Feedback in Second Language Writing Ken Hyland, Fiona Hyland, 2006-08-14 This collection of scholarly articles by leading researchers offers empirical data and analysis of complex issues related to providing feedback during the writing process

Treatment of Error in Second Language Student Writing Dana Ferris, 2011 Come comportarsi di fronte agli errori di scrittura in inglese per studenti che non sono di madre lingua inglese      Concepts in Composition Irene L. Clark, 2011-09

 A textbook for composition pedagogy courses It focuses on scholarship in rhetoric and composition that has influenced classroom teaching in order to foster reflection on how theory impacts practice      Classroom Writing Assessment and Feedback in L2 School Contexts Icy Lee, 2017-03-28 While assessment and feedback tend to be treated separately in the L2 writing literature this book brings together these two essential topics and examines how effective classroom assessment and feedback can provide a solid foundation for the successful teaching and learning of writing Drawing upon current educational and L2 writing theories and research the book is the first to address writing assessment and feedback in L2 primary and secondary classrooms providing a comprehensive up to date review of key issues such as assessment for learning assessment as learning teacher feedback peer feedback portfolio assessment and technology enhanced classroom writing assessment and feedback The book concludes with a chapter on classroom assessment literacy for L2 writing teachers outlines its critical components and underscores the importance of teachers undertaking continuing professional development to enhance their classroom assessment literacy Written in an accessible style the book provides a practical and valuable resource for L2 writing teachers to promote student writing and for teacher educators to deliver effective classroom writing assessment and feedback training Though the target audience is school teachers L2 writing instructors in any context will benefit from the thorough and useful treatment of classroom assessment and feedback in the book      Cases on Professional Distance Education Degree Programs and Practices: Successes, Challenges, and Issues Sullivan, Kirk P.H., 2013-08-31
 Although internet technologies have transformed the concept of professional development by providing the opportunity for virtual learning environments in a non traditional setting the implementation of professional distance education programs still poses a challenge Cases on Professional Distance Education Degree Programs and Practices Successes Challenges and Issues examines the best practices for executing technology applications and the utilization of distance education techniques This publication will serve as a reference for academics and instructors coordinating distance education programs initiating distance education courses and implementing such programs for those earning professional degrees      3rd Interdisciplinary Conference on English Studies: Proceedings Mustafa Kurt, 2014-08-26 Proceedings of 3rd Interdisciplinary Conference on English Studies      Error Correction in the Foreign Language Classroom Mirosław Pawlak, 2013-08-13 The book aims to dispel some of the myths surrounding the place of oral and written error correction in language education by providing an exhaustive and up to date account of issues involved in this area taking the stance that the provision of corrective feedback constitutes an integral part of form focused instruction This account places an equal emphasis on the relevant theoretical claims the most recent research findings and everyday pedagogical concerns particularly as they apply to the teaching of additional languages in the foreign language setting The book will be of relevance and significance not only to specialists in the field of second language acquisition but also to graduate and doctoral students carrying out research in the area of form focused instruction and error correction Many parts of the volume will also be of considerable interest and utility to teachers of foreign languages at different educational levels     Practicing Theory in Second Language Writing Tony Silva,Paul Kei Matsuda,2010-01-15 Theory has been used widely in the field of second language writing Second language writing specialists teachers researchers and administrators have yet to have an open and sustained conversation about what theory is how it works and more important how to practice theory Practicing Theory in Second Language Writing features fourteen essays by distinguished scholars in second language writing who explore various aspects of theoretical work that goes on in the field     Teaching U.S.-Educated Multilingual Writers Mark Roberge,Kay M. Losey,Margi Wald,2015-06-04 This volume was born to address the lack of classroom oriented scholarship regarding U S educated multilingual writers Unlike prior volumes about U S educated multilinguals this book focuses solely on pedagogy from classroom activities and writing assignments to course curricula and pedagogical support programs outside the immediate classroom Unlike many pedagogical volumes that are written in the voice of an expert researcher theorist this volume is based on the notion of teachers sharing practices with teachers All of the contributors are teachers who are writing about and reflecting on their own experiences and outcomes and interweaving those experiences and outcomes with current theory and research in the field The volume thus portrays teachers as active reflective participants engaged in critical inquiry Contributors represent community college college and university contexts academic ESL developmental writing and first year composition classes and face to face hybrid and online contexts This book was developed primarily to meet the needs of practicing writing teachers in college level ESL basic writing and college composition classrooms but will also be useful to pre service teachers in TESOL Composition and Education graduate programs     Generation 1.5 in College Composition Mark Roberge,Meryl Siegal,Linda Harklau,2009-02-12 A well organized volume with a strong emphasis on pedagogy Trudy Smoke Hunter College City University of New York USA Generation 1 5 is the most interesting topic of concern in ESL today yet publications are few and far between The editors clearly know what they re doing They know the field know the subject matter and understand the problems This volume contributes to the thinking in the field Linda Lonon Blanton University of New Orleans USA Building on the work that has been done over the past decade this volume provides theoretical frameworks for understanding debates about immigrant students studies of students schooling paths and language and literacy experiences and pedagogical approaches for working with Generation 1 5 students Generation 1 5 in College Composition is designed to help both scholars and practitioners reconceptualize the fields of College Composition and TESOL and create a space for research theory and pedagogy focusing on postsecondary immigrant ESL students provides both important new theoretical work which lays the underpinnings for serious pedagogical innovation and important new pedagogical approaches Because of their varied and complex language and literacy profiles Generation 1 5 students are found in developmental English courses college ESL courses and mainstream college writing courses This volume is directed to preservice and inservice teachers teacher educators and researchers involved with educating Generation 1.5 students in these and other contexts
