Responsibility To Awe:

A Responsibility to Awe Rebecca Elson, 2018-09-27 Rebecca Elson's A Responsibility to Awe reissued as a Carcanet Classic. A Responsibility to Awe is a contemporary classic, a book of poems and reflections by a scientist for whom poetry was a necessary aspect of research crucial to understanding the world and her place in it, even as having contracted terminal cancer she confronted her early death. Rebecca Elson was an astronomer; her work took her to the boundary of the visible and measurable. Facts are only as interesting as the possibilities they open up to the imagination. She wrote her poems like her researches build imaginative inferences and speculations setting out from observation undeterred by knowing how little we can know.

Extraordinary Responsibility Shalini Satkunanandan, 2015-09-29 This book explores how an impoverished understanding of responsibility as quantifiable and dischargeable sustains moralistic politics. Why Theatre?

NTGent, Kaatje de Geest, Carmen Hornbostel, Milo Rau, 2020-10-30 For two years now the Belgian theatre NTGent and the Berlin based Verbrecher Verlag have been publishing the series The Golden Books. Books on the theory and practice of contemporary performance art on individual plays and general social questions. For the 5th volume after months of cultural lockdown when live arts were in a state of emergency and the whole institution rethought their priorities NTGent asked more than 100 of the most influential artists and intellectuals in the world the question Why theatre? Why is this art form so unique so beautiful so indispensable. From classical theatre to performance art and dance from activism to political theatre and the performativity of everyday life authors of all continents and generations delivered short essays, memories, manifestos, letters. Moments of aesthetic epiphany meet strong emotion, critical insights into the problems of representation and populism compete with utopian texts about the theatre of the future.
