C Day-Lewis Peter Stanford, 2007-05-27 How unfair wrote one national newspaper in 1951 that accomplishments enough to satisfy the pride of six men should be united in Mr Day Lewis Poet translator of classical texts novelist detective writer under the pen name Nicholas Blake performer and at that time Professor of Poetry at Oxford C Day Lewis had many careers all at once This first authorised biography tells the private story behind the many headlines that this handsome charming Anglo Irish Poet Laureate generated in his lifetime With unparalleled access to Day Lewis s archives and the recollections of first hand witnesses Peter Stanford traces the link between life and art to reassess the work of a poet lauded in his lifetime but whose literary reputation has latterly become a matter of controversy with Westminster Abbey refusing him the place in Poets Corner traditionally allotted to Poets Laureate Day Lewis first made his name as one of the poets of the thirties launching a communist influenced poetic revolution alongside WH Auden and Stephen Spender that aspired to spark wholesale political change to face down fascism In the 1940s Red Cecil as he had become known broke with communism and Auden and went on to produce some of his most popular and enduring verse prompted by his long love affair with the novelist Rosamond Lehmann Torn between her and his wife he reflected on his double life in verse and became for some the supreme poet of the divided heart Later with his second wife the actress Jill Balcon he promoted poetry with a series of popular recitals and radio and television programmes Together they had two children Tamasin and Daniel later an Oscar winning actor Day Lewis was always pulled between a fulfilling domestic life and a restless desire to explore His travels his exploration of his Irish roots and his infidelities are all part of the rich and many faceted life that Peter Stanford describes It is however as a poet that he is best remembered and the poetry itself often autobiographical forms an integral part of this intriguing and long overdue biography      Physical Environments and Aging Paul Windley, Rick Scheidt, 2015-12-22 A tribute and guide to M Powell Lawton's groundbreaking work Dr M Powell Lawton who died in January 2001 was arguably the most significant thinker researcher and practitioner in environment behavior studies within the field of gerontology The authors of Physical Environments and Aging represent three generations of internationally recognized researchers whose lives and work were greatly influenced by both Lawton the professional and Lawton the man This book presents their assessment of his contributions to environmental theory purpose built housing community study long term care settings and other related topics Many of the contributors also share personal anecdotes that illustrate how Lawton's professional visions were shaped by his remarkable intellect and personality Physical Environments and Aging examines many aspects of environmental gerontology including housing policy reform and home modification place therapy philosophic foundations of environment aging studies the future of theory practice and policy in the field the role of neighborhoods More than just an homage Physical Environments and Aging is also a practical guide to the field offering you tractable theory useful methods and measures and functional research overviews in the realms of everyday experience of older adults      Workers Across the Americas Leon Fink, 2011-04-13 The first major volume to place U S centered labor history in a transnational or U S in the world focus Workers Across the Americas invites the leading authors in the field to explore themes of Labor and Empire Indigenous Peoples and Labor Systems International Feminism and Reproductive Labor Labor Recruitment and Immigration Control Transnational Labor Politics and Labor Internationalism      Courtyard Housing and Cultural Sustainability Donia Zhang, 2016-05-13 Cultural sustainability is a very important aspect of the overall sustainability framework and is regarded as the fourth pillar alongside the other three environmental economic and social sustainability However the concept is neither fully explored nor widely accepted or recognized This book elicits the interplay of nature culture architecture and theorizes the concept of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It identifies four key themes in Chinese philosophy Harmony with Heaven Harmony with Earth Harmony with Humans and Harmony with Self along with Greek philosopher Aristotle's physics form space matter and time it sets them as criteria to evaluate the renewed and new courtyard housing projects constructed in China since the 1990s Using an innovative architectural and social science approach this book examines the political economic social and spatial factors that affect cultural sustainability Supported by a multiplicity of data including field surveys interviews with residents architects and planners time diaries drawings photos planning documents observation notes and real estate brochures the book proposes new courtyard garden house design strategies that promote healthy communities and human care for one another a concept that is universally applicable The volume is a first opportunity to take a holistic view to encompass eastern and western tangible and intangible cultures in the theorization of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It is a comprehensive contribution to architectural theory      Shelter Blues Robert R. Desjarlais, 2011-09-16 Desjarlais shows us not anonymous faces of the homeless but real people While it is estimated that 25 percent or more of America s homeless are mentally ill their lives are largely unknown to us What must life be like for those who in addition to living on the street hear voices suffer paranoid delusions or have trouble thinking clearly or talking to others Shelter Blues is an innovative portrait of people residing in Boston s Station Street Shelter It examines the everyday lives of more than 40 homeless men and women both white and African American ranging in age from early 20s to mid 60s Based on a sixteen month study it draws readers into the personal worlds of these individuals and by addressing the intimacies of homelessness illness and abjection picks up where most scholarship and journalism stops Robert Desjarlais works against the grain of media representations of homelessness by showing us not anonymous stereotypes but individuals He draws on conversations as well as observations talking with and listening to shelter residents to understand how they relate to their environment to one another and to those entrusted with their care His book considers their lives in terms of a complex range of forces and helps us comprehend the linkages between culture illness personhood and political agency on the margins of contemporary American society Shelter Blues is unlike anything else ever written about homelessness It challenges social scientists and mental health professionals to rethink their approaches to human subjectivity and helps us all to better understand one of the most pressing problems of our time

