Religion And Dialectics:

Religion and Dialectics Anthony E. Mansueto, 2002 Religion and Dialectics carries to a new level the critical dialogue between religious belief dialectical thinking and socialist practice which has given birth among other things to the theology of liberation and to a new Marxist sociology of religion Dialectics of Secularization Benedikt XVI. (Papst), Jürgen Habermas, 2006 Two of the worlds great contemporary thinkers theologian and churchman Joseph Ratzinger now Pope Benedict XVI and Jürgen Habermas philosopher and Neo Marxist social critic discuss and debate aspects of secularization and the role of reason and religion in a free society These insightful essays are the result of a remarkable dialogue between the two men sponsored by the Catholic Academy of Bavaria a little over a year before Joseph Ratzinger was elected pope The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular Michael R. Ott, 2014-05-27 In The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular fifteen international scholars address the question of the relevancy meaning and future of religion within the increasing antagonisms between the religious and secular realms of modern civil society and its globalization Dialectics of Religion in the Roman World Francesca Mazzilli, Dies van der Linde, 2021-09-29 Recent scholarship has seen a general turn from separate entities to relations and inclusivity from static and systemic views to a focus on historical processes and fluidity Dialectical thinking fundamentally builds on the entwinement of social interactions inclusivity contradictory relations and historical movement Yet it is underrepresented in current research of Roman society and religion Therefore this volume intends to foreground dialectical thinking as a critical and constructive way to expose and analyse the dynamism diversity and discrepancies of religion in the Roman world Based on critical theories and archaeological epigraphic and literary sources the authors discuss cults ranging from Mars Thincsus and Mithras to Magna Mater and the deified emperors in diverse contexts across the Mediterranean from East to West the Hauran Asia Minor Jerusalem Dalmatia Gaul Britain and Rome Together they give a taste of the potential of dialectical approaches for enhancing our understanding of Roman society and religion The Frankfurt School and the Dialectics of Religion Dustin Byrd, 2020-09 In his book The Frankfurt School and the Dialectics of Religion Translating Critical Faith into Critical Theory Dustin J Byrd argues that at the core of the Frankfurt School s Critical Theory is a secularized theology Unlike their predecessors especially Feuerbach Marx Lenin Freud and Nietzsche who argued for an abstract negation of religion the first generation of Critical Theorists followed Hegel s logic and attempted to rescue and preserve the revolutionary emancipatory and liberational aspects of religion in their secular non conformist philosophy They saw in both Judaism and Christianity certain conceptual and semantic elements that could be enlisted into their struggle for a future reconciled society one beyond the slaughterbench of history In order to rescue religion theological concepts had to go through the process of determinate negation wherein such materials migrate from the depth of the religious mythos into publicly accessible reasoning thus making the revolutionary impulse of prophetic religion accessible to the secular world Byrd also argues that this determinate negation of religion remains relevant to today

s post secular societies especially in regard to religious Muslims attempting to find their place in Western countries which are often hostile to religion and religiosity Examining the strengths and weaknesses of Habermas famous translation proviso he argues that both religious and secular citizens of the West can learn from the Frankfurt School s dialectical approach to religion in order to find a space wherein both religious faith and secular reason can not only co exist but also join together in the process of creating a more reconciled future society Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M.

Marco,2025-05-20 Dialectics is a philosophical approach that seeks to understand the world through the study of change Dialecticians argue that change is not simply a random or chaotic process but rather a structured and orderly one They believe that change occurs through the interaction of opposing forces or contradictions These contradictions are not necessarily negative but rather the driving force behind progress and development This book provides a comprehensive introduction to dialectics exploring its origins in ancient Greek philosophy its development by Hegel and Marx and its application to a wide range of fields The book also considers the criticisms that have been leveled against dialectics and assesses its relevance to the challenges of the 21st century Whether you are a student of philosophy economics or history or simply someone who wants to understand the world around you better this book will provide you with the tools you need to understand dialectics and its implications In this book you will learn The basic principles of dialectics The historical development of dialectical thought The application of dialectics to a variety of fields including economics politics and culture The criticisms that have been leveled against dialectics The relevance of dialectics to the challenges of the 21st century This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the world we live in If you like this book write a review on google books Religion after Religion Steven M. Wasserstrom,1999-11-15 By the end of World War II religion appeared to be on the decline throughout the United States and Europe Recent world events had cast doubt on the relevance of religious belief and modernizing trends made religious rituals look out of place It was in this atmosphere that the careers of Scholem Eliade and Corbin the twentieth century s legendary scholars in the respective fields of Judaism History of Religions and Islam converged and ultimately revolutionized how people thought about religion Between 1949 and 1978 all three lectured to Carl Jung's famous Eranos circle in Ascona Switzerland where each in his own way came to identify the symbolism of mystical experience as a central element of his monotheistic tradition. In this the first book ever to compare the paths taken by these thinkers, Steven Wasserstrom explores how they overturned traditional approaches to studying religion by de-emphasizing law, ritual, and social history and by extolling the role of myth and mysticism. The most controversial aspect of their theory of religion, Wasserstrom argues, is that it minimized the binding character of moral law associated with monotheism. The author focuses on the lectures delivered by Scholem, Eliade, and Corbin to the Eranos participants but also shows how these scholars generated broader interest in their ideas through radio talks, poetry, novels, short stories, autobiographies, and interviews. He analyzes their conception of religion from a broadly integrated comparative perspective, sets their distinctive thinking into historical and intellectual context, and interprets the striking success of their approaches.

