Regional Integration And The Asia Pacific:

Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Issues and Prospects OECD, The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre at the University of South Australia, 2005-04-28 This report published by the OECD's International Futures Programme in co-operation with the Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre in Australia aims to stimulate informed debate about the main integration issues facing the Asia Pacific region in the Regional Integration and the Asia-Pacific Bijit Bora, Christopher Charles Findlay, 1996 Regional Integration and the Asia Pacific distinguishes between two processes of economic integration with particular focus on co-ordinated policy initiatives to promote integration It also examines naturally linked economies

Regional Integration in the Asia-Pacific Asian Regional Exchange for New Alternatives, 1997 Transparency, Trade Costs, and Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Matthias Helble Ben Shepherd John S. Wilson, Awashima Forum, 1993

The Evolution of Regionalism in Asia Heribert Dieter, 2007-12-10 By combining the analysis of the three dimensions of integration this book enables readers to gain a broad understanding of the theory and practice of integration processes in Asia Fragmented Asia Ian G. Cook, Marcus A. Doel, Rex Li, 1996 Focuses on economic and political pressure for integration and disintegration in Pacific Asia Globalization and Regional Transformation in Pacific Asia Yue-man Yeung, 1999 Emerging Regional Integration in Asia Pacific, 1996 Cooperation Or Rivalry? Shoji Nishijima, 2021-11-28 This book examines two opposing interpretations of NAFTA's potential expansion into a Western Hemisphere Free Trade Association WHFTA one fearing the creation of a deliberately exclusionary Fortress America the other welcoming the prospect of substantial economic opportunities for Asia and the countries of the Pacific Rim Contributors evaluate the commercial financial cultural and political linkages between the Americas and the Pacific Rim assessing the magnitude of interests that might be affected by NAFTA or FTAA Authorities and experts in Japan and other Asian countries have expressed considerable fear that the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA and the proposed Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA will create a Fortress America that will deliberately exclude nations of the Pacific Rim Others argue that economic integration will provide substantial opportunity for Asia Pacific countries and thus contribute to the dynamism of the Pacific Century ahead This book explores the varying interpretations and looks at their implications for countries of the Pacific Rim Might NAFTA provoke the formation of an economic bloc in the Asia Pacific area Or will economic liberalization occur on a global and multilateral scale What are the political dimensions of these possible options and processes Examining the interconnections such policy alternatives may have for both the Pacific Rim and Latin America the contributors evaluate the commercial financial cultural and political linkages between the regions to assess the magnitude of interests that might be affected by NAFTA or FTAA Assessing the range of policy options available to countries involved they seek to make an original contribution to the debate about the formation and structure of the post Cold War world order Regional Integration and Economic Development N. Saavedra-Rivano, A. Hosono, B. Stallings, 2001-09-06 Regional integration seems to be thriving everywhere as the examples of the Association of South East Asian Nations ASEAN the North Atlantic Free Trade Area NAFTA and the Southern Common Market will illustrate More ambitious schemes such as Asian Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC and those for Western hemispheric integration are also underway How do these trends for integration relate to national development strategies The contributors to this volume provide new insights into these developments as well as assessing the prospects for further integration

The Index of Asia-Pacific Regional Integration Effort Victor Ye, 2016 The Asia Pacific region is not typically seen as one geographic or socio economic space Yet 58 regional economies occupying the space of 28 million square kilometers from Turkey in the West Russian Federation in the North French Polynesia in the East and New Zealand in the South belong to the Economic and Social Commission of Asia and the Pacific ESCAP This commission provides a forum for member states that promotes regional cooperation and collective action assisting countries in building and sustaining shared economic growth and social equity In 2013 ESCAP's members adopted the Bangkok Declaration to enhance efforts towards deeper regional economic integration Yet this document neither proposes a concrete modality or modalities of achieving deeper integration nor provides a sense of distance of individual countries to a perceived integrated Asia Pacific This paper aims to comprehensively quantify recent integration efforts of economies in the Asia Pacific region We provide an index of integration effort based on twelve metrics that measure the relative distance of a given economy to the region as an economic entity Generally we find that while the region has trended towards becoming integrated in general both the level of integration and integration effort are inconsistent among Asia Pacific economies We discuss potential applications and extensions of the index in developing our perspective of the region's economic and social dynamics

