Georgia Legends & Lore Alan Brown, 2022 Settle in for a juicy bushel of Peach State bafflement Haunted Halls Elizabeth Tucker, 2009-10-20 Why do so many American college students tell stories about encounters with ghosts In Haunted Halls the first book length interpretive study of college ghostlore Elizabeth Tucker takes the reader back to school to get acquainted with a wide range of college spirits Some of the best known ghosts that she discusses are Emory University's Dooley who can disband classes by shooting professors with his water pistol Mansfield University's Sara who threw herself down a flight of stairs after being rejected by her boyfriend and Huntingdon College's Red Lady who slit her wrists while dressed in a red robe Gettysburg College students have collided with ghosts of soldiers while students at St Mary of the Woods College have reported frightening glimpses of the Faceless

Nun Tucker presents campus ghostlore from the mid 1960s to 2006 with special attention to stories told by twenty first century students through e mail and instant messages Her approach combines social psychological and cultural analysis with close attention to students own explanations of the significance of spectral phenomena As metaphors of disorder insanity and school spirit college ghosts convey multiple meanings Their colorful stories warn students about the dangers of overindulgence as well as the pitfalls of potentially horrifying relationships Besides offering insight into students initiation into campus life college ghost stories make important statements about injustices suffered by Native Americans African Americans and others

Religion, Culture, and the Monstrous Joseph P. Laycock, Natasha L. Mikles, 2021-02-15 Religion Culture and the Monstrous Of Gods and Monsters explores the intersection of the emerging field of monster theory within religious studies With case studies from ancient Mesopotamia to contemporary valleys of the Himalayas to ghost tours in Savannah Georgia the volume examines the variegated nature of the monstrous as well as the cultural functions of monsters in shaping how we see the world and ourselves In this the authors constructively assess the state of the two fields of monster theory and religious studies and propose new directions in how these fields can inform each other The case studies included illuminate the ways in which monsters reinforce the categories through which a given culture sees the world At the same time the volume points to how monsters appear to question disrupt or challenge those categories creating an unsettling or surplus of meaning