Dialectics, Politics, and the Contemporary Value of Hegel's Practical Philosophy Andrew Buchwalter, 2012. This book explores and details the actuality (Aktualität) of Hegel's social and political philosophy, its relevance, topicality, and contemporary validity. It asserts against the assumptions of those in a wide range of traditions that Hegel's thought not only remains relevant to debates in current social and political theory but is capable of productively enhancing and enriching those debates. The book is divided into three main sections. Part 1 considers the actuality of Hegel's social and political thought in the context of a constructed dialogue with later social and political theorists including Marx, Adorno, Habermas, and Rawls. Part 2 explores Hegel's internal criticism of Enlightenment rationality as well as the unique manner in which his thought reaffirms both the classical tradition of politics and the Christian conception of freedom in order to deepen and further develop our understanding of modernity and modern secularity. Part 3 considers Hegel's contribution to current theorizing about globalization.

The Dialectic of the Holy Robert E. Meditz, 2016-09-12. This is the first published book-length treatment on Paul Tillich and Judaism, which is a neglected aspect of Tillich's thought. It has three compelling features. First, pivotal biographical details show the importance of Judaism for Tillich and that he ardently opposed anti-Semitism before WWII and after the Holocaust. Second, Tillich's theological method is examined in key primary sources to show how he maintains continuity between Judaism and Christianity. The primary source analysis includes his 1910 and 1912 dissertations on Schelling, the 1933 The Socialist Decision, the 1952 Berlin lectures on the Jewish Question, and his final public lecture on the importance of the history of religion for systematic theology. Particular attention is paid to his dialectical and theological history of religion. Third, Tillich's positive theology of Judaism contrasts sharply with the many complex negative ways in which Judaism is portrayed in Western thought. This contributes significantly to our understanding of the evolving history of Christian anti-Judaism.

Dialectic and Gospel in the Development of Hegel's Thinking Stephen Crites, 2010-11-01.

Bernard Shaw, Paul Ricoeur, and the Jesusian Dialectics of Redemptive Living Howard Ira Einsohn, 2023-12-27. This book explores a heretofore unremarked linkage between Bernard Shaw, the twentieth-century French thinker Paul Ricoeur, and

Jesus of Nazareth The ties that bind them are a foundational interest in the social teachings of the Nazarene and their use of a shared dialectics with respect to living the kind of compassionate life that holds out the promise in our contemporary world of achieving something approximating universal wellness on a healthy planet at peace with itself This work argues that the three principal subjects of the study independently of one another used the same dialectical method to reach the same dialectically derived conclusion about how humans can live redemptively in a fractured world

Religious Dialectics of Pain and Imagination Bradford T. Stull, 1994-09-30 This book explores the possibility of a liberatory postmodern rhetoric or alternatively a postmodern liberation rhetoric The author turns to one of the most ancient disciplines rhetoric in order to address a most contemporary concern how can humans imagine new and better worlds when surrounded by unspeakable pain After a foray into key terms rhetoric postmodern liberation pain imagination religion the author places into conversation the theory and practice of four contemporary rhetoricians two postmoderns Kenneth Burke and Thomas Merton and two liberationists Paulo Freire of Brazil and Oscar Romero of El Salvador

