Reading the New Testament Today Brian E. Beck, 1977 Why do we have to study the New Testament Is it not simply enough to read it Beginning with a reading of the Lord's Prayer Brian Beck sets out to show how even the most familiar passages may benefit from more detailed study He writes simply and directly about the problems which arise from translation not only for the student but for every Christian who cares enough about the New Testament to want to understand it better He then goes on to show the way in which the different books came to be written and how they were brought together Though he is ready to criticise a number of scholars when he thinks they are mistaken he nevertheless yields to nobody in his high regard for many of the fruits of contemporary New Testament scholarship Reading the New Testament PHEME PERKINS, 1988 Discusses the history and nature of the New Testament provides outlines of each book and information on archaeological discoveries and shares an interpretation of the Scriptures Reading the New Testament PHEME PERKINS, 2012 An introduction to the writings of the New Testament written by a prominent scholar who is able to communicate the main ideas and results with a clear and simple style This third edition although leaving intact the structure of the book has been rewritten extensively updating the information and adding the results of new biblical approaches and research Includes new maps and illustrations Reading the New Testament as Christian Scripture (Reading Christian Scripture) Constantine R. R. Lee,W. Tyler Sykora,2025-01-15 Going Deeper with New Testament Greek Workbook by John J R Lee and Tyler Sykora guides readers through a careful study of the Greek text of the Gospel of Mark s journey narrative 8 22 10 52      The Christian Century ,1924      Did Jesus Teach Salvation by Works? Alan P. Stanley,2006-09-20 This book investigates the role of works in salvation in the Synoptic Gospels Jesus was all too aware of people who claimed to believe in Him and yet proved to be not truly born again e g John 2 23 25 8 31 46 A profession of faith made at some point during one s life is no guarantee that heaven awaits that person Such professions or conversion experiences must be followed by changed lives if faith is to be shown to be genuine saving faith Hence Jesus teaches that regardless of one s profession if one does not demonstrate a changed life produced by God one will not enter into heaven Such a judgment will be made when Jesus returns and judges every person according to his or her works While this may seem contradictory to some more well known passages ruling out the role of works in salvation e g Rom 3 21 4 25 Gal 2 16 21 Eph 2 8 9 there is every good reason to understand that Jesus teachings complement such passages The works that admit one into heaven are not works produced by the flesh before conversion but works produced by God after conversion They will fundamentally be characterized by a life of discipleship love for others and endurance in faith and obedience and will therefore serve to confirm that one indeed did have a relationship with God during one s life Hence Jesus did teach salvation by works However God is the one who produces the works and they occur after conversion Thus salvation is not one s initial conversion but one s final entrance into heaven
