Racist Violence In Europe:

Racist Violence in Europe Rob Witte, Tore Björger, 2016-07-27 All over Europe asylum seekers immigrants and minorities are increasingly finding themselves under violent attack Who are the perpetrators What are their motives To what extent are right wing or neo Nazi organizations involved How do the authorities and the police respond What are the roles of the media the public opinion and anti racist movements What can be done to stop the violence These are questions addressed in this volume by some of Europe's leading experts on racism and racist violence Racist Violence in Europe Tore Björger, Rob Witte, 1993 Europe's New Racism Evens Foundation, 2002-06 Europe has seen a tremendous rise in popularity of new rightist political parties in the last two decades or so claiming cultural supremacy of the so called native Europeans over foreign immigrants In this volume European scholars from Russia to Britain have come together to examine the media and social and legal policies in an effort to determine the causes of this resurgence of rightist and anti democratic ideologies They furthermore suggest actions that might help combat racism more effectively Britain in Europe Tony Spybey, 2008-02-20 This is the first introductory sociology text to look at Britain in terms of its geographical position within Europe and its political and economic situation as a member of the European Union Racist Violence and the State Rob Witte, 2014-09-11 Racist Violence and the State is the first serious study to apply a comparative research based approach to the study of racist violence in Britain France and The Netherlands since 1945 Setting racist violence within a historical background of the post imperialist legacy the author presents an accessible fascinating and highly original analysis of the development of public and state attitudes to racist violence over the past 50 years Europe's new racism? : causes, manifestations and solutions, 2002 Racist Extremism in Central & Eastern Europe Cas Mudde, 2005-10-09 This handbook on racist extremism in Central and Eastern Europe is the result of a unique collaborative research project of experts from the ten new and future post communist EU member states All chapters are written to a common framework making it easier to compare individual countries and include sections on racist extremist organizations political parties organizations and subcultures the domestic and international legal framework members and types of racist extremist incidents state and civic responses to the threat Mudde's conclusion examines the region as a whole and compares it with Western Europe Racism and Equality in the European Union Mark Bell, 2009-01-08 The European Union has committed itself to combating racism as a general objective of law and policy EU legislation requires Member States to introduce laws prohibiting racial discrimination in many aspects of everyday life including employment education healthcare and housing Alongside legislation requiring action at national level the EU institutions have also made periodic commitments to mainstream racial equality taking anti racism objectives into account within all areas of EU law and policy This book analyses the extent to which the objectives of combating racism and promoting ethnic equality have been effectively mainstreamed throughout a wide range of EU policy fields It begins by considering what combating racism means in the contemporary context of the enlarged EU Bell explores what mainstreaming ethnic equality objectives entails and whether the priorities and instruments differ from those adopted in the earlier mainstreaming of gender equality or those used on other discrimination grounds The second part of the book examines the extent to which EU law and policy objectives have in practice been integrated exploring the effects in the key areas of employment social inclusion including education health and housing immigration and criminal law

Ethnicity And Crime: A Reader Spalek, Basia, 2008-07-01 Basia Spalek has compiled an excellent reader about a much researched and highly sensitive subject Crucially she contextualises ethnicity and crime within broadly defined social and intellectual contexts avoiding the limitation of all too frequently repeated research based solely on statistical measures and policy evaluations Simon Holdaway Professor of Criminology and Sociology Sheffield University Issues in relation to race and ethnicity have generated substantial and ever growing interest from and within a multitude of academic research and policy contexts This book brings together important material in race and ethnic studies and provides different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime and the criminal justice system Ethnicity and Crime A Reader consists of a collection of works that capture the main themes that arise from within this vast area of work It is divided into five sections Race and crime racial discrimination and criminal justice The racialisation of crime Social political and cultural contexts Race ethnicity and victimisation Self and discipline reflexivity Ethnic identities and crime Ethnic identities institutional reflexivity and crime Each section contains recurring and overlapping themes and includes many different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime It spans theoretical approaches that might be labelled as positivist critical race analyses left realist approaches feminist as well as post modern perspectives This is the first title in the new series Readings in Criminology and Criminal Justice and follows the series format of thematic sections together with an editor s introduction to the complete volume and an introduction to each section

Racism and Ethnicity Ian Law, 2013-09-05 Racism and Ethnicity Global Debates Dilemmas Directions examines in detail the theories histories and principal debates of race racism and ethnicity within a global context The text offers critical evaluation of the work of major figures from Du Bois to Goldberg and presents new research on pre modern racisms contemporary scientific racisms racist violence racism reduction ethnicity in the UK and European patterns of exclusion and discrimination Richly illustrated throughout with examples and case studies drawn from across the world and time the book also offers a range of in text features to aid study including chapter summaries key concept boxes chapter activities and further reading Racism and Ethnicity Global Debates Dilemmas Directions will be core reading for students at all levels across the social sciences and the humanities ranging from history and cultural studies through sociology to political and policy analysis It will also be of significant interest to researchers and policy makers in a range of fields