Alliance Rises in the West Charlotte K. Sunseri, 2020-12 Alliance Rises in the West documents the experiences of a company town at a critical moment in the rise of working class consciousness in nineteenth century California Through archaeological research Charlotte K Sunseri overcomes the silence of the documentary record to re examine the mining frontier at Mono Mills a community of multiple ethnic and racial groups predominantly Chinese immigrants and Kudzadika Paiutes The rise of political economic and social alliances among workers symbolized solidarity and provided opportunity to effect change in this setting of unequal power Urban planning and neighborhood layout depict company structures of control and surveillance while household archaeology from ethnically distinct neighborhoods speaks to lived experiences and how working class identities emerged to crosscut ethnic and racial divides imposed in capitalism Mono Mills s Paiute and Chinese communities experienced exclusionary legislation and brutal treatment on the basis of racial prejudice but lived alongside and built community with European American laborers managers and merchants who were also on an economic periphery These experiences in Mono Mills and other nineteenth century company towns did not occur in a vacuum capitalists control and ideologies of race and class all doubled down as American workers used collective action to change the rules of the system In this rare in depth perspective close consideration of the ghost towns that dot the landscape of the West shows the haunting elements of capitalism and racial structures that characterized Gilded Age society and whose legacies endure to this day

Telling Environmental Histories Katie Holmes, Heather Goodall, 2017-12-12 This collection explores the intersections of oral history and environmental history Oral history offers environmental historians the opportunity to understand the ways people s perceptions experiences and beliefs about environments change over time In turn the insights of environmental history challenge oral historians to think more critically about the ways an active more than human world shapes experiences and people The integration of these approaches enables us to more fully and critically understand the ways cultural and individual memory and experience shapes human interactions with the more than human world just as it enables us to identify the ways human memory identity and experience is moulded by the landscapes and environments in which people live and labour It includes contributions from Australia India the UK Canada and the USA Reckoning with Change in Yucatán Jason Ramsey, 2023-11-30 Reckoning with Change in Yucatán engages with how best to look upon and respond to change arguing that this debate is an important arena for negotiating local belonging and a force of transformation in its own right For residents of Chunchucmil a historic rural community in Yucatán Mexico history is anything but straightforward Living in what is both a defunct 19th century hacienda estate and a vibrant Catholic pilgrimage site Chunchucmil os reckon past present and future in radically different ways For example while some use the aging estate buildings to weave a history of economic decline and push for revitalization by hotel developers others highlight the growing fame of the Virgin of the Rosary in the attached church and vow to defend the site from developer interference By exploring how past and future are channeled through changing built environments landscapes sacred relics and legal documents this ethnographic study details how the politics of change provide Chunchucmil os with a common language for debating commitments to place and each another in the present Against Western notions of History as a relatively coherent account of change the book suggests we reframe it as an ongoing performance that is always fractured democratic and morally tinged

