International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Kathleen Engebretson,Robert Jackson,Andrew McGrady,2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it as today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Does Religious Education Matter? Mary Shanahan,2016-07-28 In the current climate and in an age of increasing hostility towards religion and the study of religion religious education is a much debated area Bringing together an interdisciplinary team of contributors from the USA Britain and Ireland and Australia representing a variety of religious perspectives Does Religious Education Matter provocatively demonstrates that it is vital that religious education is presented as it really is a valuable and rich resource that when taught and engaged with appropriately stimulates essential qualities for global and responsible citizenship critical thinking tolerance respect and mutual understanding

Pilgrimage as Transformative Process Heather A. Warfield,Kate Hetherington,2018-11-26 The construct of transformation has emerged as a prominent theme in academic discourse Based on the accepted notion that processes and living organisms are in an ongoing state of development it is unsurprising that this concept of transformation would find resonance within literature on the pilgrimage phenomenon Examples of transformational processes intersecting with pilgrimage are the movement from sickness to wellness from grief to closure and from fractured to integrated That the pilgrimage journey itself can be construed as a transformational quest was noted by Winkleman and Dubisch 2005 who stated Life transforming experiences are at the core of both traditional and more contemporary forms of pilgrimage In the current volume Warfield and Hetherington examine the transformational process of pilgrimage journeys Contributors are Sharenda Holland Barlar Anne M Blankenship Valentina Bold Shirley du Plooy Alexandria M Egler Miguel Tain Guzman Kate Hetherington Scott Libson Chadwick Co Sy Su Kip Redick Roy Tamashiro and Heather A Warfield      Understanding Faith

Formation Mark A. Maddix,Jonathan H. Kim,James Riley Jr. Estep,2020-10-27 Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives biblical theological pastoral practical and global They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship Bible study and mission They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions      The Spiritual and Educational Vision of Parker J. Palmer Elena Soto,2024-02-09 Have you wrestled with the complexity of classroom teaching Have you often wondered what might be impeding your performance in the classroom Parker J Palmer s exploration into teaching and the problems that teachers encounter offers practical theories that address the questions one has or perhaps might not have thought to ask This book is about Parker J Palmer s theories of education interwoven with his spiritual vision of education Undergirding the spiritual aspect of his vision is his theory about the significance of the teacher s authentic self Within the narrative is the personal story of one teacher s daunting experiences as she ventured into the field of teaching after a career in the corporate world Meeting Palmer while in graduate school and closely studying his work served to modify her perspective about teaching for the better This ultimately changed her as a teacher in ways that could not have occurred had she not had this encounter This book aims to inform as well as to help transform the experience of teaching for both teacher and student      International Handbook of Education for

Spirituality, Care and Wellbeing Marian de Souza,LESLIE J. FRANCIS,James O'Higgins-Norman,Daniel G. Scott,2009-10-13 Acknowledging and understanding spiritual formation is vital in contemporary education This book explores the dynamic relationship between education and wellbeing It examines the theory underpinning the practice of education in different societies where spirituality and care are believed to be at the heart of all educational experiences The book recognizes that regardless of the context or type of educational experience education is a caring activity in which the development of the whole person body mind and spirit is a central aim for teachers and educators in both formal and informal learning The chapters in this handbook present and discuss topics that focus on spirituality as an integral part of human experience and consequently essential to educational programs which aim to address personal and communal identity foster resilience empathy and compassion and promote meaning and connectedness      Parenting as Spiritual Practice and Source for Theology Claire Bischoff, Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo, Annie Hardison-Moody, 2017-12-13 This volume investigates how mothers can understand parenting as spiritual practice and what this practice means for theological scholarship An intergenerational and intercultural group of mother scholars explores these questions that arise at the intersection of motherhood studies religious practice pastoral care and theology through engaging and accessible essays Essays include both narrative and theological elements as authors draw on personal reflection interviews and or sociological studies to write about the theological implications of parenting practice rethink key concepts in theology and contribute to a more robust account of parenting as spiritual practice from various theological perspectives The volume both challenges oppressive religious images of self sacrificing motherhood and considers the spiritual dimensions of mothering that contribute to women s empowerment and well being It also deepens practical and systematic theologies to include concern for the embodied and everyday challenges and joys of motherhood as it is experienced and practiced in diverse contexts of privilege and marginalization      Cultivating Reasonableness in Education Marella Ada V. Mancenido-Bolaños, Cathlyne Joy P. Alvarez-Abarejo, Leander Penaso Marquez, 2023-09-19 This book focuses on the real world application of the Philosophy for with Children P4wC pedagogy to cultivate reasonableness in individuals through communities of philosophical inquiry It presents a collection not only of theories but more importantly of experiences discoveries and innovations on P4wC by scholars trainers advocates and practitioners around the world Each chapter provides readers with insights and lessons that have resulted from the continuous application exploration and enrichment of the concepts principles and practices that were developed by Matthew Lipman and Ann Margaret Sharp into what P4wC is today a dialogic pedagogical approach that may just be what is needed at a time when reasonableness and dialogue are essential to maintaining global stability and progress In this light this book also looks into how the P4wC approach can be practiced with adults such as when it is employed in various settings or contexts such as in business consulting textbook writing peace education and extremism prevention among others Furthermore this book also features chapters that discuss how the P4wC pedagogy can be beneficial once integrated into processes such as classroom teaching teacher education bioethics and employee education This book provides valuable insights about how reasonableness that is cultivated through building communities of philosophical inquiry in education can be a powerful tool for nation building and social transformation      A Shepherd in Harlem: The Life and Times of Ezra N. Williams Louis A. DeCaro, Jr, 2011-11-13 The life and times of one of Harlem s leading clergyman in the 20th century This book frames his personal story in the context of black history particularly the events and personalities of Harlem Based upon extensive interviews and detailed research A Shepherd in Harlem provides an intimate look at the subject s life set against the backdrop of the dramatic and often disturbing events in the history of the most famous black community in the western world      The Faith of Girls Anne Phillips, 2016-03-03 Exploring the spirituality and faith of girls on the verge of adolescence this book presents fresh insights into children's spirituality and their transition to adulthood Phillips has listened to girls' voices speaking in depth on the themes of self, God, church and world and reflected on their experiences and understandings in the light of current psychological, philosophical and sociological thinking all placed into dialogue with a feminist approach to contemporary theology and bible Phillips offers wombhood as a metaphor for their transition to young adulthood and suggests strategies faith communities might adopt to companion girls more effectively through the fragility of puberty This book will appeal to all those exploring areas of youth ministry, pastoral care, Christian education, nurture and childhood studies, psychology and theology

