Religion And Ethnicity Minorities And Social Change In The Metropolis:

Religion and Ethnicity R. Barot,1992-12-01 Ethnicity, Gender and Social Change Harriet Bradley,Steve Fenton,1999-02-08 Ethnicity Gender and Social Change explores the social space occupied by both gender and ethnicity As recognition of the sociological importance of gender and ethnicity has grown so has the opportunity for exploring the intersections between them This volume brings together both theoretical reflections and new research in this key area For the sociologist this presents a conceptual challenge while for the individual it may present a series of dilemmas These are intriguingly traced out in studies which take us from Punjabi families in the UK to Surinamese migrants in Amsterdam to Hindu and Muslim women and Black nurses in Britain the African and Asian diasporas and gender identity in post Soviet Latvia Religion in Higher Education Sophie Gilliat-Ray,2019-07-16 This title was first published in 2000 The place of religion in universities and institutes of higher education has become increasingly topical and contested in recent years largely due to the growth of religious diversity on campus Issues such as shared worship spaces equal opportunities and the management of inter religious conflict concern university administrators and students alike Based on primary empirical research this book indicates the need for clear guidelines on these issues and provides the data to inform policy making Offering the first study of the practical and sociological implications of the multi faith campus this book provides a context for examining some of the dynamics of religious diversity in Britain more generally as well as providing a useful analysis for the wider international context Key themes covered include religion in institutions inter faith relations the changing roles of religious professionals secularisation and resacralisation and religion youth and identity Multiculturalism and Minority Religions in Britain Malory Nye,2012-12-06 A detailed case study of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON in Britain The book studies the particular development of a new religious movement within the context of Britain and issues relating to minority religions place within a multicultural but still hegemonically Christian society Theorising Religion John Walliss,2017-10-24 Religion is controversial and challenging Whilst religious forces are powerful in numerous societies they have little or no significance for wide swaths of public or private life in other places The task of theoretical work in the sociology of religion is therefore to make sense of this apparently paradoxical situation in which religion is simultaneously significant and insignificant The chapters of Part One consider the classical roots of ideas about religion that dominated sociological ways of thinking about it for most of the twentieth century Each chapter offers sound reasons for continuing to find theoretical inspiration and challenge in the sociological classics whilst also seeking ways of enhancing and extending their relevance to religion today Part Two contains chapters that open up fresh perspectives on aspects of modern post modern and ultra modern religion without necessarily ignoring the classical legacy The chapters of Part Three chart new directions for the sociological analysis of religion by fundamentally re thinking its theoretical basis by extending its disciplinary boundaries and by examining previously overlooked topics War and Ethnicity David

Theology and the Religions Viggo Mortensen, 2003 The academic study of religion is undergoing great changes in response to globalization Just as sociologists now find it necessary to think in terms of multiculturalism so religion scholars and theologians today must work in the context of multireligiosity Globalization is leading not only to multiethnic societies but also to plurality in religions and worldviews Theology and the Religions A Dialogue offers the first sustained analysis of the trend toward multireligiosity and its implications for the study of religion Drawing on the resources of cultural analysis religious studies and theology an international slate of scholars explores the relation of multiculturalism and multireligiosity the need for interreligious dialogue and the possibilities for a theology of religions This groundbreaking work is supported by case studies of various religious traditions in diverse cultures from around the world Special attention is paid to Christian theological reflection however since as a global religion Christianity is particularly challenged by multireligiosity Offering an engaging wide angle view of religion worldwide Theology and the Religions makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the forces shaping the future of religious and social life Contributors Kajsa Ahlstrand Theodor Ahrens Jan Martin Berentsen Ulrich Dehn Helene Egnell Marianne C Qvortrup Fibiger Patrik Friedlund Virginia Garrard Burnett Geomon K George Elisabeth Gerle Friedrich Wilhelm Graf Hans Hauge Ulf Hedetoft S Mark Heim Chris Hewer Klaus Hock Michael Ipgrave Andrew J Kirk Lene K hle Volker K ster Aasulv Lande Oddbjorn Leirvik Ole Skjerk b Madsen Hiromasa Mase Mogens S Mogensen Viggo Mortensen Johannes Nissen Klaus N rnberger Caleb Oladipo Tinu Ruparell Risto Saarinen Lamin Sanneh Olaf Schumann Notto R Thelle Joachim Track V tor Westhelle H S Wilson

