Reading the Global Past: Prehistory to 1500 Russell J. Barber, Lanny B. Fields, Cheryl A. Riggs, 1998 A Concise Survey of Western Civilization Brian A. Pavlac, 2023-01-09 This book gives a brief readable description of our common Western heritage It covers the minimum historical information that educated adults should know within a tightly focused narrative and interpretive structure The joined terms supremacies and diversities develop major themes of conflict and creativity Supremacies centers on the use of power to dominate societies ranging from warfare to ideologies Supremacy seeks stability order and incorporation Diversities encompasses the creative impulse that produces new ideas as well as people s efforts to define themselves as different Diversity creates change opportunity and individuality These themes of historical tension and change whether applied to political economic technological social and cultural trends offer a bridging explanatory organization Five other topical themes regularly inform the text technological innovation migration and conquest political and economic decision making church and state and disputes about the meaning of life Various Basic Principles present summaries of historical realities Primary Source Projects and Sources on Families offer students the chance to evaluate differing points of view about the past This text is less expensive less formal has more attitude yet still provides all the essentials for a course on Western Civilization History of Civilization, Vol. 1 Robin W. Winks, Crane Brinton, Robert L. Wolff, 1992 A Short History of the World Geoffrey Blainey, 2003-03-08 A superb history of the world s people during the last four million years beginning before the human race moved out of Africa to explore and settle the other continents Mr Blainey explores the development of technology and skills the rise of major religions and the role of geography considering both the larger patterns and the individual nature of history A delightful read gracefully written and full of odd and interesting pieces of information as well as thoughtful comparisons that span both time and space William L O Neill