The Convergent Spirit Robert Charles Zaehner, 1963 Dialectics of Faith-Culture Integration Michael Muonwe, 2014-02-21 This book navigates the contours of cultural and theological hermeneutics in order to critique affirm as well as reconceptualise the vital underpinnings and subtleties of faith culture intercourse and reciprocity It questions claims to effective inculturation by theologians and church authorities even as it acknowledges the inevitability of the tension between inculturation process and syncretic formations It is an irresistible asset for teachers and students of theology cultural and religious studies for pastors and missionaries and for all Christians in need of finding Christian beliefs and practices more meaningful to them in their daily lives The hope is that it challenges the straitjacketed conceptual and pastoral frameworks that have often characterised the church's evangelisation initiatives and assists in making Christian faith a concrete and living possession of every age and culture Michael Muonwe is a priest of the Catholic diocese of Awka Nigeria He holds Licentiate and Doctorate in Theology and Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven Belgium He obtained Bachelors in Philosophy from Bigard Memorial Seminary Enugu Nigeria Michael also holds Diplomas in Mass Communication and Education He has authored a number of articles and is an editor of a book His major research interest is the often convoluted relationship and interplay between religion and the contemporary culture His research on the relationship between Christianity feminism and culture will soon be published in two volumes On the present book Prof Annemie Dillen of the Catholic University of Leuven affirms This is a must read book for local church leaders theologians and everyone involved in pastoral work It challenges the reader to give up a longing for security and finding answers in fixed rules or the so called universal truths and invites him or her to an in depth study of cultural practices and beliefs The overview of the discussions on inculturation and the reality or sometime maybe phantom of syncretism is very illuminating and thought provoking Thomas F Magill asserts A timely and well balanced study of the theology of inculturation as understood in the Roman Catholic tradition offering new and fresh insights situated in the cusp between the Benedict XVI's emphasis on the relationship between faith and reason and the problem of relativism and Francis I's desire for a poor church for the poor T F Magill L S S Ph D parish priest of the Diocese of Motherwell formerly a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Glasgow Dialectics and Humanism, 1987 The False Dialectic Between Christians and Atheists Tom Donovan, 2016 Could it be that atheism and belief in God are both forms of avoidance behavior It's easier to focus on belief than it is to take up a new practice of living Perhaps both are ideological distractions that mystify the nature of reality and what knowledge is What if we admit that we are neither believers nor atheists Does that mean we're nothing Philosophy aims to help us understand the world without appealing to something beyond It's considered to be rooted in the search for eternal truths and when the truth is unclear philosophy is expected to embrace modesty and have a willingness to say I don't know Rejecting the false dialectic of God atheism will help us recognize that the world is our construction and our responsibility so long as we are here Drawing on Georg Lukács and Max Horkheimer the author argues that belief in God and atheism are both ideological distractions They are both forms of immaturity that can only be transcended through action The real good news is that we can do away with belief in the supernatural but it will take more than non-belief it will take philosophical action He takes us on a journey through our philosophical practices to purge ourselves of mystified notions The journey is long but at least the path is strewn with the charm of Socrates Descartes Marx and Sartre In short Prof Donovan says Nothing exists but this world our world Nothing is beyond God and atheism Why not become nothing Make yourself and those who matter proud The religion of philosophy or The unification of knowledge Raymond St. James Perrin, 1885 Dialectic of Enlightenment as Sport Tom Donovan, 2015-10-01 In their Dialectic of Enlightenment Horkheimer and Adorno set out to explain why humanity instead of entering a truly human state is sinking into a new kind of barbarism Philosophy teacher Tom Donovan PhD UCRiverside offers a fresh reading of that classic text showing that it is first and foremost a critique of the metaphysical urge Describing our world of stupid consumption mindless entertainment and perverted games and relationships he notes these sorts of games have no end game as fantasy spectators never really win and yet they don't see it because they are too busy watching the other lose This is the secret of class society As long as there is someone below you then lack of reconciliation doesn't hurt so badly Citing the Super Bowl Clippers owner Donald Sterling basketball players like LeBron James plus the Kardashians mega churches and comedians like Jon Stewart Donovan gives us a new understanding of our age and how the broken threads that are today's Capitalism religion and sports contribute to unraveling the fabric of Modernity Against readings that claim that Dialectic of Enlightenment is a simple critique of instrumental reason that ultimately undermines rationality itself Dr Donovan argues that the real critique is aimed at the metaphysical urge itself As such rationality itself is not the target of attack nor is the notion of enlightenment Taking Adorno's and Horkheimer's example of the Marquis de Sade the author observes Sade can only find pleasure in domination The fear of the outside has morphed into fear of a reconciled world fear of a world where everyone treats each other as ends in themselves A society like this can tolerate porn but not socialism a society like this won't miss the ice caps but wouldn't miss the Super Bowl a society like this lets civilization sink into barbarism so long as they can watch The Bachelor Stylistically this book attempts to rationally mimic the fragmentary nature of Dialectic of Enlightenment so that through form and content the argument of the book will emerge dialectically Readers will see that Dialectic of Enlightenment actually offers a positive conception of enlightenment and a philosophical instance of the use of dialectics The book is for readers interested in critiques of capitalism and religion and sports in America as well as Marxism and Critical Theory It will intrigue academics interested in the Frankfurt School and the idea of the Metaphysical Urge
