Building an ESL Collection for Young Adults Laura McCaffery, 1998-10-28 This annotated bibliography of more than 500 recommended books meets the needs of teachers and librarians for reading materials for young adults for whom English is a second language Laura McCaffery who has many years of experience with collection development of ESL materials for young adults has selected the best books on a variety of topics to meet curriculum and personal interest needs of young adults Most of the books selected were published between 1992 and 1998 The bibliography is organized by topic adventure mystery and suspense biographies career workplace life skills and parenting folktales myths poetry and classics ethnic diversity history and geography nature and science and sports Indexes by author subject title and ethnic group make searching easy Mainstreamed ESL students can use these books to better understand and make use of regular textbooks Special ESL classes can use the recommended books as part of regular instruction Most of the books recommended are for the intermediate or advanced beginner reading level in English but some very easy books are also included Most of the books are suitable for all learners from grades five through adult Each entry contains a complete bibliographical citation Fry Reading Level Interest Level Library of Congress subjects for cataloging and a 50 to 200 word annotation describing the book and how it can be used by the librarian or teacher who is working with patrons or students A list of distributors of print and nonprint ESL materials completes the work Toward a Postcolonial Reading of the Epistle of James Ingeborg Mongstad-Kvammen, 2013-06-15 Toward a Postcolonial Reading of the Epistle of James offers an interpretation of Jas 2 1 13 putting the text in the midst of the Roman imperial system of rank This study shows that the conflict of the text has more to do with differences of rank than poverty and wealth The main problem is that the Christian assemblies are acting according to Roman cultural etiquette instead of their Jewish Christian heritage when a Roman equestrian and a beggar visit the assembly The members of the assemblies are accused of having become too Roman From a postcolonial perspective this is a typical case of hybrid identities Additional key concepts from postcolonialism such as diaspora othering naming of oppressors and binarisms such as coloniser colonised centre margin honour shame and power powerless are highlighted throughout the study

Reading Visual Poetry Willard Bohn,2010-12-09 Visual poetry can be defined as poetry that is meant to be seen Combining painting and poetry it attempts to synthesize the principles underlying each discipline Visual poems are immediately recognizable by their refusal to adhere to a rectilinear grid and by their tendency to flout their plasticity In contrast to traditional poetry they are conceived not only as literary works but also as works of art Although they continue to provide visual cues that aid in deciphering the text they function simultaneously as visual compositions Whether the visual elements form a rudimentary pattern or whether they constitute a highly sophisticated design they transform the poem into a picture Reading Visual Poetry examines works created in Spain Latin America France Italy Brazil and the United States While it attempts to recreate the historical and cultural context surrounding each of the works in question it is conceived primarily as a series of readings or rather as a series of readings about reading This book seeks to interpret a number of poems which despite their apparent simplicity can be difficult to decipher It explores the process of interpretation itself which like the compositions can be surprisingly complex

Reading Republican Oratory Christa Gray,Andrea Balbo,Richard Mark Arthur Marshall,C. E. W. Steel,2018 Public speech was a key aspect of politics in Republican Rome yet the partial nature of the available evidence means that our understanding of its workings is dominated by one man Cicero This volume explores the oratory of the Roman Republic as practiced by individuals other than Cicero focusing on the surviving fragments of such oratory
