fascinating medieval art such as the two earliest images of Joan of Arc and the Sachsenspiegel Inquiry-Based Lessons in World History Jana Kirchner, Andrew McMichael, 2021-09-03 Spanning the time period from 15 000 BCE to 1500 CE Inquiry Based Lessons in World History Vol 1 focuses on creating global connections between people and places using primary sources in standards based lessons With sections on early humans the ancient world classical antiquity and the world in transition this book provides teachers with inquiry based ready to use lessons that can be adapted to any classroom and that encourage students to take part in the learning process by reading and thinking like historians Each section contains chapters that correspond to the scope and sequence of most world history textbooks Each inquiry lesson begins with an essential question and connections to content and literacy standards followed by primary source excerpts or links to those sources Lessons include step by step directions incorporate a variety of literacy strategies and require students to make a hypothesis using evidence from the texts they have read Grades 7 10 Environmental Movements around the World Timothy Doyle, Sherilyn MacGregor, 2013-12-09 An unprecedented study of environmentalism environmental movements and efforts at greening across the globe written by culturally embedded scholars with both academic expertise and first hand experience with grassroots advocacy Protection of our planet its people and its natural resources has been a topic of numerous debates in many nations for the past 50 years Each hemisphere continent and country has environmental challenges unique to the region giving birth to green movements all over the world Until now very few resources have compiled the political scientific economic philosophical and religious viewpoints of these programs in one place This two volume work provides a comprehensive collection of the ideas and actions that inform environmentalism at local national and regional levels across the globe Environmental Movements around the World Shades of Green in Politics and Culture includes viewpoints from experts in the fields of political science history international relations environmental studies and sociology that enable readers to compare and contrast different cultures attitudes and solutions towards environmental issues Providing both a broad view of international efforts to protect the earth while also spotlighting very specific examples of environmentally motivated strategies the set explores the political strategies and cultural perspectives behind conservation and environmental activism in countries worldwide A World History of War Crimes Michael S. Bryant, 2015-12-17 A World History of War Crimes provides a truly global history of war crimes and the involvement of the legal systems faced with these acts Documenting the long historical arc traced by human efforts to limit warfare from codes of war in antiquity designed to maintain a religiously conceived cosmic order to the gradual use in the modern age of the criminal trial as a means of enforcing universal norms this book provides a comprehensive one volume account of war and the laws that have governed conflict since the dawn of world civilizations Throughout his narrative Michael Bryant locates the origin and evolution of the law of war in the interplay between different cultures While showing that no single philosophical idea underlay the law of war in world history this volume also proves that war in global civilization has rarely been an anarchic free for all Rather from its beginnings warfare has been subject to certain constraints defined by the unique needs and cosmological understandings of the cultures that produce them Only in late modernity has law assumed its current international humanitarian form The criminalization of war crimes in international courts today is only the most recent development of the ancient theme of constraining when and how war may be fought

Danes in Wessex Ryan Lavelle,Simon Roffey,2015-11-30 There have been many studies of the Scandinavians in Britain but this is the first collection of essays to be devoted solely to their engagement with Wessex New work on the early Middle Ages not least the excavations of mass graves associated with the Viking Age in Dorset and Oxford drew attention to the gaps in our understanding of the wider impact of Scandinavians in areas of Britain not traditionally associated with them Here a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary approach to the problems of their study is presented While there may not have been the same degree of impact discernible particularly in place names and archaeology as in those areas of Britain which had substantial influxes of Scandinavian settlers Wessex was a major theater of the Viking wars in the reigns of Alfred and thelred Unr d Two major topics the Viking wars and the Danish landowning elite figure strongly in this collection but are shown not to be the sole reasons for the presence of Danes or items associated with them in Wessex Multidisciplinary approaches evoke Vikings and Danes not just through the written record but through their impact on real and imaginary landscapes and via the objects they owned or produced The papers raise wider questions too such as when did aggressive Vikings morph into more acceptable Danes and what issues of identity were there for natives and incomers in a province whose founders were believed to have also come from North Sea areas if not from parts of Denmark itself Readers can continue for themselves aspects of these broader debates that will be stimulated by this fascinating and significant series of studies by both established scholars and new researchers