The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis Christian Sandbjerg Hansen, 2021-04-05 This book investigates the sociohistorical making of place and people in Copenhagen from around 1900 to the present day Drawing inspiration from Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of social space and symbolic power and from Loïc Wacquant's hypothesis of advanced marginality and territorial stigmatisation the book explores the genesis and development of the notorious neighbourhood of Copenhagen North West As an extraordinary place the North West provides an illustrative case of Danish welfare and urban history that questions the epitome on inclusive Copenhagen Through detailed empirical analysis the book spotlights three angles and entanglements of the social history of this area of Copenhagen the production of socio spatial constructions and authoritative categorisations of the neighbourhood especially by the state and the media the local social pedagogical interventions and symbolic boundary drawings by welfare agencies in the neighbourhood and the residents subjective experiences of place social divisions and dishonour In this way The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis analyses how social symbolical and spatial structures dynamically intertwine and contribute to the fashioning of divisions of inequality and marginality in the city over the course of some 125 years It will appeal to scholars of sociology urban studies and urban history with interests in social welfare Back to the Roots Sara Shostak, 2021-05-14 Urban agriculture has become a critical domain for explorations of and challenges to the long standing and systemic inequalities that shape cities neighborhoods and the lives and life chances of their residents Back to the Roots describes how urban farmers and gardeners reckon with the cultural meanings and material legacies of the past as they seek to create more just and equitable futures

Wounded Hearts Lois Legge,2025-09-19 Between 1857 and 1970 thousands of children came to live at the Halifax Protestant Orphans Home Some were children whose parents simply didn't have the means to care for them any longer others were orphans who had nowhere else to go Many faced abuse poverty and neglect before during and after their time in the facility All were vulnerable young wards left in the trusted care of an institution that in countless cases would ultimately betray them In Wounded Hearts Memories of the Halifax Protestant Orphans Home veteran journalist Lois Legge digs deep into the lived experiences of the children who passed through those doors painting an indelible picture of innocence lost This in depth narrative introduces readers to the strength and sorrow of the home's survivors in advance of the fiftieth anniversary of Veith House 2020 an inclusive community centre and the former site of the orphanage Features 30 black and white photos

California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Reanimating Industrial Spaces Hilary Orange,2016-06-16 Reanimating Industrial Spaces explores the relationships between people and the places of former industry through approaches that incorporate and critique memory work The chapters in this volume consider four broad questions What is the relationship between industrial heritage and memory How is memory involved in the process of place making in regards to industrial spaces What are the strengths and pitfalls of conducting memory work What can be learned from cross disciplinary perspectives and methods The contributors have created a set of diverse case studies including iron smelting in Uganda Puerto Rican sugar mills and concrete factories in Albania which examine differing socio economic contexts and approaches to industrial spaces both in the past and in contemporary society A range of memory work is also illustrated from ethnography oral history digital technologies excavation and archival and documentary research

Beyond Memory G. Uehling, 2004-11-26 In the early morning hours of May 18 1944 the Russian army under orders from Stalin deported the entire Crimean Tatar population from their historical homeland Given only fifteen minutes to gather their belongings they were herded into cattle cars bound for Soviet Central Asia Although the official Soviet record was cleansed of this affair and the name of their ethnic group was erased from all records and official documents Crimean Tatars did not assimilate with other groups or disappear This is an ethnographic study of the negotiation of social memory and the role this had in the growth of a national repatriation movement among the Crimean Tatars It examines the recollections of the Crimean Tatars the techniques by which they are produced and transmitted and the formation of a remarkably uniform social memory in light of their dispersion throughout Central Asia Through the lens of social memory the book covers not only the deportation and life in the diaspora but the process by which the children and grandchildren of the deportees returned and anchored themselves in the Crimean Peninsula a place they had never visited Little Wonder Sasha

Abramsky, 2021-05-26 Masterfully captures the life of this little known sportswoman a versatile female athlete comparable to Babe Didrikson Zaharias Booklist starred review Lottie Dod was a truly extraordinary sports figure who blazed trails of glory in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Dod won Wimbledon five times and did so for the first time in 1887 at the ludicrously young age of fifteen After she grew bored with competitive tennis she moved on to and excelled in myriad other sports she became a leading ice skater and tobogganist a mountaineer an endurance bicyclist a hockey player a British ladies golf champion and an Olympic silver medalist in archery In her time Dod had a huge following but her years of distinction occurred just before the rise of broadcast media By the outset of World War I she was largely a forgotten figure she died alone and without fanfare in 1960 Little Wonder brings this remarkable woman's story to life contextualizing it against a backdrop of rapid social change and tectonic shifts in the status of women in society Paving the way for the likes of Billie Jean King Serena Williams and other top female athletes of today Dod accepted no limits no glass ceilings and always refused to compromise Eighty five years before Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs fought the battle of the sexes a Victorian teenager showed what women could do Abramsky celebrates her as a brave and talented and determined original The Atlantic

The Top Books of the Year Residents Recollections The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Residents Recollections : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Residents Recollections : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
