Reading Race In American Poetry:

Reading Race Aldon Lynn Nielsen, 1988 Reading Race examines the work of twentieth century white American poets from Carl Sandburg to Adrienne Rich from Ezra Pound to Allen Ginsberg revealing within their poetry and casual writings a body of literature that transmits racism even as it sometimes speaks against it Tracing the persistence of racial discourse Aldon Nielsen argues that white Americans throughout their history have used a language of their own primacy a language that treats blacks as an abstract other an aggregate nonwhite to be acted upon and determined by whites White discourse drapes over blacks an intricate veil of images and understandings assertions of inferiority metaphors of exoticism similes of animals tropes of fertility nothingness and death through which whites read race and beneath which blacks remain imprisoned Words Nielsen writes create and maintain relationships of power as surely as do prisons and arms Speaking of the discourse of race in America Nielsen identifies dead metaphors words images ideas that operate in much the same way as the charged detail of Pound or the objective correlative of T S Eliot Embedded in the language they are instantly recognizable to the native speaker Poets when they draw upon these metaphors demand racist thinking in order to be understood Reading Race in American Poetry Aldon Lynn Nielsen, 2000 Here inter racial poets and critics join together to analyze the role that race plays in the reading and writing of American poetry and the role that poetry plays in our understanding of race Genders, Races, and Religious Cultures in Modern American Poetry, 1908-1934 Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2001-01-11 In Genders Races and Religious Cultures in Modern American Poetries Rachel Blau Duplessis shows how through poetic language modernist writers represented the debates and ideologies concerning New Woman New Negro and New Jew in the early twentieth century From the poetic text emerge such social issues of modernity as debates on suffrage sexuality manhood and African American and Jewish subjectivities By a reading method she calls social philology a form of close reading inflected with the approaches of cultural studies Duplessis engages with the work of such canonical poets as Wallace Stevens Ezra Pound T S Eliot William Carlos Williams Gertrude Stein Marianne Moore and H D as well as Mina Loy Countee Cullen Alfred Kreyborg and Langston Hughes writers she claims still marginalized by existing constructions of modernism This book is an ambitious attempt to remap our understanding of modern poetries and poetics and the relationship between early twentieth century writing and society Literature and Race in the Democracy of Goods Christopher Albert Chen, 2021 This book conducts a comparative study of three literary traditions post 1960 Asian American Asian Canadian and Black experimental poetry which are usually examined separately In so doing it intervenes in conventional understandings of postwar North American racial formation and argues that through poetry we can examine the intersection between race and capitalism Arguing that contemporary Black Asian American and Asian Canadian poets such as Myung Mi Kim Nathaniel Mackey Larissa Lai and Erica Hunt challenge established definitions of race this book develops an account of experimental poetry s understanding of race as a range of relational configurations of subjects within racial groups and across racial divisions In in the ethics of space and how we use it His considerations of the wheatbelt through Wagner and Dante and rewritings of these and in Thoreauvian vein his place at Jam Tree Gully on the edge of Western Australia s Avon Valley form a web of affirmation and anxiety it is space he feels both part of and outside embraced in its every magnitude but felt to be stolen land whose restitution needs articulating in literature and in real time Beneath it all is a celebration of the natural world every plant animal rock sentinel peak and grain of sand and a commitment to an ecological poetics The Kinds of Poetry I Want Charles Bernstein,2024-11-28 A celebration of the radical poetics of invention from Charles Bernstein For more than four decades Charles Bernstein has been at the forefront of experimental poetry ever reaching for a radical poetics that defies schools periods and cultural institutions The Kinds of Poetry I Want is a celebration of invention and includes not only poetry but also essays on aesthetics and literary studies interviews with other poets autobiographical sketches and more At once a dialogic novel long poem and grand opera The Kinds of Poetry I Want arrives amid renewed attacks on humanistic expression In his polemical humorous style Bernstein faces these challenges head on and affirms the enduring vitality and attraction of poetry poetics and literary criticism The Routledge Introduction to American Modernism Linda Wagner-Martin,2016-02-12 The modernist period was crucial for American literature as it gave writers the chance to be truly innovative and create their own distinct identity Starting slightly earlier than many guides to modernism this lucid and comprehensive guide introduces the reader to the essential history of the period including technology religion economy class gender and immigration These contexts are woven of into discussions of many significant authors and texts from the period Wagner Martin brings her years of writing about American modernism to explicate poetry and drama as well as fiction and life writing Among the authors emphasized are Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner Zora Neale Hurston Langston Hughes F Scott Fitzgerald Gertrude Stein Willa Cather John Dos Passos William Carlos Williams Mike Gold James T Farrell Clifford Odets John Steinbeck and countless others A clear and engaging introduction to an exciting period of literature this is the ultimate guide for those seeking an overview of American Modernism A Vocabulary of Thinking Deborah M. Mix,2007-12 Using experimental style as a framework for close readings of writings produced by late twentieth century North American women Deborah Mix places Gertrude Stein at the center of a feminist and multicultural account of twentieth century innovative writing Her meticulously argued work maps literary affiliations that connect Stein to the work of Harryette Mullen Daphne Marlatt Betsy Warland Lyn Hejinian and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha By distinguishing a vocabulary which is flexible evolving and simultaneously individual and communal from a lexicon which is recorded fixed and carries the burden of masculine authority Mix argues that Stein s experimentalism both enables and demands the complex responses of these authors Arguing that these authors have received relatively little attention because of the difficulty in categorizing them Mix brings the writing of women of color lesbians and collaborative writers into the discussion of experimental writing Thus rather than exploring conventional lines of influence she departs from earlier scholarship by using Stein and her work as a lens through which to read the ways these authors have renegotiated tradition authority and innovation Building on the tradition of experimental or avant garde writing in the United States Mix questions the politics of the canon and literary influence offers close readings of previously neglected contemporary writers whose work doesn't fit within conventional categories and by linking genres not typically associated with experimentalism lyric epic and autobiography challenges ongoing reevaluations of innovative writing
