South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies

Telltale Carmel Bird, 2022-07-01 I was confined locked into my library tracing my heartbeats from way way back In Telltale Carmel Bird seizes on an enforced isolation to re read a rich dispensary of books from her past A rule she sets herself is that she can consult only the books in her house even if some such as the much loved Thornton Wilder's The Bridge of San Luis Rey appear to be stubbornly elusive Her library is comprehensive and each book chosen or that cannot be refused enables an opening a connection to people time place myth image and the experience of a writing life From her father's bomb shelter to her mother's raspberry jam from a lost Georgian public library with narrow little streets of books to the memory of crossing by bridge the turbulent waters of the Tamar River to a revelatory picnic at Tasmania's Cataract

Gorge in 1945 this is the most intimate of memoirs It is one that never shies from the horrors of world history the treatment of First Nations People or the literary misrepresentations of the past Original lyrical and hugely enjoyable Telltale with its finely wrought insight and artful storytelling is destined to delight A book about books that dreams you through a library of life Bruce Pascoe I have so loved this book It walks us through the encounters of a lifetime always with a delightful eye for strange connections and elusive memories It is testimony to a life of great intellectual generosity and human compassion It is irresistible Michael McGirr Writing Woman, Writing Place Sue Kossew,2004-06 This book analyses the ways in which contemporary women writers in the two settler colonies of Australia and South Africa explore notions of self identity and place in their fiction Excel Preliminary English David Mahony,2003 The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby,2000-08-21 This book introduces in a lively and succinct way the major writers literary movements styles and genres that at the beginning of a new century are seen as constituting the field of Australian literature The book consciously takes a perspective that sees literary works not as aesthetic objects created in isolation by unique individuals but as cultural products influenced and constrained by the social political and economic circumstances of their times as well as by geographical and environmental factors It covers indigenous texts colonial writing and reading poetry fiction and theatre throughout two centuries biography and autobiography and literary criticism in Australia Other features of the companion are a chronology listing significant historical and literary events and suggestions for further reading
