Reading The Global Past Selected Historical Documents 1500 To The Present Volume:

Christian Apologetics Past and Present (Volume 1, To 1500) William Edgar, K. Scott Oliphint, 2009-08-24 An unprecedented anthology of apologetics texts with selections from the first century AD through the Middle Ages Includes introductory material timelines maps footnotes and discussion questions The apostle Peter tells us always to be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks us to account for our hope as Christians 1 Peter 3 15 While the gospel message remains the same such arguments will look different from one age to another In the midst of a recent revival in the field of apologetics few things could be more useful than an acquaintance with some of these arguments for the Christian belief through the ages This first of two proposed volumes features primary source documents from the time of the early church 100 400 and the Middle Ages 400 1500 Featured apologists include Aristides Justin Martyr Irenaeus Tertullian Origen Athanasius Augustine Anselm and Thomas Aquinas The authors provide a preface to each major historical section with a timeline and a map then an introduction to each apologist Each primary source text is followed by questions for reflection or discussion purposes

Christian Apologetics Past and Present (Volume 2, From 1500) William Edgar, K. Scott Oliphint, 2011-09-13 Amid a revival of apologetics few things could be more useful than an acquaintance with how Christian faith was defended down through the ages say the editors in their introduction to this two part anthology Access to both historical and contemporary texts gives us fresh insight into how our fathers in the faith responded to the questions facing them Volume 2 in this one of a kind resource takes a sweeping look at apologetics from the Reformation to the present Readings from twenty six apologists including Martin Luther John Calvin Blaise Pascal Jonathan Edwards S ren Kierkegaard Francis Schaeffer Alvin Plantinga and William Lane Craig are included With editorial commentary and questions for reflection Christian Apologetics Past and Present will prove a valuable text for students as well as a unique resource for those interested in defending the faith

World History Candice Goucher, Linda Walton, 2013-07-24 World History Journeys from Past to Present uses common themes to present an integrated and comprehensive survey of human history from its origins to the present day By weaving together thematic and regional perspectives in coherent chronological narratives Goucher and Walton transform the overwhelming sweep of the human past into a truly global story that is relevant to the contemporary issues of our time Revised and updated throughout the second edition of this innovative textbook combines clear chronological progression with thematically focused chapters In this volume chapters are divided into three parts as follows PART 4 BRIDGING WORLDS 1300 1800 CE PART 5 TRANSFORMING LIVES 1500 1900 PART 6 FORGING A GLOBAL COMMUNITY 1800 Present The expanded new edition boasts an impressive full color design with a host of illustrations maps and primary source excerpts integrated throughout Chapter opening timelines supply context for the material ahead while end of chapter questions and annotated additional resources provide students with the tools for independent study Each chapter and part boasts introductory and summary essays that explain and guide the reader in comprehending the relevant theme In addition the companion website offers a range of resources including an interactive historical timeline an indispensable study skills section for students tips for teaching and learning thematically and PowerPoint slides lecture material and discussion questions in a password protected area for instructors This textbook provides a basic introduction for all students of World History while at the same time incorporating the thematic perspectives that encourage critical thinking link to globally relevant contemporary issues and stimulate further study

World History in Brief Peter N. Stearns, 2007 With its brief global rather than West centered approach World History in Brief Sixth Edition seeks to show how different civilizations developed in a global context Rather than overwhelm students the chief goal of World History in Brief is to present the big picture to facilitate comparison and assessment of change and to highlight the major developments in the world's history This text also emphasizes the global interactions of major civilizations so that students can compare and assess changes in the patterns of interaction and the impact of global forces such as migration and technology exchange The compact size of this text gives instructors the opportunity to take advantage of additional supplementary readings

The Human Record: Since 1500 Alfred J. Andrea, 1994 This is the second of two volumes of a supplementary reader of primary sources providing coverage of European and non European history Suitable for both European and global approaches it offers a wide ranging selection of readings and is introduced by an explanatory essay on analyzing written and visual primary sources Students are given guidance on the selection throughout
