Resources And Environment In Asia's Marine Sector:

Resources & Environment in Asia's Marine Sector James B. Marsh, 2018-12-18 This volume brings together a cross section of marine experts who provide a comprehensive exploration of the major facets of Asia's marine sector. It considers both the marine mineral and fish stocks in Asian waters. This extensive volume examines official statistics with an objective eye and provides an overview of fish stock with much focus on the access and management of tuna. It considers global economic issues concerning fishing rights, looks at joint ventures between nations and considers law enforcement efforts. The volume devotes a section to sea lanes and another to off shore mineral deposits. It also considers current and growing problems and possible solutions regarding pollution.

Peace and Security in Northeast Asia Peter Hayes, Young Whan Kihl, 2016-09-16 This work provides an analysis of North Korea's nuclear controversy from a variety of perspectives including nuclear reactor technology and technology transfer, economic sanctions and incentives, confidence building measures, environmental challenges and the views of Korea and the major powers.

Japan's Tuna Fishing Industry Anthony Bergin, Marcus G. Howard, 1996

The Environment and Emerging Development Issues Partha Dasgupta, Karl-Göran Mäler, 2000 Two and a half billion people are affected directly on a day to day basis by the allocation and use of purely local resources. Yet official development economics has concentrated on headline international issues and only recently begun to take account of the dependence of poor countries on their natural resources, the link between acute poverty and environmental degradation and the problems associated with the management of local common property such as soil and soil cover, water, forests and their products, animals and fisheries. In this volume, part of the WIDER Program on the Economics of the Environment, expert contributors provide a set of authoritative studies of emerging development issues ranging from foundational matters to case studies, original research in areas where there has been a paucity of work, survey papers. They address both analytic and empirical issues on the role of environmental resources in the development process, presenting explanations of existing situations and policies for the future. A wealth of interests and backgrounds is represented and reflected in the cross fertilization between papers.

Human Well-Being and the Natural Environment Partha Dasgupta, 2001-11-15 Dasgupta develops methods of valuation and evaluation with the aim of measuring and searching to improve the quality of our lives. He focuses on the ways in which our quality of life is now known to be tied to the natural environment.

The Environment in Asia Pacific Harbours Eric Wolanski, 2006-07-30 In the USA, Asia and Europe as well as worldwide trade is growing rapidly and much of it depends on shipping. This is leading to the development of mega cities and mega harbours. The marine environment is degrading. Is increasing trade ecologically sustainable? This book addresses this question through harbours in the Asia Pacific region including Tokyo Bay, the Pearl Estuary, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Ho Chi Minh City, Manila Bay, Jakarta Bay, Bangkok, Singapore, Klang, Pearl Harbour and Darwin. Much of the world trade goes through these harbours. This book demonstrates through the writing of eminent scientists in each of these countries the oceanography and ecosystem science necessary to understand how these urbanised marine ecosystems function. It offers science based solutions to achieve ecologically sustainable development. These lessons are important not only for the Asia Pacific Region including Australia but also worldwide. The book is a wake up call that all the countries in the Asia Pacific are facing the same serious socio economic and environmental problems with varying scales. Each of these countries addresses these issues differently. This book shows that we have much to learn from each other to ensure that development does not need to be at the cost of the environment. I commend this book for its comprehensive coverage of the links between oceanography ecosystem processes and socio economic issues. Resources, Environment and Regional Sustainable Development in Northeast Asia Igor N. Vladimirov, Ming Jiang, Peter Ya. Baklanov, 2023-03-31. This book highlights the environmental issues an assessment of environmental risks within the borders of Northeast Asia and neighboring territories. This book pays special attention to the transboundary factor as the main factor in international and interregional cooperation. This book develops methods of complex thematic interpretative mapping geoinformation modeling processing of remote sensing data for geographical and environmental studies models for the analysis of spatial and temporal geographic data and their long series. The book is planned to widely cover economic physical geographical and environmental studies including the analysis of natural resources from the state of the natural environment and resource potential to its change under the influence of various factors. Regional Cooperation and Environmental Issues in Northeast Asia Peter Hayes, 1993. Valuation of Tropical Coastal Resources Annabelle Cruz-Trinidad, 1996. Peace and Security in Northeast Asia, Details North Korea's technology infrastructure and institutions and discusses difficulties the country faces in creating alternatives to a nuclear weapons program within the context of maintaining environmentally sound ecologically sustainable energy development in the region. Contains sections on nuclear reactors and technology transfer economic sanctions and incentives strategy and confidence building and Korea and the major powers. Includes appendices of documents. Paper edition unseen 24 95. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR. GIWA Regional Assessments: South China Sea, South China Sea, 2005. This report presents the GIWA assessment of the South China Sea region which lies at the global center of tropical marine biodiversity. The region supports a rapidly growing coastal population and has rapidly deteriorating marine ecosystems in danger of immediate danger of collapse of the coral reefs and the pelagic fisheries. Overexploitation and habitat modification cause the most severe transboundary environmental and socio economic impacts. Priorities in Aquatic Resources Research in the Asia-Pacific Region Modadugu V. Gupta, Natalie Macawaris-Ele, 1999. Sharing the Resources of the South China Sea Mark J. Valencia, Jon M. van Dyke, Noel A. Ludwig, 2021-09-27. This book should be helpful to decision makers negotiators and academics desirous of a peaceful solution to these disputes. The State of the Environment in Asia The Japan Environmental Council, 2012-12-06. In December 1977 we published the first in this series of NGO oriented reports on Asia's environment. Ajia Kankyo Hakusho 1997 98. This was published in English by Springer Verlag as The State of the Environment in Asia 1999 2000 Although only a few years have passed since then Asia has seen tumultuous changes in the political economic social environmental and other domains as well as a number of prominent trends that could be regarded as harbingers of the new century China for instance could henceforth decisively affect the evolution of environmental problems not only in Asia but across the entire globe Yet Chinese concern for and initiatives on pollution and environmental damage have increased more quickly than could have been anticipated just a few years ago And on Taiwan where a Democratic Progressive Party president was elected over the long ruling Nationalist Party an attorney who has cooperated with our pollution surveys for a decade Hsieh Chang ting became mayor of Taiwan's largest heavy and chemical industry city of Kaohsiung where he has begun a Green Revolution On the Korean Peninsula which has for many years endured the division of its people as well as political and military tensions there are the beginnings of a new North South dialog These changes are all welcome to those of us who wish to see new advances in environmental cooperation throughout Asia

Index of Conference Proceedings ,1992 International Environmental Affairs ,1994 Economic and Regional Cooperation in Northeast Asia ,1995 Asian Bibliography ,1998 Toxic Archipelago Brett L. Walker,2010 This fascinating environmental history of Japan examines how traditions and practices in several industries from raising silkworms to mining lead and coal to refining petroleum have affected the health of workers and those who have lived in these toxic landscapes
