Louis J. Luzbetak Lectures Stephen B. Bevans, 2012 The Unknown God Thomas G. Grenham, 2005 This book explores the idea of religious and theological interculturalism from a Christian perspective as an approach to evangelisation It explores aspects of culture and pluralism as these have been interpreted in post Vatican II approaches to mission and evaluates interculturalism from a number of perspectives including language symbol and metaphor It draws insight from two New Testament encounters of Jesus with women in Samaria John and in Tyre Matthew and Mark and goes on to explore some historical sources of interculturalism in the missionary endeavours of the Jesuit Matteo Ricci A particular case study is made of the contemporary experience of an African people the Turkana of Kenya A Practical Discipleship Model That Fosters Spiritual Maturity Owar Ojha Ojulu, 2023-11-09 Jesus challenges us to live in him and continue living out the truth so that we claim our allegiance to Christ and live as disciples free from fear and from cultural customs that contradict the gospel message This project has found that the lack of discipleship training among the Anyuwa churches has resulted in a lack of understanding of what this ministry entails teaching and making disciples In addition failure to embed elements of the Anyuwa culture into the discipleship approach and the persistence of certain elements of Anyuwa life that run counter to gospel beliefs has inflamed this crisis Therefore this book presents a call for the church to challenge the culture of syncretism and the fear of witchdoctors to shift its paradigm and begin interpreting the gospel message utilizing contextual elements but interpreting them through the lens of the gospel calling people to embrace gospel values within their own cultural context When we start interpreting strong cultural beliefs and traditions through the truth of the gospel it is proof that we have come to the best discipleship approach as we speak the truth of the gospel in the life our church and the hearts of our believers

Affirming and Living with Differences, 2020-01-13 The multi cultural society is under enormous pressure Paradoxically the globalization plans of modernity have resulted in a more fragmented world and ensuing violence Instead of becoming uniform individual character and differences have become more strongly emphasized How can people live together and at the same time preserve their differences How can variety be valued in a theological manner These questions form the theme of this collection that consists of three sections The South African reflections Simon Louw and Koopman that consider living in the variety of a rainbow nation are followed by European experiences of Moluccan Christians in the Netherlands Pattikayhatu Western Muslims van Bommel and the Belgian modus vivendi Van der Borgh The collection is completed by the theological reflections about the concept communio sanctorum Le Bruyns the Enlightenment's ideal of equality van de Beek and the unity of the church Theron

Gittins CSSp, 2018-02-13 The gospel tells us to look into other people's eyes as we search for an image of God to help us work for healing justice amid the rubble and the memories that litter our lives to rebuild a human world on the debris of broken dreams and to commit ourselves as God does to restoring communities so that there will be no more estrangement no more strangers and no more aliens It is only a little less than impossible and the only way we can do it is to learn to love the world as God already does It's simply not possible to love in theory we must go further than that We must love in practice We must practice in love That is the disciple's call Called to Be Sent develops and completes the theology of discipleship introduced in the author's previous books This new volume focuses on sending forth the phase that follows our radical encounter with humanity Here we find the hope and strength to move from an understanding of mission to actually being commissioned by Jesus In short as Christians we are gathered for scattering and called to be sent and this book provides much direction

The Pastoral Care of Italians in Australia Anthony Paganoni, 2007 This book explores the Italian contribution to the life of the Church in Australia It begins with the historical experiences where Italians became identified as the Italian Problem right through the Second World War where they became Enemy Aliens and on to the post war period where Italians moved from being Dagoes to becoming Doers The first half of this impressive book challenges the treatment of Italians in Australia and boldly argues for a new awareness almost an Italianization of the Australian Catholic Church The final two chapters explore the Italian contribution to the Australian Church through the prism of theology and scripture As Australians of an Italian background move on to their third and even fourth generation in Australia this volume will become a rally call to reclaim our unique heritage which is Catholic Italian and most of all Australian

Commitment, Character, and Citizenship Hanan A. Alexander, Ayman K. Agbaria, 2012-05-31 As liberal democracies include increasingly diverse and multifaceted populations the longstanding debate about the role of the state in religious education and the place of religion in public life seems imperative now more than ever The maintenance of religious schools and the planning of religious education curricula raise a profound challenge Too much state supervision can be conceived as interference in religious freedom and as a confinement of the right to cultural liberty Too little supervision can be seen as neglecting the development of the liberal values required to live and work in a democratic society and as abandoning those who within their communities wish to attain a more rigorous education for citizenship and democracy This book draws together leading educationalists philosophers theologians and social scientists to explore issues problems and tensions concerning religious education in a variety of international settings The contributors explore the possibilities and limitations of religious education in preparing citizens in multicultural and multi religious democratic societies

A Presence that Disturbs Anthony J. Gittins, 2018-02-14 This powerful moving and disturbing book looks at the contemporary issues that block the attainment of a revitalized church a church united rather than fragmented a church tuned to justice for all rather than to provincial myopia A

Presence that Disturbs will engage the general reader and the specialist alike with a fresh perspective on what it means to follow Christ Three themes garnered from Holocaust survivor Viktor Frankl underpin the message of this book To live you must choose you must not let life just happen To love you must encounter you must know that human encounter is the only authentic way to know and love To grow you must suffer you must know that suffering can be a vehicle of growth a chance for redemption a way to turn ourselves to the outside Gittins discusses these themes in the context of the search for meaning The new lease on life endowed by the Holy Spirit the function of imaginative ministry the communitas of true discipleship and the radical actions of Jesus ministry are just a few of the ideas explored in the quest for a new understanding of discipleship Authentic Christianity says Gittins is outreaching and encountering it communicates and ministers Christianity like its sibling Judaism does not produce complacency but complicity or participation with others These pages are an invitation to renewed discipleship and an appeal to radical Christianity in the footsteps and in the Spirit of Jesus who prayed that his followers be one in him
