Regulation School A Critical Introduction:

The Regulation School Robert Boyer, 1990 The Great Leveler Brett Christophers, 2016-01-04 Brett Christophers shows how laws help capitalism maintain a crucial balance between competition and monopoly When monopolistic forces dominate antitrust law discourages the growth of corporations and restores competitiveness When competition becomes dominant intellectual property law protects corporate assets and encourages investment The Japanese Economy and Economic Issues since 1945 Edward R. Beauchamp, 2021-10-14 First Published in 1999 The best scholarship on the development of contemporary Japan This collection presents well over 100 scholarly articles on modern Japanese society written by leading scholars in the field These selections have been drawn from the most distinguished scholarly journals as well as from journals that are less well known among specialists and the articles represent the best and most important scholarship on their particular topic An understanding of the present through the lens of the past The field of modern Japan studies has grown steadily as Westerners have recognized the importance of Japan as a leading world economic force and an emerging regional power The post 1945 economic success of the Japanese has however been achieved in the context of that nation's history social structure educational enterprise and political environment It is impossible to understand the postwar economic miracle without an appreciation of these elements Japan's economic emergence has brought about and in some cases exacerbated already existing tensions and these tensions have in turn had a significant impact on Japanese economic life The series is designed to give readers a basic understanding of modern Japan its institutions and its people as we stand on the threshold of a new century often referred to as the Pacific Century Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense Economic Thought Since Keynes Michel Beaud, Gilles Dostaler, 2005-09-27 Economic Thought Since Keynes provides a concise overview of changing economic thought in the latter part of the twentieth century Offering a concise biography of 150 influential economists since Keynes it is an invaluable reference tool Framing and Managing Lean Organizations in the New Economy Darina Lepadatu, Thomas Janoski, 2020-02-18 This book examines the dominance and significance of lean organizing in the international economy Scholars from each discipline see lean production as positive or negative the book blends theory with practice by sorting out these different academic views and revealing how lean is implemented in different ways The first part synthesizes academic research from a range of disciplines including engineering sociology and management to present the reader with an integrated understanding of the benefits and drawbacks of lean management The second part links this theory to practice with a set of case studies from companies like Apple Google Nike Toyota and Walmart that demonstrate how lean is implemented in a variety of settings The book concludes with three models explaining how Toyotism Nikefication with offshoring and Waltonism provide full or less complete models of lean production It clearly presents the positive and negative aspects of lean and insights into the culture of lean organizations With its rich interdisciplinary approach Framing and Managing Lean Organizations in the New Economy will benefit researchers and students across a range of classes from management sociology and public policy to engineering

From Columbus to ConAgra Alessandro Bonanno,1994 This examination of the role of agriculture and food in the new international division of labor argues that the globalized economy creates new winners and losers

Labor and Capital in the Age of Globalization Berch Berberoglu,2002 This book offers a timely analysis of work and labor processes and how they are rapidly changing under globalization The contributors explore traditional sectors of the U S and world economies from auto to steel to agriculture as well as work under new production arrangements such as third world export processing zones Many chapters analyze changing dynamics of gender nationality and class The contributors explain why more intensified forms of control by the state and by capital interests are emerging under globalization Yet they also emphasize new possibilities for labor including new forms of organizing and power sharing in a rapidly changing economy

The American Economic Review ,1991 Proceedings of the ... Conference New Zealand Geographical Society. Conference,1995

Development Jan Karel Coetzee,2001 Increasingly development requires a new approach For a long time it has focused on broad societal structures neglecting the capacity creativity and insight of individuals on the ground This volume aims to change that by taking into account particular histories and individual actors without forgetting the broad structures in which they live and work

Border Partial Citizenship, Border Towns, and Thai-Myanmar Cross-border Deveopment Pitch Pongsawat,2007

The Politics of Method in the Human Sciences George Steinmetz,2005 Offers a comparative assessment of the variations of positivism alternative epistemologies in the contemporary human sciences Often declared obsolete positivism is alive well in a number of fields while in others its influence is significantly diminished

Continental Trading Blocs Richard Gibb,Wieslaw Michalak,1994 Regional specialists systematically examine the topic of economic regionalism along with its wider theoretical and empirical perspectives Analyzes some of the arguments and issues surrounding trading bloc formation particularly whether regionalism is a result of or a response to a major change in the nature of contemporary capitalism Explores the character structure and components of existing trading bloc arrangements Reviews the prospects and potential for NAFTA and concludes by gathering together the many conflicting trends evident in the regionalism versus multilateralism debate

Management & Change ,2000

Recognition in Politics Julie Connolly,Michael Leach,Lucas Walsh,2007 The concept of recognition and its relationship to the way we theorise identity and justice has emerged as part of an important debate in contemporary political and social theory With contributions from Nancy Fraser and international commentators this new collection examines key theoretical and practical problems of recognition TM in politics Beyond important normative issues in social theory such as how cultural claims to difference may be justly accommodated in liberal polities it addresses a range of practical problems in which a politics of recognition approach casts new light on old conflicts and tensions examining these problems within the context of processes of globalisation and increasing cultural diversity Organised into three sections Recognition in Politics Theory Policy and Practice analyses new theoretical directions the challenges of managing multicultural societies and social policy case studies Featuring a recent paper by Professor Nancy Fraser based on her 2004 Spinoza Lecture this collection examines core issues in contemporary debates over recognition extending these debates in new and significant ways The contributors extend the literature on recognition by applying the theory to practical contemporary political problems These papers reveal the capacity of the recognition paradigm to generate new insights into political problems but also the limitations of the concept TM s theoretical purview Together these commentaries offer an invaluable road map to the most recent scholarship on recognition
