropriate usages of the term Though racial insensitivity racial anxiety racial ignorance and racial injustice are in his view not racism they are racial ills that should elicit moral concern Blum argues that race itself even when not serving distinct racial malfeasance is a morally destructive idea implying moral distance and unequal worth History and genetic science reveal both the avoidability and the falsity of the idea of race Blum argues that we can give up the idea of race but must recognize that racial groups historical and social experience has been shaped by having been treated as if they were races

Feminist Waves, Feminist Generations Hokulani K. Aikau, Karla A. Erickson, Jennifer L. Pierce, 2007 Feminist Waves Feminist Generations challenges the static figuring of feminist generations that positions the second wave of feminist scholars against a homogeneous third wave Based on life stories from contemporary feminist scholars this volume emphasizes how feminism develops unevenly over time and across institutions and ultimately offers a new paradigm for theorizing the intersections between generations and feminist waves of thought Contributors Sam Bullington U of Missouri Susan Cahn SUNY Buffalo Dawn Rae Davis U of Minnesota Lisa J Disch U of Minnesota Sara Evans U of Minnesota Elizabeth Faue Wayne State U Roderick A Ferguson U of Minnesota Peter Hennen Ohio State U at Newark Wendy Leo Moore Texas A Toni McNaron U of Minnesota Jean M O'Brien U of Minnesota Felicity Schaeffer Grabel U of California Santa Cruz Anne Firor Scott Duke U Janet D Spector U of Minnesota Amanda Lock Swarr U of Washington Seattle Miglena Todorova U of

The System in Black and White Michael W. Markowitz, Delores D. Jones-Brown, 2000-04-30 In a collection of compelling contributions to the study of the nexus between race crime and justice noted scholars in the field critique many long held assumptions and myths about race challenging criminal justice policymakers to develop new and effective strategies for dealing with the social problems such misunderstandings create In sections devoted to criminological theory law enforcement courts and the law juvenile delinquency and gender contributors endeavor to dispel myths about African American involvement in the criminal justice system In so doing a number of important facts are established about the race crime nexus For example in an analysis of criminological theory it is concluded that race as a singular social factor has not been adequately represented in existing paradigms The subject of police profiling of African Americans reveals an evolution of court decisions that have marginalized rather than liberated African Americans since slavery Each contributor challenges both the reader and the criminal justice system to develop meaningful strategies for addressing the racism that still pervades our system of justice A chapter on women of color in prison makes a compelling argument that such institutions often represent safer environments than the life on the streets women leave behind This persuasive volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty in Sociology Criminal Justice policy development African American and Women s Studies
