Mister Glow-Bones & Other Halloween Tales Ronald Kelly, 2020-09-09 Halloween is more than a holiday more than a fun time of candy and costumes for the young It is inoculated into our very being at an early age and there it remains As we grow old it grows dormant but it is still there For the lucky ones such as us it emerges every year like a reanimated corpse digging its way out of graveyard earth to shamble across our souls And we rejoice oh if we are the fortunate ones we most certainly rejoice So turn these pages and celebrate our heritage Blow the dust off the rubber mask in the attic and hang the glow in the dark skeleton upon the door Light the hollowed head of the butchered pumpkin and string the faux cobweb from every corner and eave It's Halloween once again Shed your adult skin with serpentine glee and walk the blustery October streets of long years past And most of all watch out for misplaced steps in the darkness and the things that lurk unseen in the shadows in between Stories included in this collection Mister