The Asia-Pacific Trade Agreement Joong-Wan Cho, Rajan Sudesh Ratna, 2016 International trade and investment have enabled many countries in the Asia Pacific region to boost economic growth and have lifted millions out of poverty As the Asia Pacific region continues to thrive economically trade and investment barriers are being dissolved and eliminated As countries begin to depend on each other more trade policy is gradually becoming a useful measure to achieve inclusive and sustainable development Trade and investment are linked to the environment and social issues hence their impacts are also multi dimensional It has now been recognized that sustainable production and consumption are essential for sustainable development Countries realize that they are not able to approach global and regional problems on their own and require cooperation both at the level of government and business As a result the region has been active in concluding regional cooperation frameworks which routinely are centered on trade and investment In the meantime business has forged regional integration through the formation of regional value chains and production networks while governments have paved the way for the expansion of such production networks through the formation of regional trade agreements and economic partnerships Thus the Asia Pacific Trade Agreement APTA which is the oldest preferential trade agreement in the region with a large consumer base can play an important role in filling this gap

Given a slow progress in the multilateral negotiations in the WTO especially when the members have started questioning the utility of the negotiations after 15 years and a lack of consensus on how to move forward the regional trade agreements can play a vital role Even if they pose a challenge to the multilateralism selected liberalisation of trade and economy in present time can become a building block for future multilateral negotiations One of the reasons for the surge in these preferential trade agreements is to make binding commitments on WTO plus and WTO beyond issues While there are many agreements that exist in Asia and the Pacific there is no such attempt to consolidate them in one umbrella framework Understanding the benefits of the consolidation one such initiative was started by ESCAP a few years back The RECI initiative for market integration could well be facilitated by APTA however it cannot deliver unless it transforms itself in a new generation agreement Regional integration and cooperation are also important to meet the 2030 agenda for sustainable development Instead of wasting resources in discussing a new institutional framework it would be more effective to use the existing framework and for the Asia Pacific economies the APTA provides an existing institutional platform The cases discussed in this book prepare a ground for the future and it is expected that all the stakeholders member States of ESCAP private sector as well as researchers would benefit from this publication on APTA South South Regional Integration and Sustainable Development

The New Regionalism in Asia and the Pacific Norman Dunbar Palmer,1991 Future of Regional Cooperation in Asia and the Pacific Bambang Susantono,Cyn-Young Park,2020-11-01 This book reviews progress with regional cooperation and integration in Asia and the Pacific and explores how it can be reshaped to achieve a more resilient sustainable and inclusive future Consisting of papers contributed by renowned scholars and Asian Development Bank staff the book covers four major areas public goods trade and investment financial cooperation and regional health cooperation The book emphasizes how the region can better leverage regional integration to realize its vast potential as well as overcome challenges such as the coronavirus disease COVID 19 pandemic European Integration and the Asia-Pacific Region

Comparative Analysis of Regionalism in Latin America and Asia-Pacific Ramiro Pizarro,United Nations. Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean. International Trade and Development Finance Division,1999 The growing participation of developing countries in multilateral trade liberalisation as well as the boom in free trade agreements that grant exclusive preferences to its members are both closely related to what has been called open regionalism This paper examines the differences and similarities among initiatives for regional economic co operation Trade Regionalism in the Asia-Pacific Sanchita Basu Das,Masahiro Kawai,2016-04-11 Asia has witnessed a proliferation of free trade agreements FTAs since the turn of the millennium The first regional agreement the ASEAN FTA was transformed into the ASEAN Economic Community at the end of 2015 In the meantime ASEAN forged five ASEAN 1 FTAs and began to negotiate a sixteen member Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP Agreement In parallel the U S led Trans Pacific Partnership TPP

supporting U S foreign policy of Pivot to Asia was broadly agreed in October 2015 The RCEP and the TPP are accompanied by other mega regional integration processes developing elsewhere in the world including the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership for the European Union and the United States and the Pacific Alliance among four Latin American member states Meanwhile APEC is also striving to meet its Bogor Goal targets and create a Free Trade Area of the Asia Pacific Each of these mega regionals aims to achieve greater trade and investment liberalization and facilitation and more harmonized trade and investment rules so that all member economies can participate in the global value chain of production Instead of undermining these regional exercises can be building blocks for a more liberal global trading system supported by the World Trade Organization This book ruminates on these regional agreements their economic and strategic rationales and challenges during negotiations and afterwards The book brings together eminent scholars and experts to deepen our understanding of the complex nature of the mega regional trade agreements and their implications It is useful both for the academic and research community and for policymakers who focus on trade and economic cooperation issues Regional Integration, Trade and Investment Expansion in the Asia Pacific Zhaoyong Zhang,2003