Challenging Racism in Britain and Germany Z. Layton-Henry, C. Wilpert, 2003-03-13 This collection analyses some of the factors that contribute to racism and exclusion in Britain and Germany such as citizenship laws racial violence discrimination in education and employment anti semitism and the rise of the far right Strategies to combat racism racist violence and discrimination in Britain are described and analysed and proposals for anti discrimination legislation in Germany are considered Intercultural Europe Jagdish Gundara, Sydney Jacobs, 2019-06-11 This title was first published in 2000 The essays in this text examine interculturalism in Europe focusing on social diversity and social policy within the European Union Issues addressed include racism and social policy migrant communities in Europe ethnic diversity intercultural education and housing and segregation An Ethnic History of Europe since 1945 Panikos Panayi, 2018-10-08 The first history of Europe since 1945 which examines the continent from a mainly ethnic perspective Panikos Panayi has drawn on years of research to produce this comparative and exploratory account of the experience of ethnic minorities in post war Europe The coverage encompasses all categories of minorities including immigrants and refugees localised ethnic groupings and dispersed peoples Geographically the scope of the book ranges from the Atlantic to the Urals and the Mediterranean to the Arctic looking in particular at the Soviet Union Britain France Germany Romania Cyprus and the former Yugoslavia Immigration and Conflict in Europe Rafaela M. Dancygier, 2010-08-09 Contemporary debates give the impression that the presence of immigrants necessarily spells strife Yet as Immigration and Conflict in Europe shows the incidence of conflict involving immigrants and their descendants has varied widely across groups cities and countries The book presents a theory to account for this uneven pattern explaining why we observe clashes between immigrants and natives in some locations but not in others and why some cities experience confrontations between immigrants and state actors while others are spared from such conflicts The book addresses how economic conditions interact with electoral incentives to account for immigrant native and immigrant state conflict across groups and cities within Great Britain as well as across Germany and France It highlights the importance of national immigration regimes and local political economies in shaping immigrants economic position and political behavior demonstrating how economic and electoral forces rather than cultural differences determine patterns of conflict and calm

Reflections on the Extreme Right in Western Europe, 1990-2008 Christopher Husbands, 2020-05-26 During the last three decades or so there has been a significant growth of extreme right voter support in Europe and elsewhere in the world The chapters in this book look at an earlier period before most of this increase Comprising eight previously published articles or book chapters and two hitherto unpublished studies this book gives extended accounts of the major extreme right political parties or movements in a number of west European countries looking both at their antecedents and also at their support and significance in the 1980s and early 1990s The countries covered in detail are France the Federal Republic of Germany old and new regions the Netherlands Belgium Switzerland and Austria During the last three decades some earlier parties of the extreme right in these west European countries have disappeared into oblivion to be superseded by replacements others have survived and flourished Given the date when most of these chapters were written they are now to be regarded as contributions to a modern history about the status and relevance of the respective parties or movements The book also includes an introductory essay that discusses issues arising from the disputed labelling terminology used to describe such parties and identifies themes that feature in the more recent literature about the subsequent and current state of the extreme right in Europe The book will be of particular interest to researchers on the contemporary politics of the extreme right in Europe as well as being a valuable resource for those teaching courses on this topic or on general political sociology     The Politics of Multiculturalism in the New Europe Tariq Modood,Pnina Werbner,1997-08 On multiculturalism

Racism Postcolonialism Europe Graham Huggan,Ian Law,2022-04-01 Racism Postcolonialism Europe turns the postcolonial critical gaze that had previously been most likely to train itself on regions other than Europe and sometimes those perceived to be most culturally or geographically distant from Europe back on Europe itself The book argues that racism is alive and dangerously well in Europe and examines this racism through the lens of postcolonial criticism Postcolonial racism can be a racism of reaction based on the perceived threat to traditional social and cultural identities or a racism of false respect based on mainstream liberals desire to hold at arm s length different cultures they are anxious not to offend Most of all postcolonial racism at least within the contemporary European context is a racism of surveillance whereby foreigners become aliens protection disguises preference and cultural difference slides into racial stigmatization all in the interests of representing the European people which is a very different entity to the European population as a whole Boasting a broad multidisciplinary approach and a range of distinguished contributors including Philomena Essed Michel Wieviorka and Griselda Pollock Racism Postcolonialism Europe will be required reading for scholars and students of race postcolonial studies sociology European history and literary and cultural studies     Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature     Perceptions of Islam in Europe Hakan Yilmaz,Cagla E. Aykac,2012-04-24 For centuries the Islamic world has been represented as the other within European identity constructions an other perceived to be increasingly at odds with European forms of modernity and culture With the perceived gap between Islam and Europe widening leading scholars in this work come together to provide genuine and realistic analyses about perceptions of Islam in the West The book bridges these analyses with in depth case studies from Britain France Germany Greece Italy the Netherlands Poland Turkey and other parts of the European Union This study goes beyond the usual dichotomies of clashes of civilizations and cultural conflict to try to understand the numerous diverse and multifaceted ways some conflictual some peaceful in which cultural exchanges have taken place historically and which continue to take place between the Muslim and non Muslim worlds     New Directions in Race, Ethnicity and Crime Coretta Phillips,Colin Webster,2013-10-08 The disproportionate criminalisation and incarceration of particular minority ethnic groups has long been observed though much of the work in criminology has been dominated by a somewhat narrow debate This debate has concerned itself with explaining this disproportionality in terms of structural inequalities and socio economic disadvantage or discriminatory criminal justice processing This book offers an accessible and innovative approach including chapters on anti-Semitism social cohesion in London Bradford and Glasgow as well as an exploration of policing Traveller communities Incorporating current empirical research and new departures in methodology and theory this book also draws on a range of contemporary issues such as policing terrorism immigration detention and youth gangs In offering minority perspectives on race crime and justice and white inmate perspectives from the multicultural prison the book emphasises contrasting and distinctive influences on constructing ethnic identities It will be of interest to students studying courses in ethnicity crime and justice
