

salvation (11:33–36). Especially in chapters 2–15 the letter gives many specific applications to life, showing how the gospel works out in practice both in the church and in the world. Finally, we can even learn to imitate Paul's deeply personal care for many individual believers (ch. 16).

Christ Revealed. The whole epistle is the story of God's plan of redemption in Christ: the need for it (1:18–3:20), the detailed description of Christ's work and its implications for Christians (3:1–11:36), and the application of the gospel of Christ to everyday life (12:1–16:27).

More specifically, Jesus Christ is our Savior, who obeyed God perfectly as our representative (5:18, 19), and who died as our substitute sacrifice (3:25; 5:6, 8). He is the One in whom we must have faith for salvation (1:16, 17; 3:22; 10:9, 10). Through Christ we have many blessings: reconciliation to God (5:11); righteousness and eternal life (5:18–21); identification with Him in His death, burial, and resurrection (6:3–5); being alive to God (6:11); freedoms from condemnation (8:1); eternal inheritance (8:17); suffering with Him (8:17); being glorified with Him (8:17); being made like Him (8:29); and the fact that He even now prays for us (8:34). Indeed, all of the Christian life seems to be lived through Him: prayer (1:8), rejoicing (5:11), exhortation (15:30), glorifying God (16:27), and, in general, living to God and obeying Him (6:11; 13:14).

The Holy Spirit at Work. The Holy Spirit gives power in preaching the gospel and in working miracles (15:19), dwells in all who belong to Christ (8:9–11), and gives us life (8:11). He also makes us progressively more holy in daily life, empowering us to obey God and overcome sin (2:29; 7:6; 8:2, 13; 15:13, 16), giving us a pattern of holiness to follow (8:4), guiding us in it (8:14), and purifying our consciences to bear true witness (9:1). The Holy Spirit pours God's love into our hearts (5:5; 15:30), along with joy, peace, and hope by His power (14:17; 15:13). He enables us to pray rightly (8:26) and to call God our Father, thereby giving inward spiritual assurance that we are God's children (8:16). We are to set our minds on the things of the Spirit if we wish to be pleasing to God (8:5, 6). Though Paul discusses spiritual gifts briefly in Romans (12:3–8), he makes no explicit mention of the Holy Spirit in connection with these gifts, except to refer to them as "spiritual" (or "of the Spirit") in 1:11. The present work of the Holy Spirit in us is only a foretaste of His future heavenly work in us (8:23).

Knowing the Scriptures Arthur T. Pierson, 1910 A Day Apart: How Jews, Christians, and Muslims Find Faith, Freedom, and Joy on the Sabbath Christopher D. Ringwald, 2007 The Sabbath is the original feast day a day of joy and freedom from work a holy day that allows us to reconnect with God our fellows and nature Now in a compelling blend of journalism scholarship and personal memoir Christopher D Ringwald examines the Sabbath from Creation to the present weaving together the stories of three families three religions and three thousand years of history A Day Apart is the first book to examine the Sabbath in Judaism Christianity and Islam A marvelously readable book it offers a fascinating portrait of the basics of the three Sabbaths the Muslim Juma on Friday the Jewish Shabbat on Saturday and the Christian Lord's Day on Sunday and introduces us to three families including Ringwald's own and shows how they observe the holy day and what it means to them The heart of the book recounts the history of the Sabbath ranging from the Creation story and Moses on Mount Sinai to the teachings of Jesus and Muhammad the impact of the Protestant Reformation and the Industrial Revolution and the rise of the modern weekend Ringwald shows that the Sabbath instinct to observe a special day of withdrawal and repose is universal Indeed all religions and philosophies teach that life is more than toil that time should be set aside for contemplation enjoyment and culture In today's frantic 24/7 world the Sabbath a day devoted to rest and contemplation has never been more necessary A Day Apart offers a portrait of a truly timeless way to escape the everyday world and add meaning to our lives The Reformation, Catholicism, and Freedom James William Poynter, 1930 Teachings and

Studies by Topic of the New Testament Miguel Moreno, 2023-01-05 When I first became a Christian and for the first twenty two years of my life with Christ I didn't know that I didn't know that I wasn't a mature Christian I was not taught how to and what it took to grow spiritually and become a spiritually mature Christian But even so I still thought that I was a mature Christian After all in all those years I had come to know and learned a lot of things about the Bible God's Word and about God I even served Him What I didn't know was that my growth was merely intellectual but not spiritual It wasn't until after twenty two years that God in His love through His Word and with the help of His Holy Spirit taught me what it really took for me to grow spiritually He taught me the things I needed to go through in order to understand what it takes to become a spiritual mature Christian as well as a true servant of God Now He is using me to share His studies in this book so He can help many Christians understand the importance and what it takes to start growing spiritually not just intellectually from the moment they believe and receive Jesus as their Savior and Lord as well as the dangers of becoming stagnant or allowing the enemy to take them to a state of conformism in their own spiritual growth According to Ephesians 4:13-15 God wants us to get all the way to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ that we all may grow up in all things into Him who is the head Christ So I pray that as you read and study this book with the help of the Holy Spirit and God's Word

God will show you and help you understand what it takes for you to grow spiritually until you become spiritually mature and until you get to the fullness of Christ so you can become everything that He wants you to become

The Church Standard, 1906 From Legalism to Freedom Dallas R. Burdette, 2008-08 In 1517 Martin Luther took a stand for justification by faith alone in the finished work of Christ upon Calvary As a result of his position he suffered persecution for adhering to the Scriptures alone and not to traditions This book traces my spiritual journey from legalism to freedom in Christ In sixteen chapters I map out my heritage within the Churches of Christ and the motivations that eventually led me out of bondage to liberty One of the lengthiest chapters in this book is Where the Scriptures Speak One objective of this chapter is to help individuals to understand that one may speak where the Bible speaks and not necessarily speak as the Bible speaks Chapters 11 12 and 13 represent the very heart of my escape from authoritarianism to my dependence upon God's righteousness a righteousness from God through faith in Jesus Chapter 14 focuses on preaching in the early church Without an understanding of the Gospel that the apostles proclaimed Christians will never learn the spirit of toleration for differences within the Christian community

Chapters 8 15 and 16 give attention to the Last Supper The communion should be a constant reminder of the Cross and true unity among God s children Chapter 1 2 and 3 outline my original journey of faith Dallas Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God s people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary Public Opinion ,1921
