Miller,2023-04-28 During the past thirty years the American religious landscape has undergone a dramatic change More and more churches meet in converted warehouses many have ministers who ve never attended a seminary and congregations are singing songs whose melodies might be heard in bars or nightclubs Donald E Miller s provocative examination of these new paradigm churches sometimes called megachurches or postdenominational churches shows how they are reinventing the way Christianity is experienced in the United States today Drawing on over five years of research and hundreds of interviews Miller explores three of the movements that have created new paradigm churches Calvary Chapel Vineyard Christian Fellowship and Hope Chapel Together these groups have over one thousand congregations and are growing rapidly attracting large numbers of worshipers who have felt alienated from institutional religion While attempting to reconnect with first century Christianity these churches meet in nonreligious structures and use the medium of contemporary twentieth century America to spread their message through contemporary forms of worship Christian rock music and a variety of support and interest groups In the first book to examine postdenominational churches in depth Miller argues that these churches are involved in a second Reformation one that challenges the bureaucracy and rigidity of mainstream Christianity The religion of the new millennium says Miller will connect people to the sacred by reinventing traditional worship and redefining the institutional forms associated with denominational Christian churches Nothing less than a transformation of religion in the United States may be taking place and Miller convincingly demonstrates how postmodern traditionalists are at the forefront of this change This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 During the past thirty years the American religious landscape has undergone a dramatic change More and more churches meet in converted warehouses many have ministers who ve never attended a seminary and congregations are singing songs whose melodies mi

Christianity and the Culture of Relativism in the Anthropologies of Joseph Ratzinger and Stanley Hauerwas Charles Ssenynyondo STL STD, 2012-12-17 Joseph Ratzinger rates relativism as the greatest challenge of the Church today What he describes is not a new phenomenon but his theology highlights its origins and magnitude Stanley Hauerwas fights the same battle on the Protestant side This book attempts to discover and streamline their deliberations showing their meeting points and where they differ and remedies they offer to combat the crisis It seeks to argue out the best response to relativism that can most appropriately benefit both Western and African Christendom Despite being a Western phenomenon relativism is no longer an exclusively Western problem It is rather imposing itself as the new world culture depicting all other cultures and perspectives as inferior Ratzinger christened this the Dictatorship of Relativism while Hauerwas calls it Policing of Christian Values While Ratzingers greatest worry is relativisms denial of Truth mostly from outside the ekklesia for Hauerwas relativism is not a force from without of the Church but part and parcel of the peoples modern ways of life in which Christian values are persecuted in the name of peaceful existence Both perspectives point at a crisis of cultures where the past is rejected and the future disconnected from the present which trend inevitably leads to disintegration a leap into the dark While the pre Modern world sought God the Modern world sought knowledge The contemporary world seeks relativism But all is not lost The truth can still be found through the word of God and Christian culture Re-Enchanting Christianity Dave Tomlinson,2008 Dave Tomlinson is author of The Post Evangelical a seminal book which acknowledged the disenchantment with simplistic approaches to faith experienced by many evangelicals Many locked into interpretations of Christianity that they can no longer accept have given up on the Church altogether But is re enchantment possible in our post modern post Christian age Re enchantment is not a return to credulity or an attempt to recapture lost innocence but it is finding a realistic faith that reconciles heart and head that offers a positive engaging spirituality that is unafraid of grappling honestly with difficult questions Kwame Bediako and African Christian Scholarship Sara J. Fretheim,2018-04-17 In a departure from current theologically focused scholarship on Ghanaian theologian Kwame Bediako this book places him within the wider historical continuum of twentieth century Ghana and reads him as a leading Christian scholar within the African study of African religions The book traces a variety of influences and figures within this emerging African discourse in Ghana including aspects of missions and colonial history and the voices of poets politicians prophets and priests Locating Bediako within this complex twentieth century matrix this intellectual history draws upon his published and key unpublished works including his first masters and doctoral dissertations on N gritude literature an abiding influence on his later Christian thought and an essential foundation for interpreting this scholar This book also reads the Akrofi Christaller Institute of Theology Mission and Culture as text by Bediako revealing essential components of his intellectual and spiritual itinerary revealed in the Institute s community and curriculum This approach challenges narrowly focused theological scholarship on Bediako while highlighting critical methodological divisions between African Western confessional and non confessional approaches to the study of religion in Africa In doing so it highlights the rich complexity of this emerging African discourse and identifies Bediako as a pioneering African Christian intellectual within this wider field The Doctrine of God Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2004-08 A global survey of interpretations of God in Scripture Christian history and contemporary theology with a focus on key God talk issues of the day Conflict and the Practice of the Christian Faith Bruce N Kaye,2011-07-28 Anglicans around the world have responded to the gospel in many different cultural contexts This has produced different customs and different ways of thinking about church issues In the process of enculturation Anglicans have found themselves encountering social and political realities as malign forces against which they have had to struggle As a consequence the personal and local dynamic in Anglicanism has created not just diversity of custom and mental habits but it has done so at points that have been vital to the way Anglicans have been committed to the gospel. Conflict and the Practice of Christian Faith looks at the process by which local traditions developed in Christianity and how these traditions have related to other sub traditions of the universal church. It assesses some specifics of the Anglican experience and argues for a significant re-casting of some prominent elements of that tradition at the same time clarifying some of the distinctive elements in the Anglican tradition. This leads to a more nuanced appreciation of the force of the social and political framework within which Anglicans have had to work out their salvation and of the different forms of secular society and different understandings of plurality and diversity. It also entails showing how the imperial route to catholicity took no firm root in Anglicanism. Going global has been a significant experiment in Anglican ecclesiology that is by no means over yet. The terms of that experiment lie at the heart of the current Anglican debates. The book will be of interest to Christians generally who belong to faith traditions spread across different cultures. It is also a case study of the issues of global reach and local tradition.

Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2020-02-21 There is a growing interest today in the context and history of Christian spirituality. In this book a team of expert authors from the East and West present a full and fascinating picture of humanity's desire for the divine across the centuries. Highlighting the contribution of significant figures through history, authors explore the ways in which Christians from the earliest times onwards have sought to express and live out the deepest truth of their faith. The Bible and the life of Jesus Christ are the starting point for the story. The reader is then guided through the development of spirituality, starting an exploration of the significance of the early church fathers and culminating in a survey of the explosion of expressions of Christian divinity across the world in the twentieth century. Interspersed with boxed features that provide more detail on key individuals and groups and timelines that put events into their chronological contexts, Christian Spirituality is an ideal overview for scholars and interested readers alike.

Jesus Christ as Ancestor Reuben Turbi Luka, 2019-08-31 In this critical study Dr Turbi Luka uses historical theological methodology to engage in detail with Christologies of key African theologians and conventional theological sources for Christology including the church fathers Tertullian and Athanasius as well as modern theologians Turbi argues that existing African Christologies specifically ancestor Christologies are inadequate in expressing the person of Christ as Messiah and saviour the fulfilment of Old Testament prophecies Providing a new approach Turbi proposes an African Linguistic Affinity Christology that explicitly portrays Jesus as Christ in a contextually relevant way for Africans in everyday life This crucial study highlights the need for biblically rooted Christology and for sound theological understanding and naming of Jesus at every level This book also warns the church in Africa and elsewhere to avoid repeating the dangerous christological heresies of the ancient church by remaining faithful to a biblical interpretation and orthodox theology of Christ

Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant,2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos

Woodard,2023-06-27 This is what God requires of you do justice love your neighbor submit to the government These Biblical texts and many others have become widely used by the modern social justice movement to advance a woke political agenda Words have been redefined by evangelical leaders in the broader movement known as Big Eva in order to advance a global political conspiracy known as The Great Reset This book addresses the connection between woke evangelicalism and the World Economic Forum s Great Reset while explaining several of the passages of Scripture that have been redefined to support this conspiracy
