Native American Stories of the Sacred , 2005 The wisdom from these stories can become a companion on your own spiritual journey Native American Stories of the Sacred are intended for more than entertainment they are teaching tales containing elegantly simple illustrations of time honored truths From tales of Creation to Why stories that help explain the natural world around us these stories highlight the sacredness of all life and affirm that we are each an integral part of all that is holy Drawn from tribes across North America these are careful retellings of traditional stories such as Son of Light's quest to win back his captured wife from the monstrous Man Eagle, humble Muskrat's noble self sacrifice to establish solid land so other beings might live, Water Spider's creative solution for retrieving fire for all the animals and White Buffalo Calf Woman's profound gift of the sacred pipe to the people. Each of the compelling stories in this collection illustrates principles that can guide you on your own spiritual quest. Now you can experience the wisdom of these teaching tales even if you have no previous knowledge of Native American traditions. SkyLight Illuminations provides insightful yet unobtrusive commentary that explains the cultural and spiritual significance of the seemingly mundane objects found in these stories: tobacco, gambling, even the exploits of mischievous tricksters such as Coyote and Weasel, while gracefully drawing comparisons to Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, and Hindu religious traditions among others. Whatever your spiritual heritage, these Native American stories of the sacred are sure to delight and inspire you with the sacredness of all Creation and remind you that the earth does not belong to us, we belong to the earth.

Selected Stories Ring Lardner, 1997-05-01 This collection brings together twenty-one of Lardner's best pieces, including the six Jack Keefe stories that comprise You Know Me Al, as well as such familiar favorites as Alibi, Ike, Some Like Them Cold, and Guillible's Travels. For more than seventy years, Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles, Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors, as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators.

South Asian American Stories of Self Tasneem Mandviwala, 2022-10-04 This book acknowledges and discusses the now politically infamous aspects of an American Muslim woman's life, such as Islamophobia and hijab, but it more importantly examines how women actually deal with these obstacles, intentionally shifting the lens to capture a more holistic, nuanced understanding of their human experiences. This text is based on a three-year long qualitative interdisciplinary cultural and developmental psychology and gender systems study. It uniquely organizes risks, protective factors, and coping mechanisms according to developmental life stages from teenage to adulthood. Results show how second-generation Muslim American women's identities develop during adolescence (11-18), emerging adulthood (19-29), and adulthood (30-39) within multiple socio-cultural contexts. Discussions regarding Muslim Americans often erroneously equate Muslim with Arab or Middle Eastern. By focusing on South Asian Muslim Americans, this work bluntly discusses the overlaps of South Asian culture with Islam, an important contribution to the field since the majority of immigrant Muslims in America are of South Asian descent. This study adds nuance and detail to American Muslim girls' and women's experiences while fighting misinformation and stereotypes. It is a significant contribution to anthropological, developmental psychology, and cultural psychology. The focus on a historically academically marginalized population is beneficial to students, researchers, and professionals in the field.