The Challenge of Religious Discrimination at the Dawn of the New Millennium Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, 2013-11-11 The themes and issues explored in this book religion human rights politics and society could not be more relevant to the post 11 September 2001 world They lie at the heart of global political debate today The collection explores these issues after the passing of just over two decades from the adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of all Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination based on Religion or Belief That declaration set out minimum international standards for the elimination of such discrimination Sadly the challenge of intolerance on the basis of religion or belief continues to plague us and tackling it seems to have become increasingly entrenched The complexity of this phenomenon requires expertise from different quarters This collection draws from diplomatic activist and theological quarters and benefits from the analysis of scholars of law history religious studies and sociology The ten chapters of this collection examine the relationship between human rights law and religion offer a typology for the study of religious persecution problematise the consequences flowing from religious establishment in religiously plural society analyse the implications of the directions being taken by the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the protections offered by the European Commission council Directive 2000 43 EC outlawing workplace discrimination study the 1981 Declaration and its promotion through the work of the UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief and explore the intricacies of this freedom in detail from within the context of the United Kingdom and The Netherlands Theorizing Faith Arweck, Martin D. Stringer, 2002-05-31 All but the final paper in this collection of nine essays was read at a June 1999 conference of the same title as the book held at the U of Birmingham UK The conference was organized by the Worship in Birmingham Project bringing together established scholars and research students to discuss the South Asians in the Diaspora Knut A. Jacobsen, Pratap Kumar, 2018-08-14 This volume deals with a phenomenon of increasing global significance the South Asian diaspora In particular it deals with the role of religion The diversity of religious life in South Asia is remarkable and much of this diversity is replicated in the diaspora communities around the world The case studies in this book explore and analyse the social religious and cultural reality of people in the diaspora belonging to Jainism Buddhism Hinduism Christianity Islam Sikhism and Zoroastrianism and originating from four of the South Asian nation states India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The book highlights the religious diversity that exists in the diaspora communities both across the traditions and within the particular religions Research in Religious Education Leslie J. Francis, William K. Kay, William S. Campbell, 1996 The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background Authority and Meaning in Indian Religions Julia Leslie, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 Can a text be used either to validate or to invalidate contemporary understandings Texts may be deemed sacred but sacred to whom Do conflicting understandings matter Is it appropriate to try to offer a resolution For Hindus and non Hindus in India and beyond Valmiki is the poet saint who composed the epic R m ya a Yet for a vocal community of dalits once called untouchables within and outside India Valmiki is God How then does one explain the popular story that he started out as an ignorant and violent bandit attacking and killing travellers for material gain And what happens when these two accounts Valmiki as God and Valmiki as villain are held simultaneously by two different religious groups both contemporary and both vocal This situation came to a head with controversial demonstrations by the Valmiki community in Britain in 2000 giving rise to some searching questions which Julia Leslie now seeks to address International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink, George W. Noblit, 2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic

What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

Human Rights in Pakistan Sudhir Kumar Singh, 2007 Provides an analytical and incisive account of various developments in Pakistani politics right from the declaration of Ahmadis as non Muslim and Pakistan as an Islamic state by Bhutto to the lease of life

Negotiating Boundaries in the City Joanna Herbert, 2016-04-22 Using in depth life story interviews and oral history archives this book explores the impact of South Asian migration from the 1950s onwards on both the local white British born population and the migrants themselves Taking Leicester as a main case study identified as a European model of multicultural success Negotiating Boundaries in the City offers a historically grounded analysis of the human experiences of migration Joanna Herbert shows how migration created challenges for both existing residents and newcomers for both male and female migrants and explores how they perceived and negotiated boundaries within the local contexts of their everyday lives She explores the personal and collective narratives of individuals who might not otherwise appear in the historical records highlighting the importance of subjective everyday experiences The stories provide valuable insights into the nature of white ethnicity inter ethnic relations and the gendered nature of experiences and offer rich data lacking in existing theoretical accounts This book provides a radically different story about multicultural Britain and reveals the nuances of modern urban experiences which are lost in prevailing discourses of multiculturalism

Rethinking Religious Education and Plurality Robert Jackson, 2004 This text offers a critical view of approaches to the treatment of different religions in contemporary education in order to devise approaches to teaching and learning and to formulate policies and procedures that are fair and just to all

Muslims in Britain Peter Hopkins, 2009-03-31 Following the events of 11th September 2001 in the USA and more especially the bombings on the London underground on 7th July 2005 and the incident at Glasgow Airport on 30th June 2007 an increasing amount of public attention has been focused upon Muslims in Britain Against the backdrop of this debate this book sets out a series of innovative insights into the everyday lives of Muslims living in contemporary Britain in an attempt to move beyond prevalent stereotypes concerning what it means to be Muslim Combining original empirical research with theoretical interventions this collection offers a range of reflections on how Muslims in Britain negotiate their everyday lives manage experiences of racism and exclusion and develop local networks and global connections The authors explore a broad range of themes including gender relations educational and economic issues migration and mobility religion and politics racism and Islamophobia and the construction and contestation of Muslim identities Threaded through the treatment of these themes is a unifying concern with the ways in which geography matters to how Muslims negotiate their daily experiences as well as their racialised gendered and religious identities Above all attention is focused upon the role of the home and local community the influence of the economy and the nation and the power of transnational connections and mobilities in the everyday lives of Muslims in Britain Includes contributions from Louise Archer Yahya Birt Sophie Bowlby Claire Dwyer Richard Gale Peter Hopkins Lily Kong Sally Lloyd Evans Sean McLoughlin Sharmina Mawani Tariq Modood Anjoom Mukadam Caroline Nagel Deborah Phillips Bindi Shah and Lynn Staeheli European Muslims and the Secular State Sean McLoughlin, Jocelyne Cesari, 2016-12-05 The institutionalization of Islam in the West continues to raise many questions for a range of different constituencies Secularization represents much more than the legal separation of politics and religion in Europe for important segments of European societies it has become the cultural norm Therefore Muslims settlement and their claims for the public recognition of Islam have often been perceived as a threat This volume explores current interactions between Muslims and the more or less secularized public spaces of several European states assessing the challenges such interactions imply for both Muslims and the societies in which they now live Divided into three parts it examines the impact of State Church relations Islamophobia and the war on terrorism evaluates the engagement of Muslim leaders with the State and civil society and reflects on both individual and collective transformations of Muslim religiosity

Multiple Homemaking Ruben Gowricharn, 2020-11-11 This book develops a theoretical perspective on homemaking as the ethnic condition of Indian diaspora communities It draws on empirical case studies to elucidate the multiple homemaking practices of two overseas Indian groups and their relations to their homeland namely the Surinami Hindustanis and the Dutch Hindustanis In doing so it provides a new perspective on homemaking that captures ethnogenesis integration and diasporic bonding at once As opposed to the extant discourse on homemaking which overlooks institutional and cultural requirements the author makes a point to scrutinise such concepts as douglarisation groupism citizenship institutions ethnification social networks and technology and transnational flows Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration multiculturalism cultural studies ethnic minority studies sociology politics and international relations and South Asian studies
