reading material The Lord's Prayer (Touchstone Texts) William M. IV Wright, 2023-02-28 Since the beginning of Christianity the Lord's Prayer has occupied an important place in the lives of Jesus's disciples for it is the prayer Jesus himself taught them. Like other biblical prayers the Lord's Prayer contains words people offer to God. But since this prayer is from Jesus and is part of Scripture it is also God's Word to people. When we say this prayer not only are we speaking to God but God is also speaking to us. Highly regarded New Testament scholar William Wright shows how this classic text can speak afresh to the life of the church today. He integrates critical exegesis, theological exposition and Christian spirituality to explicate the theological substance of the Lord's Prayer. His goal is to help readers come to know God and love God and others more deeply through a focused study of this important Christian prayer. The Touchstone Texts series addresses key Bible passages making high quality biblical scholarship accessible to the church. The series editor is Stephen B. Chapman, Duke Divinity School.

The Gospel of John Frederick Dale Bruner, 2012-02-22 The author of a much loved two volume Matthew commentary 1990 that he greatly revised and expanded fourteen years later, Frederick Dale Bruner now offers The Gospel of John: A Commentary, more rich fruit of his lifetime of study and teaching. Rather than relying primarily on recent scholarship, Bruner honors and draws from the church's major John commentators throughout history including Augustine, Chrysostom, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Bultmann, Barrett and many more. Alongside this historical interpretation is Bruner's own contemporary interpretation which incorporates a lucid translation of the text, references to recent scholarship and his pastoral application of the Gospel to present day experience. Like Bruner's other work, this commentary is rich in biblical insights, broadly historical and deeply theological. Here is what Eugene Peterson said about Bruner's earlier work on Matthew: "This is the kind of commentary I most want: a theological wrestling with Scripture." Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete (although he does that very well) but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves. His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine, Calvin and Luther: expansive and leisurely, loving the text, the people in it and the Christians who read it. The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable resource for pastors, teachers and laypeople alike.
