Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step Pedagogical Equilibrium Jennifer Mansfield,2019-02-01

Pedagogical Equilibrium is an innovative reconceptualisation of teachers professional knowledge development The book draws on interview data and in depth analysis of situations which challenge teachers sense of pedagogical equilibrium in both primary and secondary school contexts These moments highlight the complexity of teaching and the valuable personal and professional learning opportunities afforded by experiencing and processing moments which create uncertainty during practice Mansfield considers a variety of aspects of teaching practice including content knowledge organising for teaching organising for learning and student attitudes and behaviours Drawing on detailed examples a new framework is offered to scaffold teacher thinking around moments in practice which can challenge the sense of equilibrium in the classroom

Pedagogical Equilibrium is a highly valuable resource for educational researchers teacher educators current teachers and other educational stakeholders An A-Z of Creative Teaching in Higher Education Sylvia Ashton,Rachel Stone,2021-03-31 HE students rightly have high expectations of their lecturers and tutors As staff in HE adapt their teaching to fit the changing share of HE more support is needed This A Z guide is an essential resource to support those teaching in HE today to enhance their practice This text is a rich source of innovative approaches for learning and teaching in HE It addresses some common issues faced by lecturers in HE and includes case studies and practical suggestions for teaching The text takes a critical approach to exploring themes from different perspectives and highlights important and recent theory in the field This second edition includes more content on teaching and learning online a new chapter on decolonising the curriculum and many more updates throughout Reflections on Identity Neil Hopkins,Carol Thompson,2024-01-01 This book seeks to extend perspectives on professional identity in education Chapters consider the notion of expertise the impact of managerial approaches the importance of communities of practice and the effects of increasingly marketised approaches By using narratives the book opens up a conversation about this important topic Educators and leaders from a variety of settings will explore their professional experiences and the impact these have had on forming values in the professional role By drawing on personal experience individual authors will consider some of the challenges they have encountered as part of identity formation The significance of organisational cultures is discussed throughout the book and explores the ways in which individual autonomy is both threatened and claimed Issues discussed include the frequent changes imposed through government initiatives and the social perception of education professionals when compared to other professional roles Contributions have been drawn from teachers and leaders in schools colleges universities and specialist training Chapter authors have a variety of experiences offering a multi perspective approach This will include strategic leadership operational management and classroom practice all of which offer insights of interest to educators at various points on the professional journey The narrative approach adopted by authors provides the opportunity for readers to engage with others experiences enabling personal reflection on their own professional identity Quality Learning Kathy Smith, John Loughran, 2017-04-13

When teachers are supported to work together in ways that allow them to deepen knowledge of their professional practice the understandings that emerge from their conversations about quality learning and teaching demonstrate a high level of expertise Yet such professional knowledge is often deeply embedded within each teacher s everyday teaching the tacit knowledge that determines how and why they attend to student learning in certain ways This book captures the professional knowledge of teachers that developed as the result of an ongoing process of school based change where teachers began to work differently because they began to think differently about the learning that mattered for their students in their school The explication of their knowledge of practice became possible due to the ongoing support they received from their school leadership in most part because leadership trusted them as professionals to responsibly lead student learning Within this culture of trust and valued collaboration working alongside external critical friends who supported their professional learning the teachers engaged in regular thought provoking and interactive professional dialogue Together they exposed and challenged each other s thinking and beliefs about learning and teaching captured and examined each other s practice and ultimately articulated and extended their professional knowledge The insights about this collaborative learning process and the emergent knowledge and understandings teachers develop about the interactive relationship between learning and teaching has much to contribute to educational discourse beyond the school setting Some of that knowledge and the way it looks in practice is shared in this book International Handbook of Teacher Education John Loughran, Mary Lynn Hamilton, 2016-05-04

The International Handbooks of Teacher Education cover major issues in the field through chapters that offer detailed literature reviews designed to help readers to understand the history issues and research developments across those topics most relevant to the field of teacher education from an international perspective This volume is divided into two sections The organisation and structure of teacher education and knowledge and practice of teacher education The first section explores the complexities of teacher education including the critical components of preparing teachers for teaching and various aspects of teaching and teacher education that create tensions and strains The second examines the knowledge and practice of teacher education including the critical components of teachers professional knowledge the pedagogy of teacher education and their interrelationships and delves into what we know and why it matters in teacher education Reflective Teaching and Learning Dymoke S & Harrison J, 2008-05-23

This core text is an introduction for beginning secondary teachers on developing the art of critical reflective teaching throughout their professional work
