Reading Peter Reading:

Reading Peter Reading Isabel Martin, 2000 Peter Reading is one of Britain's most prolific versatile startlingly contemporary and strikingly original poets Employing increasingly ingenious metrical skills Reading maps out an inconsolably sad and at times hilariously funny picture of England and the world in decline Tackling issues such as violence illness madness homelessness and environmental catastrophe his eschatological vision chastises a world gone morally ecologically and politically insane Both bleak and deeply humane his harrowing art aspires to nothing less than a distilled elegiac epic of our time The destruction also strikes at Reading's art itself the last six books are one long valedictory culminating in his own death statement Ob Reading Peter Reading is the first comprehensive study in English of Peter Reading's oeuvre illuminating its thematic and formal concerns paradoxes and development as well as underlining its major status in contemporary literature The book is based on Isabel Martin's pioneering doctoral dissertation on Reading awarded the State Prize of Kiel University Its updated detailed textual analysis will help readers understanding of the poetry and as a whole it provides a thorough and substantial basis for any future critical discussion of Reading's works Reading Peter Reading covers Peter Reading's collections from Water and Waste 1970 to Marfan 2000 The Narratological Analysis of Lyric Poetry Peter Hühn, Jens Kiefer, 2005 This study offers a fresh approach to the theory and practice of poetry criticism from a narratological perspective Arguing that lyric poems share basic constituents of narration with prose fiction namely temporal sequentiality of events and verbal mediation the authors propose the transgeneric application of narratology to the poetic genre with the aim of utilizing the sophisticated framework of narratological categories for a more precise and complex modeling of the poetic text On this basis the study provides a new impetus to the neglected field of poetic theory as well as to methodology The practical value of such an approach is then demonstrated by detailed model analyses of canonical English poems from all major periods between the 16th and the 20th centuries The comparative discussion of these analyses draws general conclusions about the specifics of narrative structures in lyric poetry in contrast to prose fiction Reading 1 Peter, Jude, and 2 Peter Earl Richard, 2000 This volume is dedicated to the study of three late little known biblical works that historically have been relegated to the lesser works of the New Testament Reading 1 Peter Jude and 2 Peter underscores the light that these letters shed upon one another and focuses on the snapshots they provide of early Christian communities as they encountered the social and religious environment in which they were situated Careful reading of 1 Peter reveals the complex world of the post apostolic period Jude and 2 Peter provide a sober look at the early community's evolution in doctrinal and moral terms Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter from Majority World Perspectives Sofanit T. Abebe, Elizabeth W. Mburu, Abeneazer G. Urga, 2024-09-19 The contributors to this volume offer a bold re-reading of Hebrews and 1 Peter from the perspective of the Global South The chapters provide enriching new hermeneutical and theological insights revealing facets of the text that may not at first be apparent to readers within a Eurocentric context The volume is thus able to explore topics ranging from the authorship of Hebrews in the Ethiopian Orthodox tradition and the Batak reading of Christus Victor to a Xhosa perception of the solidarity and sacrifice of Jesus and intercultural readings of Christian identity in the context of persecution With an introduction and final response by scholars from the Global North this volume encourages awareness of how the Global South contributes to world Christianity
