Economics and International Business Studies Fallen heroes in global capitalism V. Trappman,Vera Trappmann,2013-05-07 Through the prism of Nowa Huta a landmark of socialist industrialization Trappmann challenges the one sided account of Poland as a successful transition case and reveals the ambivalent role of the European Union in economic restructuring An exemplary suggestive case of multi level analysis research Transforming Glasgow Rebecca Madgin,Keith Kintrea,2019-12-18 Some 30 years after Glasgow turned towards regeneration indicators of its built environment its health its economic performance and its quality of life remain below UK averages This interdisciplinary study examines the ongoing transformation of Glasgow as it transitioned from a de industrial to a post industrial city during the 20th and 21st centuries Looking at the diverse issues of urban policy regeneration and economic and social change it considers the evolving lived experiences of Glaswegians Contributors explore the actions required to secure the gains of regeneration and create an economically competitive socially just and sustainable city establishing a theory that moves beyond post industrialism and serves as a model for similar cities globally Employability and Local Labour Markets Ronald W. McQuaid,Anne E. Green,Mike Danson,2013-10-18 The concept of employability has provided a foundation for much current labour market policy It has also provided a useful framework for analyzing national and urban labour markets and related policies in a variety of different circumstances both for those in and out of work The papers in this book help progress the concept of employability demonstrating the importance of the geographic and spatial context and showing its flexibility and usefulness as a basis for theory analysis and policy The papers are divided into two main sections understanding the concept of employability lessons for labour market policy in changing labour markets The chapters also provide general insights into many current labour market policy debates As employability continues to be the foundation of many labour market policies this volume considers the economic and geographical dimensions of employability in local labour market analysis and policy This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal Urban Studies

Restructuring in the New EU Member States Marie-Ange Moreau,María Esther Blas-López,2008 This book presents a series of extremely stimulating analyses of the process of corporate restructuring in the new Member States of the EU Particularly noteworthy is the book s focus on the Central and Eastern European Countries CEECs that have joined the EU since 2004 an area which has not been prominent in the research on corporate restructuring conducted in Western Europe in the last twenty years As with their Asian counterparts these States have generally been perceived as a threat to employment in Western Europe due to the former s benefiting from outsourcing away from the latter By moving east the book allows for a different perspective on the restructuring process by placing it in the context of both Europe and the numerous changes affecting the CEECs The book seeks to understand the impact of European and national level policies on the concept of restructuring the role of the acquis communautaire and the place of social and political actors in the process of change in the context of new Member States where multinational firms have developed mobility and establishment strategies within the context of broader European and global ones The density of this collection its wealth in terms of substantive teachings and its use of a comparative and multidisciplinary approach that links law political science sociology and economics make it an essential resource for those wishing to understand restructuring in the European space after the enlargements of 2004 and 2007 and the impact of European policies and the European Social Model Enterprising Places Colette Henry,John Shutt,2014-07-09 Global economic shocks rising demands for welfare services and public sector austerity measures are signifiers of the processes that have heightened public policy imperatives associated with enabling enterprise The book contributes to the messy leadership and networked governance efforts of performing entrepreneurial synergies in place
