New Guinea Stephen Howes,Lekshmi N. Pillai,2022-03-15 Papua New Guinea PNG a nation of now almost nine million people continues to evolve and adapt While there is no shortage of recent data and research on PNG the two most recent social science volumes on the country were both written more than a decade ago Since then much has changed and much has been learnt What has been missing is a volume that brings together the most recent research and reports on the most recent data Papua New Guinea Government Economy and Society fills that gap Written by experts at the University of Papua New Guinea and The Australian National University among others this book provides up to date surveys of critical policy issues for PNG across a range of fields from elections and politics decentralisation and crime and corruption to PNG s economic trajectory and household living standards to uneven development communication and the media The volume s authors provide an overview of the data collected and research undertaken in these various fields in an engaging and accessible way Edited by Professor Stephen Howes and Professor Lekshmi N Pillai Papua New Guinea Government Economy and Society is a must read for students policymakers and anyone interested in understanding this complex and fascinating country

Responding to the Challenges of Corruption United Nations Interregional Crime And Justice Research Institute Staff,2000 Papers presented at a conference held in Milan in November 1999 Attention was focused on the strengthening of regional and international collaboration between industrialised and developing countries and countries in transition in preventing and combating corruption Emphasis was placed on the relationships between the business world and corruption as well as its distorting effects on competition Ethical Response to Corruption Niru Hazarika,2020-01-01 The book Ethical Response to Corruption is the result of realization by the author of the need of human power as a basic weapon to eradicate corruption in any organization Corruption is rooted in the lifestyle of a man which is guided by his thought process The book deals with different aspects of corruption highlighting the existing scenario of India It deals with preventive measures adopted at both international and national levels Here discussion is made mainly of the UNO s efforts to eradicate corruption Discussion on the emergence of the Ombudsmanic system in India is also made in the book The normative aspect of public administration demands the activism of human power The book provides space for discussion normative aspect of good governance An attempt is also made to visit Gandhi s ideas and the weapons utilized by him during freedom struggle of the country and their relevance to the war against corruption Laws rules and regulations codes etc can create an environment in which the road to human power becomes clear to be active The ethical response is a strong additional effort to safeguard the global human society from the scourge of corruption The book provides discussion on it in detail

Responding to Afghanistan's Opium Economy Challenge: William A. Byrd,2008 Lessons from Regional Responses to Security, Health and Environmental Challenges in Latin America Ivo Ganchev,2024-01-23 What is the role of regional organizations in maintaining security across different parts of Latin America and the Caribbean LAC How did COVID 19 impact states in the region and what types of collective action have helped respond to public health emergencies In what way is LAC environmental policy formulated and what broader lessons can be drawn for the Global South This edited volume addresses these questions revealing the reasons behind the successes and failures of LAC regional responses to collective challenges as well as their limitations and potential for future improvement It contains 11 chapters authored by 16 authoritative academics who employ methodologically diverse perspectives Each chapter provides insights that would be of interest to scholars students and policy makers working on the regional governance of LAC and the Global South The contributions are thematically organised in three parts and produced with pragmatic considerations in mind discussing existing and potential real solutions to pressing issues Ownership of Proceeds of Corruption in International Law

Kolawole Olaniyan,2024-02-13 In the first comprehensive study on the issue Kolawole Olaniyan challenges the conventional notion that sovereign and ownership rights over proceeds of corruption should be exclusively exercised by States He examines the relationship between the right to wealth and natural resources proceeds of corruption and economic activities

Socially Responsive Organizations & the Challenge of Poverty Milenko Gudi?,Al Rosenbloom,Carole Parkes,2017-09-08 This book provides a combination of case studies and current action research describing how businesses and civil society organizations are working to alleviate poverty in local and global communities It intends to provide conceptual and research rationales for why management education and management institutions must address the issue of poverty The book responds to one of the major findings from the research of the PRME Working Group on Poverty that the topic of poverty still lacks a strong business case for management educators and program institutional administrators The distinctive features of this book are that it 1 includes examples of small and medium sized SME businesses 2 deals with the issue of poverty as a human rights violation 3 explores the issue of absolute versus relative poverty 4 deals with leadership challenges in organizations committed to poverty alleviation and 5 discusses the issues in terms of management education s responsibility for setting new management research institutional and intellectual agendas The first of two books to be produced by the PRME Working Group on Poverty Socially Responsive Organizations and The Challenge of Poverty aims to provide both researchers and practitioners with the most wide ranging coverage yet published on how business can be a positive force in alleviating poverty and how management education needs to adapt to this increasingly crucial prerogative
