Holberg: A European Writer, 2023-12-18 Ludvig Holberg is the most important man of letters in eighteenth century Denmark Norway and is often referred to as the father of Danish and Norwegian Literature the Molière of the North the founder of Scandinavian drama or even as the first Scandinavian feminist In all his writings apart from being a dramatist in his own right he excelled as a satirist historian and essayist Holberg is a true child of the Enlightenment advocating tolerance and moderation At the same time however he transgressed its parameters He introduced a series of classical genres but also violated their rules he generally supported absolute monarchy but criticized its deficiencies sometimes with subtlety sometimes openly and relentlessly when for instance aiming his satire at the outdated educational system Above all Holberg was a towering cosmopolitan figure in eighteenth century intellectual life extremely well read not only in the classics but also in contemporary literature Furthermore he was one of the most avid travelers of his time He saw himself foremost as a European writer attacking provincialism and narrow mindedness wherever he encountered it Holberg was strongly influenced by the European intellectual tradition and in return also impacted literary trends abroad This volume written by experts from various countries attempts to place Holberg in this international context It highlights both the European influence on him and the influence he exerted in his own time as well as the fascination he holds to this very day because of his probing critical mind complex personality and above all because of the purely artistic quality and modernity found particularly in his immortal comedies Engelsk-dansk ordbog Jens Axelsen, 2003 Bogmarkedet, 1998 is our publishing house s first travel stories collection We consider this project very special since we embarked on this project during the pandemic when borders were still closed and travelling was highly restricted It is during this time that many of us started recollecting our travel stories talking about trips that we had undertaken just a few years before as if it was a distant memory we dearly wanted to hold on to That is how we conceptualised this book We had an open call one author contacted another author an ardent traveller or a blogger and within a year we had over fifteen authors penning down their travel memories and exceptional experiences for this book This book attempts to give a sense of the wealth of these solo family or group journeys It is rich with anecdotes from sea voyages hiking and biking trips fishing and safari trips a getaway in a resort during the pandemic a trip to the North Pole and the South Pole and many more unique tales of wondering and wandering We have tried to group these geographically The range of writeups that we received surprised us If one story dealt with painting on a cruise ship to Antarctica then another talked about fishing in Alaska or restoring the dead in Indonesia an artist spoke about his experience of painting Graffiti on a wall bordering Mexico and a travelling spouse spoke about her memories of visiting Nelson Mandela s prison in South Africa from a metaphysical journey in the Amazon to trekking expeditions to Armenia from Cinque Terre in Italy to a waterfalls in Argentina from exploring ancient forts of India to following Napoleon Bonaparte s route across Europe on a bike Every story is unique and it is precisely this nostalgic and spectacular travel tale we have tried to curate and collect in this book We wish you an exciting journey ahead Ship Ahoy