Story, Ritual, Prophecy, Wisdom Mark W. Hamilton, Samjung Kang-Hamilton, 2024-04-04 Christianity Today Book Awards Bible and Devotional Finalist 2025 Discover how studying the Bible can renew your church community How do we teach the Bible in a way that makes a real difference in our students' lives and our communities Too often biblical introductions treat Scripture as a mere historical artifact Mark W Hamilton and Samjung Kang Hamilton combine their decades of experience in theological and religious education to devise a new way to teach Scripture that brings out its life-giving qualities The authors show how Scripture has four modes: story, ritual, prophecy and wisdom With an eye toward spiritual formation the authors explore examples of each of the four genres within the Bible and show how they address real needs in the life of the church today They also recommend how to incorporate contemporary tools like digital media alongside art, music and other practices to draw wisdom from Scripture Combining multicultural sensitivity with ecumenical spirit this guidebook is ideal for educators and pastors seeking to renew their own Christian communities through biblical education

The Faith of Girls Revd Dr Anne Phillips, 2013-06-28 Exploring the spirituality and faith of girls on the verge of adolescence this book presents fresh insights into children's spirituality and their transition to adulthood Phillips has listened to girls' voices speaking in depth on the themes of self, God, church and world and reflected on their experiences and understandings in the light of current psychological, philosophical and sociological thinking all placed into dialogue with a feminist approach to contemporary theology and bible Phillips offers wombhood as a metaphor for their transition to young adulthood and suggests strategies faith communities might adopt to companion girls more effectively through the fragility of puberty This book will appeal to all those exploring areas of youth ministry, pastoral care, Christian education, nurture and childhood studies, psychology and theology

Partners in Wisdom and Grace Marilyn T. Kravatz, 2010-05-10 Creative tension calls for a dialogical conversation in order to find mutual ground that can be beneficial for both partners Partners in Wisdom and Grace explores the possibility of such tension created by the absence of religious education as a dialogical partner in the National Directory for Catechesis published by the U S Bishops in 2005 These queries are central Will catechesis take religious education as a conversation partner And will religious education return the favor This book concludes that catechesis and religious education remain distinct enterprises that have their own specific identities and make their own particular contributions toward educating for a religious way of life This is an invitation for catechesis and religious education to generate a continuous healthy dialogue and mutually enrich each other while maintaining their distinct identities

Proclaim Jubilee! Maria Harris, 1996-01-01 The biblical Jubilee that was celebrated once every fifty years is referred to in Leviticus 25 as the Sabbath of Sabbaths Its requirements included that the land lie fallow all debts be forgiven captives be freed and a celebration held Maria Harris considers the implications of a living Jubilee for today and for the next century She offers a compelling argument that a living Jubilee is a comprehensive spirituality that would have a positive political economic and moral impact on individuals families religious congregations institutions and nations

The Child in Christian Thought Marcia J. Bunge, 2001 A collection of seventeen essays presenting theological perspectives on children throughout history Discusses the care of children their spiritual education and the role of parents the church and the state in raising children

Teaching That Transforms Debra Dean Murphy, 2007-01-01 This is an important book With a generous spirit and discerning eye Murphy unmask the ways in which the biblical and theological context of Christian education has been co-opted on the one hand by a focus on learning experiences and on the other hand by modernity's understanding of what it means to be human She summons Christian education back to its integral relationship with Christian worship drawing it out of the church basement and into the sanctuary where Christian persons and communities are most regularly formed and where the content of Christian formation Bible and Theology are practiced by the church Murphy's critique of contemporary religious education theory is provocative her interpretation of the lessons of the liturgy are prophetic I will be recommending it to my colleagues in Christian education and liturgical studies alike

E Byron Anderson Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Few tasks facing the contemporary church are more urgent than coming to an understanding of the critical importance of Christian formation Yet as Debra Dean Murphy demonstrates so ably in these pages this task is too often undermined by the alien assumptions that reside at the core of the religious education establishment Murphy's penetrating analysis and profound proposals will be welcomed by anyone who had ever longed for a theory and practice of Christian education that would flow out of and do justice to the deep and abiding mysteries at the heart of Christian worship
