Real City Downtown Los Angeles Insideout:

Land of Smoke and Mirrors Vincent Brook, 2013-01-22 Unlike the more forthrightly mythic origins of other urban centers think Rome via Romulus and Remus or Mexico City via the god Huitzilopochtli Los Angeles emerged from a smoke and mirrors process that is simultaneously literal and figurative real and imagined material and metaphorical physical and textual Through penetrating analysis and personal engagement Vincent Brook uncovers the many portraits of this ever enticing ever ambivalent and increasingly multicultural megalopolis Divided into sections that probe Los Angeles's checkered history and reflect on Hollywood's own self reflections the book shows how the city despite considerable remaining challenges is finally blowing away some of the smoke of its not always proud past and rhetorically adjusting its rear view mirrors Part I is a review of the city's history through the early 1900s focusing on the seminal 1884 novel Ramona and its immediate effect but also exploring its ongoing impact through interviews with present day Tongva Indians attendance at the 88th annual Ramona pageant and analysis of its feature film adaptations Brook deals with Hollywood as geographical site film production center and frame of mind in Part II He charts the events leading up to Hollywood's emergence as the world's movie capital and explores subsequent developments of the film industry from its golden age through the so called New Hollywood citing such self reflexive films as Sunset Blvd Singin in the Rain and The Truman Show Part III considers LA noir a subset of film noir that emerged alongside the classical noir cycle in the 1940s and 1950s and continues today The city's status as a privileged noir site is analyzed in relation to its history and through discussions of such key LA noir novels and films as Double Indemnity Chinatown and Crash In Part IV Brook examines multicultural Los Angeles Using media texts as signposts he maps the history and contemporary situation of the city's major ethno racial and other minority groups looking at such films as Mi Familia Latinos Boyz n the Hood African Americans Charlotte Sometimes Asians Falling Down Whites and The Kids Are All Right LGBT interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian      Common Ground Akemi Kikumura-Yano, Lane Ryo Hirabayashi, James A. Hirabayashi, 2005 In this collection of seventeen essays anthropologists art historians museum curators writers designers and historians provide case studies exploring collaboration with community oriented partners in order to document interpret and present their histories and experiences and provide a new understanding of what museums can and should be in the United States      Come the Morning Mark Jonathan Harris, 2005 This novel for young readers told by a thirteen year old boy is the story of a working class American family plunged into homelessness Published in 1989 to wide acclaim Come the Morning was one of the first novels for older children to treat the problem of homelessness realistically Fifteen years later with unemployment and poverty on the rise again and homeless families haunting the streets of all our major cities the book remains as sobering and timely as it was in the late 1980s Come the Morning tells the story of the Gibsons a working class family from El Paso Texas who are struggling to survive the desertion of their father When Constance Gibson receives a money order postmarked Los Angeles from her husband Clyde she and her oldest child thirteen year old Ben interpret it as an invitation to join Clyde in the city of dreams Once in Los Angeles the Gibsons encounter one ordeal after another eventually moving them out of a frightening welfare hotel and onto the menacing streets of skid row Throughout their harrowing struggle Ben clings desperately to the belief that they will find Clyde restore their family and rebuild their lives While Ben searches for his father his mother tries valiantly to find them food and shelter Stark and sparsely written this novel is a moving account of a young man forced to measure memory and love against reason and reality It is at once an illuminating look at the surreal lives of America's homeless and a tribute to the strength of faith and family The new edition of this prize winning novel is enriched with twenty striking photographs by Marissa Roth and a new afterword and commentary by the author      Readymades , 2003-02 This volume presents a new way of looking at aspects of American culture that are at once familiar increasingly rare Jeff Brouws has recorded the discarded icons of highway culture from abandoned drive in movie screens to the rusty pickup truck Essays by cultural critics compliment the images      Close to Home D. J. Waldie, 2004 A Siamese cat beneath a clothesline three women with linked arms standing on the front lawn a man drying his hands on a dish towel in front of the kitchen stove These scenes are part of Close to Home and the accompanying the Getty Museum exhibition held from October 12 2004 to January 16 2005 which celebrate snapshots found photographs by anonymous photographers that capture everyday life in all of its joy banality and mystery Taken between 1930 and the mid 1960s these photographs most of them in black and white create an unpretentious portrait of suburban American life by untrained photographers whose images can be unexpectedly lyrical and moving Complementing the photographs is an essay by noted Southern California writer D J Waldie The snapshot Waldie writes depending on who's doing the looking is horrifying hilarious pointless or suffused with yearning Waldie speculates on the meanings and implications of the snapshots in this book and of snapshots generally which he sees as expressions of the hunger for memory

Avila, Jr.,2013-02-26 My unstructured upbringing and cares to the wind attitude led to my frequent incarceration from childhood to adulthood it s a disturbing story which is primarily aimed at the adult reading audience who enjoy reading about reality situations and crime I have always been a reader and to a large extent that helped me become a self taught person Born on the banks of the Colorado River in Arizona and raised up in the Marcos De Niza barrio projects in South Phoenix I experienced the injustices of the cotton fields Maricopa County Juvenile Detention Home and Arizona State Industrial School at Fort Grant Arizona I wandered the desperate streets of Los Angeles and the forlorn railroad tracks alone like a lost person without a purpose in life I was locked up in the jails of Phoenix and Los Angeles before winding up in the California State penitentiary system Upon my release I struggled to stay out of the pen and took the jobs that society at large would never want to take Through numerous personal tragedies incarcerations and unfortunate circumstances I lost control of my life No one was ever able to change my destructive behavior The changes when they occurred came from within me when I could no longer cope with the situations I had cast my self into Looking back I can now see what I couldn t see during those hopeless time periods I was very fortunate to finally be able to leave that life behind me through relationships that believed in me and successfully worked and built myself a civil service work career from which I retired I now spend my days enjoying life s simple pleasures after all my previous tragic missteps My objective in life now is to become an accomplished writer American Book Publishing Record ,2001 Pun(k) Deconstruction jan jagodzinski,2018-12-07 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Pun k Deconstruction Experifigural Writings in Art Art Education jan jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years These essays chart the theory and practice of art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation identity politics consumerism postmodern architecture ecology phallogentrism of the artistic canon pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Punk Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education
