The Alphorn through the Eyes of the Classical Composer Frances Jones,2021-04-06 The Alphorn through the Eyes of the Classical Composer is the first and definitive book to be written about the alphorn in English It has been written with English speaking readers in mind as it examines the extensive interest of primarily non Swiss composers writers and artists in the alphorn as a symbol of the Alps the influence and significance of the alphorn in culture literature and the arts across the globe and the ways in which the instrument has been specifically utilised by the Swiss as the iconic representation of their country This book also explores the use of the musical language of the alphorn call to ascertain why and how such references as those of Berlioz or Beethoven can convey so much meaning Dr Jones seeks out what it is that a composer brings into the concert hall the theatre the opera house the church or the drawing room by such a quotation to what heritage they are referring and upon what basis there are grounds for an assumption that such a reference will be understood by an audience

The book which will be of interest to researchers in Swiss cultural studies and ethnomusicology builds on Dr Jones's research and PhD thesis. The six chapters deal with a variety of topics including a basic introduction to the alphorn and an exploration of the promotion of the instrument as the symbol of Switzerland as well as the reasons behind symbolic references to alphorn motifs by European and British composers in concert repertoire, jazz and film.

Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16

One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America. A groundbreaking anthology, Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work. It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making. Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A. Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric. The journey through this anthology, which includes selections from Jarena Lee, Frederick Douglass, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King Jr, Gardner C. Taylor, Vashti McKenzie and many others, offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history. The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements. Sermons from the first decade of the twenty-first century point toward the future of African American preaching. Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods. The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths, ancestries and educational backgrounds. They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor, rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations. What they all have in common is hope, resilience and sacred fire. Even during the most difficult and oppressive times, Simmons and Thomas write in the preface, the delivery, creativity, charisma, expressivity, fervor, forcefulness, passion, persuasiveness, poise, power, rhetoric, spirit, style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege. This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity, spiritual richness and strength of African American life.
